PREFACE.

A familiar acquaintance with the past leads to a truer appreciation of the present and a more intelligent apprehension of the future. Prompted by such a motive, the compiler of this work, now offered to the Church, frequently consulted the official records during the time when he was honored with the secretaryship of his Conference. Because of the discoveries which rewarded every research, and on account of the trains of thought which these pages of the past awakened, casual and desultory inquiries soon grew into a delightful and systematic study, and from a perusal for personal information the plan widened into an effort to share with others the knowledge of these old doings which lay entombed within the musty records of the years gone by.

Up to the year 1874 the present work is a translation, inasmuch as the minutes prior to that date were recorded in German. To make these translations from German script was singularly difficult. The peculiar phraseology of the past and the time-honored expressions which have the twofold sanction of age and continued use are retained, often at the expense of awkwardness in the English construction. In a word, equivalent renderings rather than rhetoric, and conciseness of statement in preference to style, have been the constant aim. There could have been greater condensation of the transactions by avoiding repetition of expressions, but upon close inspection it will readily appear that the plan pursued secures a more complete connection of events, an item of no small importance to one who is a student of historic sequence, as well as an observer of facts. The monotony which is necessarily connected with a repetition of terms has been relieved, as far as was consistent with conscientious exactness and a faithful presentation of the old and the new ways of doing things.

Transactions affecting the personnel of the Conference, boundaries, church affairs, education, finance, missionary appropriations, etc., are not found upon the earlier records in the systematic and convenient form in which they appear in this volume; on the contrary, they lie scattered in unclassified groups. In later years, when the committee reports on moral questions become voluminous, and the resolutions of one year contain repetitions of former deliverances, the repetitions are omitted and the language condensed.

This publication includes all the official Annual and General Conference proceedings of the entire Association prior to the year 1840. Subsequent to this period the scope of the book narrows down to the proceedings of the East Pennsylvania Conference, interleaved with important extracts from the transactions of the General Conference.

Special attention is directed to the alphabetical roll of preachers and to the table of statistics. Nothing like the former appears upon the records, and before the year 1861 there is only a fragmentary and unsystematic attempt to compile statistics. No means have been left unemployed, both of scrupulous research and repeated revision, to make these lists so accurate and reliable, that those who call here for information may do so with the fullest confidence. Thoroughness has been the persistent aim of the undertaking. For its imperfections of statement the indulgence of the reader is solicited.

To the brethren in the ministry, for their cheerful and ready assistance, as well as for their kind words of encouragement, the compiler is under many obligations. In the preparation of the copious index, Rev. J. H. Shirey rendered valuable assistance. Other quiet and helpful hands were constantly extended to lighten the task and hasten its completion.

The East Pennsylvania Conference possesses a striking and impressive individuality, which a careful analysis of her proceedings and an impartial study of her spirit will reveal. Her history is the history of the Evangelical Association during the greater part of the first half of this century; her spirit of self-denial and heroic energy is the spirit of her founders, our fathers. For the many days of pains-taking labor spent upon the pages now ready, it will be a rich compensation, if the apostolic spirit of the early days will return more fully upon us through the study of these EVANGELICAL LAND-MARKS.

THE EARLY DAYS.

"We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old."—
PS. XLIV: 1.

The origin of the Evangelical Association and the proceedings of the Conferences of Evangelical preachers, from A. D. 1800 to 1813. Recorded by GEORGE MILLER, Elder.

At the Conference session, held at New Berlin, Pa., June 7-11, 1819, it was resolved that the proceedings compiled by George Miller, as well as all the subsequent transactions of the Conference up to date, be inscribed in a suitable conference record, to be procured for this purpose. This was done by

JOHN DREISBACH,
Presiding Elder.

JANUARY 31, 1820.

THE EARLY DAYS.

The Lord our God, who always imparts sufficient light to men to work within them a good will and purpose, also bestows the power to do of his good pleasure and doubtless enables every one who wills, to perform his commandments and to become a diligent co-worker in the kingdom of grace according to the ability that has been given him.

Moreover Christ the Shepherd and Bishop of all souls gathers and edifies his church in manifold ways, but more especially through such who are faithful fellow-workers with his grace, whom he enlightens and sanctifies by his Holy Spirit. And wherever in the past the needs of Christendom have required it, he has, in various ways through his wise Providence, caused anew the revival of true godliness by means of his devoted servants. We therefore accept as a gift from the Lord, that which he has wrought through his servant Jacob Albright, the Evangelical preacher; for we perceive that it has pleased the Lord to work, and spread abroad his knowledge through the counsel and direction of this godly man.

Under the direction of this devout preacher, various persons united themselves, in the year of our Lord 1800, to pray with and for each other, in order that they might be saved from sin and flee from the wrath to come. In order to begin and carry out this good and momentous work, they decided to spend each Sunday in social prayer, and to set apart every Wednesday evening for prayermeeting. Studiously and with diligence they sought to avoid everything evil and sinful and to do all manner of good as far as God gave them strength and ability. The number of those disposed to attend such meetings soon increased and the work grew from year to year, as the records will show. This was the origin of the united Evangelical Association, the operations of which at first extended throughout the Counties of Berks and Northampton in the State of Pennsylvania. Because of their peculiarly earnest manner in worship, and more especially because Jacob Albright, by the grace of God, was the instrumental cause of their solemn union, they were at first called "The Albrights," by other Christian denominations.

In the year of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ 1801, the Association added only a few to its number. Several persons sought and found grace unto the pardon of their sins, so that they knew and were assured that God was their reconciled Father through Jesus Christ.

1802.

During this year about twenty persons united with the Association. Among them was a young man named John Walter, who entered the work of the ministry as a preacher on probation under the direction of the Rev. Jacob Albright.

The membership now numbered forty, the most of whom were converted. John Walter had grown in grace and continued in his determination to be a co-laborer in the work of spreading the knowledge of God. Abraham Liesser, another young man, entered the work as preacher on probation under the direction of Albright. During this year the Association resolved to introduce and establish an ecclesiastical organization, and accordingly elected Jacob Albright to the office of Elder among them. He was consecrated, that is ordained, by the other preachers in a suitable manner, by the laying on of hands, and thereby authorized to administer all the affairs belonging to a Christian Church, and to exercise the duties and offices belonging to an Evangelical preacher. With one accord they chose the Holy Scriptures as their rule of faith and conduct. A written license was granted to Albright by which the Association recognized him as a genuine Evangelical preacher, and authorized him to appoint other competent persons as co-laborers. This license was given under the following title and form:

"From the Elders and Brethren of his Congregation of Christian Evangelical Friends.

We, the undersigned, as Evangelical Christian Friends, recognize and declare Jacob Albright to be a genuine Evangelical preacher in word and in deed, and a believer (confessor) in the universal Christian Church and the communion of saints. To this we testify as brethren and elders of his congregation. Given in the State of Pennsylvania on the 5th day of November, 1803. Subscribed by John Walter and Abraham Liesser together with fourteen other persons."

1804.

In this year the total membership of the Evangelical Association was sixty, the greater number of whom professed to have experienced a change of heart. The circuits were confined mainly to Berks and Northampton counties, but the preachers extended their operations into Northumberland and Centre. The traveling preachers were Jacob Albright elder, and John Walter and Abraham Liesser preachers on trial. Alexander Jameson was newly received on trial. The salary of the preachers was raised by voluntary contributions and amounted to $15.30 for each. John Walter received permission to collect special contributions for the purpose of purchasing a horse; he secured $37.33.

The membership of the Evangelical Association reached a total of seventy-five persons during this year. The traveling preachers were Jacob Albright elder, John Walter in full connection, and Alexander Jameson continued on trial. George Miller was newly received on trial. Abraham Liesser died during the year. The fields of labor remained the same as last year. Efforts were made to establish new circuits in the counties of Dauphin and Lancaster. Jacob Albright and John Walter received equal shares from the general collections for salary. In addition to his salary Walter was permitted to collect the extra sum of $18.67 for the purpose of purchasing a horse. The friends raised $66.67 for Alexander Jameson as salary, besides giving him permission to collect $69.33 wherewith to purchase a horse.

In 1806 the work spread in the counties of Northumberland, Centre, and Dauphin. The total membership was 120. Three traveling preachers served the appointments. They were Jacob Albright elder, and John Walter and George Miller in full connection. Alexander Jameson located during the year on account of family concerns. The contributions for salary were divided in equal shares among Albright, Walter, Miller, and Jameson, with the exception that an extra sum was allowed to the last named to satisfy him for his services, after which he returned to his former avocation. The brethren resolved to receive no more preachers on probation who are not satisfied with an equal share of the general salary fund. It was also decided to create a new fund to be called Briefschafft Steuer*, the object of which was to meet the incidental expenses of the traveling preachers and to assist the poor of the Association.

*Near the close of each conference year, the preachers—usually the duty of the junior preacher on the circuit—solicited extra contributions with which to supply deficiencies in salary and assist the poor of the church. This collection was called the Briefschafft Steuer, and will be designated hereafter in these pages as the Subsidiary Collection.—S. C. B.

A suitable license was given to each of the preachers. The society authorized the appointment of local preachers. In consequence of this, Charles Bisse, Jacob Phillips, and Solomon Miller received license during the year as local preachers. It was resolved that hereafter regular Annual Conference sessions be held, to consist of the foremost members of our Evangelical Association, but more especially of our preachers, who are to be concerned to promote the general welfare of the Association by their counsel and their united action.

The First Annual Conference.

The first regular Annual Conference session of the Association was held at Muehlbach, Dauphin (now Lebanon) Co., Pa., on the 15th and 16th of November, 1807. The session was opened with a season of prayer during which we implored the divine blessing upon our transactions. Our membership had now reached a total of 220, nearly all of whom professed conversion. The following were the traveling preachers: Jacob Albright elder, and John Walter and George Miller in full connection. John Dreisbach and Jacob Frey were newly received on trial. The local preachers were Charles Bisse, Conrad Phillips, and Solomon Miller. The class leaders and exhorters present numbered twenty, making a total attendance of twenty-eight.

Jacob Albright was elected Bishop and George Miller, Elder by a majority of votes. The Conference appointed Jacob Albright to prepare and publish a brief compendium of church rules—a Discipline—for the instruction and edification of the societies. The fields of labor were then assigned to the preachers, after which the session closed with prayer.

The membership of the Association was not reported. There was, however, an increase in number. Besides Albright there were five traveling preachers: Geo. Miller elder, John Walter and John Dreisbach in full connection, and Jacob Frey continued on trial. John Erb was newly received on trial. The general salary fund was equally divided among the traveling preachers. The subsidiary collection, which amounted to $44, was distributed among J. Albright, G. Miller, and A. Jameson. The revered Jacob Albright died during this year, between Easter and Whitsuntide, [May 18th, 1808.]

1809.

The Second Annual Conference.

In April of 1809 the second regular Annual Conference was held in Albany Twp., Berks Co., Pa. The session was opened with prayer for the divine blessing to rest upon the transactions. The membership of the Association was reported to be 426. One preacher was expelled on account of immoral conduct. The traveling preachers on record were George Miller elder, John Walter and John Dreisbach in full connection, and John Erb on trial. Matthew Betz and Henry Niebel were newly received on trial. John Walter and John Dreisbach were elected to the office of Elder and afterwards ordained as such. After the circuits had been arranged the preachers were appointed to their various fields.

Geo. Miller was directed to travel and to preach as much as his health would allow. He was also instructed to write upon such subjects as might prove edifying to the Association. Owing to the failing health and early decease of Albright, the preparation of Articles of Faith and of a Discipline was accomplished by Geo. Miller. The Conference instructed the latter to publish the work at his own expense. It was resolved that the official documents of the Association shall hereafter be published under the title of "The so-called Albrights." John Dreisbach was instructed to publish for the use of the Association a small catechism which he had translated from the English. The Conference gave John Walter $42.72 out of the subsidiary collection, for the purchase of a horse. The session closed with prayer.

the Biography of Jacob Albright, composed by George Miller, be published at the expense of the traveling preachers. The Conference determined that an attempt should be made to hold two campmeetings, one on Northumberland Circuit to begin on May 30th, and the other in the month of October on Schuylkill Circuit. The salary received by a traveling preacher was $30. The subsidiary collection amounted to $30.80, which was distributed among Geo. The Conference appointed J. Dreisbach and H.

Niebel to secure a printed form of license for preachers, J. Dreisbach promising to procure a suitable conference seal. These two brethren were also instructed to unify and edit our Discipline and to compile a good and suitable collection of hymns. It was unanimously agreed that local preachers who have stood their probation for six years shall, upon the recommendation of twelve itinerant preachers, be ordained. The Conference elected a Chief Book Commission, empowered to superintend for the Evangelical Association the printing establishment and book bindery with all their appurtenances, as long as the Conference shall see proper. 1816.

The General Conference.

President, John Dreisbach.

Secretary, Henry Niebel.

The General Conference of the Evangelical Association convened in Buffalo Valley, Union Co., Pa., on the 14th day of October, 1816, and continued in session until the 17th. J. Dreisbach was elected chairman, and H. Niebel, secretary. Solomon Miller was elected general book agent, and H. Niebel, assistant.

It was resolved to meet in Social Conference with the United Brethren in Christ, at Conococheague, Maryland, on Feb. 14th, 1816; the object of this conference being an attempt to unite the two denominations, if such be the will of God. The delegates chosen to represent the Evangelical Association were: J. Dreisbach, H. Niebel, Solomon Miller, John Kleinfelter, D. Thomas, and A. Ettinger.

The Discipline—re-arranged and improved by the brethren J. Dreisbach and H. Niebel—was examined and approved. Its publication was deferred until after the meeting of the Social Conference, with instructions that, if no union be effected by that body, fifteen hundred copies of the revised Discipline be published as soon as possible. The new hymn book "Das Geistliche Saiten Spiel" was examined and approved. Fifteen hundred copies were ordered to be published at once. The General Conference adjourned with the customary resolution of sanction to the proceedings, of reliance upon God and diligence in his service. Attached to the proceedings are the following names: J. Dreisbach, H. Niebel, J. Erb, J. Stambach, J. Kleinfelter, S. Miller, D. Thomas, J. Dehoff, J. Frueh, and A. Ettinger.

1817.The Tenth Annual Conference.

President, Henry Niebel.

Secretary, John Kleinfelter.

The Conference met in our meeting-house at New Berlin, Pa., on Monday, June 2d, 1817, and continued in session five days. After the opening exercises, H. Niebel was elected chairman and John Kleinfelter, secretary. During the investigation of the conduct of the preachers, two were deposed and expelled from the Association on account of unchristian conduct, and three were deposed from the ministry for neglect of duty, the Conference declaring it to be improper to grant a preacher's license to men who preach but a few times during a year or perhaps not at all, and who neglect those duties which are for their own edification and for that of the church. D. Thomas and A. Henig located on account of bodily infirmities, and P. Schmidt on account of family cares. John Kleinfelter, Jacob Kleinfelter, and J. Stambach were ordained to the office of Elder; J. Bruer and A. Ettinger, to the office of Deacon. Five were received as preachers on trial,—James Barber, Henry Wieand, Adam Kleinfelter, Benjamin Boesher, and Samuel Muck. The Conference elected J. Dreisbach, H. Niebel, and John Kleinfelter a committee to assign to the preachers their fields of labor.

The Conference ordered that in the event the regular salary contributions and the subsidiary collections do not suffice for the support of the preachers, special collections shall be taken to cover the deficiency. The following persons were elected to act as agents for the Book Commission: Joseph Kleinfelter on York Cir., J. Erb on Franklin Cir., Jacob Kerber on Berkley Cir., Peter Ridy on Columbia Cir., Chr. Wolf on Lake Cir., Nicholas Neith on Somerset Cir., and A. Henig on Canton Cir. J. Dreisbach was instructed to visit Lake Cir., and H. Niebel, Canton and Lancaster (Ohio) Cirs. during the year. The preachers received their licenses and gave each other the class books and desirable information upon all grave and important subjects, after which the Conference adjourned in the usual manner.

The Eleventh Annual Conference.

President, John Dreisbach.

Secretary, Henry Niebel.

The Annual Session of 1818 was held in our church at New Berlin, Pa., beginning on Monday, June 1st, and continuing until June 5th. The religious exercises at the opening were followed by organization. J. Dreisbach was elected president and H. Niebel, secretary. The following brethren located: J. Frueh and A. Ettinger on account of bodily infirmities; H. Wieand and J. Bruer on account of family concerns. J. Frueh, J. Rickel, M. Dehoff, B. Ettinger, F. Kaltreiter, J. Schilling, and J. Barber were ordained to the office of Deacon. The following received license as preachers on trial: Henry Hassler, John Breidenstein, Samuel Witt, and John Peters. J. Dreisbach and H. Niebel were re-elected to the office of Presiding Elder for a period of four years. They exchanged districts. The Conference elected J. Dreisbach, H. Niebel, and John Kleinfelter a committee to assign to the preachers their circuits for the coming year.

Inasmuch as there was not enough money to satisfy the needs of the preachers, the Conference gave to each a writing in the form of a petition addressed to the members of the Association asking them to bestow such gifts upon needy preachers as will secure for them that which, in the opinion of the Conference, is necessary to their support, and which was not in the power of the Conference to give; such contributions to be known as collections.

The following was established as a law to regulate the reception of persons coming from the Methodist Episcopal Church. Only such members of that church shall be received into our Association who come with the consent of their preacher, who have removed from the bounds of their church into the territory of ours, or who for sufficient reasons, as for example, on account of language, have withdrawn from their church in a regular manner. And whoever of our preachers receives them in any other manner shall be dealt with as a gross offender and transgressor. It was unanimously resolved that none of our ministers be allowed to wear gloves during Summer, nor to use silver-plated bridle bits or stirrups, or loaded whips, and in no case to adorn their person with large watch keys; this resolution to be positively observed by all of our ministers whether they be connected with the Annual or with the Quarterly Conferences.

The advisability of publishing one or more books during this year was left to the discretion of J. Dreisbach, H. Niebel, and S. Miller. J. Dreisbach and H. Niebel were instructed to write to the trustees ordering that the subsidiary collections be brought to the next annual session. Each preacher received his license, after which the Conference adjourned in the usual manner.

The Fifteenth Annual Conference.

President, John Kleinfelter.

Secretary, John Erb.

The Annual Conference session of 1822 was held on Union Circuit, in New Berlin, Pa. The session continued from June 3d to 6th. John Kleinfelter was elected president and J. Erb secretary. B. Ettinger and M. Walter located on account of bodily infirmities, and M. Dehoff on account of family affairs. The following were ordained: D. Wolf, H. Hassler, and J. Breidenstein to the office of Elder, and J. Seybert and D. Middlekauf to the office of Deacon. Wm. Scholty, John W. Miller, Joseph Long, Abraham Becker, Philip Wagner, and Fred. Borauf were newly received as preachers on trial. The committee elected to station the preachers consisted of J. Erb, John Kleinfelter, and Jacob Kleinfelter.

Inasmuch as the Chief Book Commission has had but few meetings on account of the absence of its lay members, the duties incident to the reckoning thus devolving upon the ministerial members, and inasmuch as the preachers attend Annual Conference at all events, it was deemed advisable to elect preachers only as members of the commission. In accordance with this, the following were elected:—J. Dreisbach, General Book Agent, J. Erb, John Kleinfelter, Jacob Kleinfelter, J. Dehoff, D. Wolf, and J. Seybert. After the preachers had received their licenses, the Conference adjourned.

The members of Conference assembled in annual session, June 7th, 1825, at New Berlin, Union Co., Pa. After an exhortation by J. Dreisbach, the session was opened with the usual religious exercises. A. Kleinfelter was elected president. He appointed J. Seybert secretary. During the examination into the doctrines and conduct of the preachers two were deposed from the ministry, one of whom was expelled from the Association, because of unchristian conduct and gross offences. J. Stoll and J. Bicksler located on account of bodily infirmities; John Kleinfelter, Jacob Kleinfelter, B. Bicksler, and F. Glasser, on account of family concerns. J. The following were newly received as preachers on trial: John Hamilton, Jacob Erly, Joseph M. Saylor, George Reich, George Schneider, and Benjamin Becker, M. D., A. Kleinfelter, J. Barber, and J. Seybert were elected a committee to assign to the preachers their fields of labor. It was resolved that an edition of one thousand copies of Die Geistliche Viole, with an appendix of eight additional hymns, be published during this year. The Conference leased the printing establishment to George Miller, the printer, for one year at a rent of $60, agreeing to furnish him with a sufficient quantity of pica type. Abraham Buchman presented $40 to the Conference to be applied to the purchase of a horse for an indigent itinerant preacher. To this amount $10 from the subsidiary collections were added and the entire sum given to an itinerant for the prescribed purpose, with the proviso that the horse shall be his as long as his conduct is in keeping with the word of God and our Discipline. Otherwise the horse becomes the property of the Conference.

After the sermon and exhortation on Friday forenoon, the Conference adjourned with the usual resolution of approval of the proceedings. J. Seybert adds that there existed peace and harmony among them and a new bond of love; also the determination to disseminate the word of God to the best of their ability, with prayer, exhortation, and preaching, and to live as a salt of the earth and a light of the world in self denial, faithfulness, and constancy until death, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Conference met on the 5th day of June, 1826, in our meeting-house at New Berlin, Pa. The session was opened with devotional exercises. John Seybert was elected president; he appointed J. C. Reisner secretary. One preacher was deposed from the ministry because of immoral conduct. The following brethren located: J. Foy on account of bodily infirmities and B. Becker, F. Borauf, and J. Dehoff, on account of family cares. P. Wagner, J. C. Reisner, J. Long, and A. Becker were ordained to the office of Elder; H. Wissler, D. Manwiller, and Michael Hassler, to the office of Deacon. These solemn ordination services which consisted of an appropriate sermon, an exhortation, fervent prayers, and the laying on of hands, were crowned with blessings. Francis Hoffman and Samuel Tobias were newly received as preachers on trial. A stationing committee was appointed, consisting of J. Seybert, J. Barber, and J. Long. Five brethren were added to the Chief Book Commission, after which it consisted of J. Dreisbach, General Book Agent, J. Seybert, J. C. Reisner, J. Miller, T. Buck, J. Hamilton, and J. M. Saylor.

J. Dreisbach, the General Book Agent, gave the Book Commission a report of the book concern. The Commission audited his accounts and made an entry in the books of the Printing House, as has been done annually since the establishment is in existence. It was resolved that our books be sold at the following prices: the large Hymn Book (Saitenspiel) at $1.00; the Viole at 50 cents; the New Testament at $1.00; is a marginal note in which J. Dreisbach declares it to have been a General Conference as well as the regular Annual Conference session.—S. C. B.

the Church Discipline at 40 cents; the tract Menschen Furcht at 37½ cents, and Thätiges Christenthum at 50 cents. The preachers received an average discount of ten per cent. on these prices. Several spiritual songs, recently composed, were ordered to be printed in pamphlet form, an edition of five hundred copies to be published for the use of this Conference.

At the Annual Conference session at Strasburgh, in 1824, the following resolution was adopted, but inasmuch as it was not entered upon the records, it was re-enacted and recorded at this session as follows: Resolved, That an annual Conference of Local Preachers shall be held by each presiding elder in his district shortly before the annual session of the conference of traveling preachers. The chief object of this conference is to be the investigation of the conduct and doctrines of the local preachers, a report of which is to be made to the regular conference of itinerants.

In answer to a petition from the brethren of the Ohio District, it was resolved that an annual conference of itinerant preachers be organized in that district under the name of "THE WESTERN CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION;" that this conference shall meet in annual session at least three weeks earlier than the EASTERN CONFERENCE in Pennsylvania, and have full right to transact annual conference business in accordance with the directions of our Discipline. It was furthermore enacted that the Western Conference shall send its proceedings to the presiding elders or president of the Eastern Conference; that an equality be observed between the two conferences in the division of the general salary and the subsidiary collections until such time when the Western Conference shall find itself able to support its traveling preachers, and that the proceedings of both conferences as well as the accounts with the preachers be recorded in the old conference record. The Western Conference was, however, instructed to keep a correct conference record for its own use.

The Conference adjourned in the usual manner. Love peace, and unity crowned this assembly of preachers. Blessed be God now and forever, Amen! Amen!

EXPLANATORY.

The Ohio District being so far removed from the rest of the work as to occasion great inconvenience and expense to the preachers to meet in one annual session, it was constituted a separate conference to be known as the "Western Conference." The old conference was called the "Eastern Conference." Their relation was peculiar, the Western being subordinate to and in some respects identical with the Eastern. The Eastern Conference frequently stationed the preachers of the Western, and the latter sent its proceedings to the former for approval. Although the annual sessions of the Western Conference were held prior to those of the Eastern, yet it has been considered most in keeping with the scope of this volume to let the proceedings of the Eastern appear first each year.

The Eastern Conference.—The Second (21st) Annual Session.

President, John Seybert.

Secretary, J. Conrad Reisner.

The members of the Eastern Conference assembled in annual session June 2d, 1828, in New Berlin, Union Co., Pa. The Conference was opened with the customary devotional exercises, after which J. Seybert was elected president. He appointed J. C. Reisner secretary. A local preacher and a preacher on trial were deposed from the ministry on account of immoral conduct. J. C. Reisner and J. M. Saylor located on account of bodily infirmities, and B. Ettinger on account of family concerns. Thomas Buck was elected

*The Western Conference was without a presiding elder during the year.

†These two brethren were "sent out" by the Eastern Conference.

Presiding Elder. J. Bruer and D. Manwiller were ordained Elders, F. Hoffman and J. G. Conser, Deacons. The brethren Wm. W. Orwig, Jacob Hooch, John H. Yambert, and Elias Stoever were newly received as preachers on trial. The committee chosen to assign to the preachers their fields of labor consisted of J. Barber, J. Seybert, T. Buck, P. Wagner, and A. Kleinfelter.

The total amount contributed by the two Conferences for the general salary fund and for subsidiary purposes was distributed among twenty-four preachers in both conferences. The total number of itinerant and local preachers in the Association was eighty.

It was resolved that a married preacher having spent five years in active service shall receive for salary an amount double that of an unmarried one, the salaries to be paid out of the general and subsidiary collections. Of the special support given to the families of itinerants an account is to be kept and rendered under the name of subsidiary contributions, whether it be received in the form of grain, meat, cloth, flax, or anything else. This action is to be announced to the friends on the circuits. The preachers in both conferences were instructed to make diligent efforts to increase the annual subsidiary collection. The Conference consented to the reception of F. Shauer by the Western Conference and approved the remainder of the proceedings of that body.

One of the preachers on trial having married before his probation had ended, he was excused by the Conference upon his plea that he had been betrothed before he entered the itinerancy, and because of the fact that in all other respects his conduct during his probation was unexceptionable. It was, however, resolved that hereafter no preachers are to be received until it has been ascertained that they are free from similar obligations.

H. Niebel and P. Wagner were elected members of the Chief Book Commission in the places of J. M. Saylor and J. Hamilton, who were not present. The Commission audited the accounts of J. Dreisbach, General Book Agent, and found them correct. J. Dreisbach was authorized to sell the Book Establishment upon terms subject to his discretion. George Miller, the printer, was appointed the agent of the Conference to attend to the book trade. The Conference adjourned in the usual manner.

President, Joseph Long.

Secretary, John W. Miller.

On the fifth day of May, the Western Conference session of 1828 was opened with religious exercises at Uniontown, Stark Co., Ohio. The Conference organized by electing J. Long president, who appointed J. W. Miller secretary. During the investigation into the doctrines and conduct of the preachers, a deacon was deposed from the ministry and expelled from the Association, because of immoral conduct. It was resolved that J. Long serve as Presiding Elder as much as his enfeebled health will allow. He had traveled only six or seven months during each of the two preceding years. F. Shauer was again received and ordained to the office of Deacon. J. W. Miller was delegated to take to the Eastern Conference the subsidiary collection and the accounts of the general salary contributions and traveling expenses of the preachers, in order that all the contributions might be included in one general account.

APPOINTMENTS.

It was decided that the Eastern Conference shall station the preachers in this Conference for the ensuing year, that at least three of them be ordained preachers and that A. Kleinfelter represent this Conference in the stationing committee of the Eastern Conference.

1829.

The Eastern Conference.—The Third (22d) Annual Session.

President, Thomas Buck.

Secretary, John Seybert.

The members of the Eastern Conference assembled in our Evangelical meeting-house at New Berlin, Union Co., Pa., on June 1st, 1829. At the opening of the session our Evangelical Conference Rules were read, after which those present engaged in devotional exercises. T. Buck was elected president. He appointed J. Seybert secretary. Two preachers were deposed from the ministry and one of them expelled from the Association. J. W. Miller located on account of family affairs. J. Stambach, an elder, died during the past year, and we entertain the hope that for him faith has changed to sight, labor has been rewarded with rest, and that having sown to the spirit he is reaping life everlasting.

J. Seybert was re-elected Presiding Elder for a period of four years. The following were newly received on trial: Geo. Brickley, Joseph Ebbert, Solomon G. Miller, Jacob Schnerr, and Wm. Ray. T. Buck, J. Seybert, and A. Kleinfelter were elected a committee to station the preachers in both conferences.

The total contributions of both conferences were distributed among twenty-two preachers. Salary for two months was deducted from the support of one itinerant because he was in good health and engaged in secular business during that time.

On account of age and failing health, Martin Dreisbach resigned his office as trustee of the subsidiary fund and bequests. His accounts were audited and found correct. J. Barber, H. Wissler, J. M. Saylor, and A. Kleinfelter were elected to fill vacancies in the Book Commission, the other members being J. Dreisbach, General Book Agent, H. Niebel, and T. Buck.

J. Dreisbach, General Book Agent, made a report which was audited and found correct. J. Seybert was elected chief trustee of the moneys and other property which have been and will be bequeathed for the use of our Evangelical ministry, with instructions to hold himself in readiness to give an account of his trust at any time it may be required of him. T. Buck was elected trustee of the book money, to appropriate it according to the directions of the Conference. The resolution of the Western Conference in the proceedings of 1829, with reference to re-baptizing persons, was considered and endorsed. It was resolved that our Church Discipline be translated into English and published as soon as possible.

The Western Conference.

President, Joseph Long.

Secretary, Henry Wissler.

The Western Conference met in annual session on Canton Circuit, Tuscarawas Twp., Stark Co., Ohio, May 4th, 1829. The brethren elected J. Long president, who appointed H. Wissler secretary. Charges having been preferred against a preacher for baptizing a person who had already been baptized in infancy, the subject was taken under consideration. The deliberations resulted in a unanimous resolution expressly forbidding our preachers to re-baptize under any circumstances. For this action the following reasons were assigned: 1st, Our Church Discipline gives no such directions; 2d, We can find no authority in the Sacred Scriptures for re-baptism; 3d, It is our belief that its introduction would be followed by evil consequences.

A local preacher was deposed from the ministry and expelled from the Association for immoral conduct. During the past year Jacob Kleinfelter "the second," a local preacher, died. He has gone from labor to rest and from seed time to harvest. G. Schneider, S. Tobias, and Elias Stoever were ordained to the office of Deacon. John G. Zinser was newly received on trial.

APPOINTMENTS.

J. Long was appointed to serve as Presiding Elder on the district as much as his strength would allow. Elias Stoever was appointed to Canton Circuit, and G. Schneider to Lancaster Circuit. It was agreed that the Eastern Conference station the remainder of the district. H. Wissler was delegated to take a correct copy of the proceedings to the Eastern Conference. The session adjourned in the usual manner.

1830.

The Eastern Conference.—The Fourth (23d) Annual Session.

President, Thomas Buck.

Secretary, John Seybert.

On Monday, June 1st, 1830, the Eastern Conference met in our meeting-house at Orwigsburg, Pa. After the customary opening exercises, which included the reading of a portion of our Church Discipline, the Conference was organized by the election of Thomas Buck as president who appointed J. Seybert secretary. Four preachers were deposed from the ministry: an itinerant deacon for neglect of duty and for leaving his circuit without a cause; a local preacher for distilling brandy; another local preacher on account of uncharitable expressions against our disciplinary management; and a local elder for unchristian conduct. J. Hamilton, H. Wissler, and J. M. Saylor located on account of bodily infirmities; F. Hoffman and J. Ebbert, on account of family concerns. Henry Meyer, a local preacher, died during the past year, of whom we entertain the hope that he has passed from faith to sight. Charles Hammer, Daniel Kehr, John S. Himmelreich, and Robert G. Hunter were newly received as preachers on trial. The committee elected to station the preachers consisted of T. Buck, J. Seybert, and H. Niebel.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that such preachers of the Eastern and Western conferences who, on account of neglect of duty, do not secure as much for the general salary and subsidiary funds as in the judgment of the Conference they could have gathered, shall have their salaries lessened at the discretion of the Conference. It was also resolved that married traveling preachers of the Western Conference shall be entitled to double salary with those of the Eastern, upon the condition that that conference labor diligently to secure funds for this purpose. It was agreed to call a session of the General Conference, to be held in Hains Twp., Centre Co., Pa., and to begin on the first Monday in November.

The transactions of the Western Conference were taken under consideration. It was resolved that henceforth no such ordination as that of M. Kibler shall take place, as long as our Church Discipline has not been changed. The Western Conference was denied the privilege of appointing a general book agent. George Miller, the printer, was ordered to print 2,000 copies of the Viole, in New Berlin, Pa., at $20 per hundred. The retail price of the Church Discipline was fixed at 31½ cents per copy.

In accordance with a resolution adopted by the Eastern Conference, the General Conference convened on May 25th, 1835, at Orwigsburg, Schuylkill Co., Pa. Singing, prayer, and the reading of the Sacred Scriptures constituted the opening exercises. H. Niebel was elected president. He appointed J. G. Zinser secretary. The following named elders constituted this General Conference: J. G. Zinser, J. Seybert, W. W. Orwig, P. Wagner, J. Barber, J. Breidenstein, J. C. Reisner, J. H. Yambert, J. Schnerr, D. Kehr, S. G. Miller, G. Brickley, F. Hoffman, E. Stoever, and J. M. Saylor of the Eastern Conference; H. Niebel, J. Long, C. Hammer, and C. Kring of the Western Conference. The preachers were investigated concerning their doctrines and conduct during the past year.

Some changes of boundaries were made in several presiding elder districts. Somerset, Indiana, and Erie circuits were detached from the Eastern Conference and annexed to the Western, and these three fields together with Canton Circuit, were formed into a district called Carmel District. In this new arrangement the Eastern Conference included three districts and the Western two. It was resolved that the Western Conference meet annually on the first Monday in March, and the Eastern, on the third Monday following. The presiding elders of both annual conferences were stationed.

The Conference ordered that 4,000 copies of the Geistliche Viole be published, and that a copyright of the work be secured in the name of J. Seybert of Pennsylvania and H. Niebel of Ohio. The preachers were instructed to gather data for the compilation of a book on the life and ministerial career of John Walter. It was resolved that hereafter the transactions of the Quarterly Conferences be recorded in suitable minute-books to be kept for that purpose.

At this session the Association decided to publish a religious paper to be called Der Christliche Botschafter. J. Long, J. C. Reisner, and C. Hammer were appointed a committee to prepare a brief summary setting forth the character of the contemplated periodical. This committee reported the following outline of the design and contents of the Christliche Botschafter: 1st, To impart the divine truths of Holy Writ in their unadulterated purity and in such a manner as can be plainly understood by the common people; 2d, The dissemination of religious intelligence, and facts concerning the progress of true Christianity, with special reference to the work among the Germans of America; 3d, The interpretation and discussion of passages of Scripture; 4th, The biographies of pious, God-fearing persons; 5th, Useful and edifying natural history, etc.

P. Wagner, J. M. Saylor, and C. Hammer were appointed to prepare rules governing the issue of the periodical. They reported the following: 1st, The Christliche Botschafter shall be issued monthly at a subscription price of seventy-five cents a year, to be paid within the year, but in case the payment is not prompt the subscription charge to be one dollar; 2d, Subscriptions for a period of less than six months will not be received, and whoever desires to stop the paper must first pay all arrearages; 3d, Every preacher in charge in the Association is an agent to secure subscriptions and receive the money; 4th, All letters, communications, etc., not coming from the regular agents should be sent pre-paid.

It was resolved that the preachers in charge—the agents—shall solicit subscriptions, collect the money, and make an annual settlement with their respective presiding elders who are to constitute a general committee in each conference. The profits flowing from this project are to be applied in the same manner as the other book profits. It was furthermore resolved that each presiding elder shall receive for his trouble a royalty of one cent on every small book and two cents on every large book that is sold in his district and delivered through him to his preachers. The committee of the Eastern Conference was instructed to publish the Christliche Botschafter as soon as the number of subscribers has reached 700, this committee to take charge of the entire matter.

The Conference resolved that wherever practicable German Sabbath schools are to be organized and conducted in the congregations of our Evangelical Association, and that it be made the duty of every preacher in charge to strive earnestly to carry out this purpose.

The Conference ordered that a Local Preachers' Conference be held annually on each circuit, shortly before the session of the regular Annual Conference, and that all local preachers shall be under obligations to attend. W. W. Orwig, J. Long, and J. C. Reisner were appointed to formulate rules governing the transactions of Local Preachers' Conferences. They reported the following:

Local Preachers' Conferences and their Transactions.

Question. Who are the members of the Local Preachers' Conference? Answer. All local and traveling preachers who are found within the bounds of the circuit where each of these conferences is held. The presiding elder is also a member. Ques. Who is authorized to appoint the time and place of the meeting of these conferences? Ans. The presiding elder. In case he neglects it the preacher in charge shall do so. Ques. What are to be the transactions of the Local Preachers' Conference and who is to be the president? Ans. The presiding elder is to act as president and in his absence the preacher in charge. The records are to be sent to the Annual Conference for inspection. H. Niebel, J. Barber, and J. G. Zinser were appointed to formulate rules regulating the support of traveling preachers. They reported as follows: 1st. Newly married or single preachers received into the traveling connection shall be obliged to travel five years before they are permitted to draw any support for their families. 2d. After the five years, a married preacher without children shall receive half again as much support as a single preacher; with one or two children, three-fourths again as much, and with three or more children, twice as much. 3d. In case a preacher who was married two or more years previous to his entrance be received into the traveling connection he shall, after he has traveled two years, receive salary according to the second paragraph of this report.

The Conference resolved to incorporate an organization under the name of the "Charitable Society of the Evangelical Association," to be located in Orwigsburg, Schuylkill Co., Pa., and to consist of the following nine persons: J. Seybert, J. P. Leib, Jacob Hammer, Joseph Hammer, Eli Hammer, S. Rickert, John Rickert, W. Wildermuth, and Andrew Swalm. A committee, consisting of J. Long, W. W. Orwig, and J. C. Reiser, was appointed to construct a plan of organization. They reported the following: 1st, No person can become a member of this Society who is not 21 years of age, a member of the Evangelical Association for at least one year, and a citizen of Pennsylvania; 2d, In case of vacancies occurring through death, resignation, or expulsion from the church, the Society shall nominate double the number of those whose seats have become vacant, from which nominees the next General Conference shall elect the required member or members; 3d, This incorporated Society shall have charge of all charitable funds and bequests, loan the money at lawful interest and annually pay the income to the Eastern Conference of the Evangelical Association.

The following rule with reference to local preachers was adopted: In case a local preacher absents himself from conference sessions without well founded reasons he shall be punished; if he is a preacher on trial, his license shall be withheld for one year; if ordained, his ordination shall be withheld; for a second offence he is to be deposed from the ministry.

The two old conferences were divided into three, as follows: The East Pa. Conference, to include Canaan, Philadelphia, and Moriah districts; the West Pa. Conference, Salem, Zion, and Carmel districts; the Ohio Conference, Ohio, Tabor, and Sandusky districts. .

The organization and constitution of a Missionary Society were submitted to the Conference and adopted, the society to be known as "The Missionary Society of the Evangelical Association of North America." The Conference ordered that a German pocket Bible be stereotyped. A sufficient number of advance subscribers paid $2.50 and $2.75 for the work. The manufacture of spirituous drinks for any purpose other than medicinal, was strictly prohibited among the members of our church.

[An anti-slavery resolution was adopted, the text of which does not appear upon the official records. From the current numbers of the Christliche Botschafter it appears that the resolution prohibited all members of the church from owning slaves or engaging in the slave trade.—S. C. B.]

Our preachers were authorized to administer, preach, and defend infant as well as adult baptism according to our form; also to re-baptize such persons who were baptized in their childhood if they make application and cannot otherwise satisfy their consciences, no preacher being allowed, however, to advocate re-baptism.

The Conference adjourned to meet on the first Monday in November 1843, on Tabor District, Ohio Conference.

"And they divided the land."—JOSH. XIV: 5.

PREFACE.

The General Conference of 1839 re-districted the church into three annual conferences called respectively The East Pa. Conference, The West Pa. Conference, and The Ohio Conference. With the first of these, embracing the territory upon which the Evangelical Association first found footing, the remainder of these pages will be principally occupied. The official records of the East Pa. Conference will be interspersed, however, with extracts from the quadrennial proceedings of the General Conference. These extracts have either direct reference to the work and personnel of the East Pa. Conference or form important links in the chain of events.

*The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops John Seybert and Joseph Long.

Secretary, A. B. Schaeffer.

Assistant Secretaries, H. Fisher and Chas. Hammer.

The General Conference met in Summit Co., Ohio, on October 23d, 1843, and continued in session eleven days. During the investigation of the members of the Conference no charges were preferred. All the delegates elected by the East Pa. Conference were present, with the exception of Charles Hesser whose death, caused by an accident, occurred on his way to this Conference session. Jacob Saylor, first alternate, took his place. It was unanimously resolved that a special service be held in memory of the deceased delegate. In accordance with this resolution the members of the General Conference assembled at the house of Elias Stoever, whence they proceeded in procession to the meeting-house in which the sessions of the Conference were held. Here Bishop Seybert preached a sermon from the words "For he was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."—Acts xi: 24.

The salary of an unmarried itinerant preacher was fixed at $100.00 per annum; a married itinerant to receive $100.00 additional for his wife and $25.00 additional for each of his children under 14 years of age. Besides this a reasonable allowance was to be granted for traveling expenses. John Seybert was re-elected and Joseph Long newly elected to the office of Bishop. J. C. Reisner of the East Pa. Conference was elected general book agent, and Adam Ettinger of the West Pa. Conference, editor of the Christliche Botschafter.

The name of Canaan District in the East Pa. Conference was changed to Harrisburg District. The last Wednesday in February was fixed as the time to open the annual sessions of the East Pa. Conference.

Bishops Seybert and Long, A. Ettinger, editor of the Christliche Botschafter, J. C. Reisner, General Book Agent, and W. W. Orwig were appointed a committee to prepare a course of study for our junior preachers and for candidates for the ministry. It was made obligatory upon all such to give diligent study to this course.

The Conference ordered that the interest accruing from the Charitable Society funds and the profits arising from the printing establishment are to be divided in equal shares among the different annual conferences and that each conference be required to support its own claimants. The Charitable Society was advised to loan $1,200.00 to the congregation at Philadelphia and $300.00 to the congregation at Rochester, provided these congregations can give ample security and reliable assurances of paying the interest annually. J. P. Leib, J. M. Saylor, and M. F. Maize were appointed to inquire into the affairs of the congregation at Rochester.

In view of the rapid spread of the English language in the Association, authority was conferred upon each annual conference to organize within its bounds whenever it may be deemed advisable, an English conference, to consist of ten or more English preachers. The membership of the entire Evangelical Association at this time was 13,070, distributed among the conferences as follows: East Pa., 4,372; West Pa., 4,508; Ohio, 4,190. The old conference record thus far in the possession of the East Pa. Conference was set apart as a record for the proceedings of the General Conference only, to be kept in custody by the book establishment.

The Fifth (37th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop John Seybert.

Secretary, Fred. Danner.

Assistant Secretary, Wm. Mintz.

The Conference met in the Evangelical meeting-house at Orwigsburg, Pa., Feb. 28th, 1844, and continued in session until March 8th. H. Sauer located on account of bodily infirmities and C. Holl on account of family concerns. C. Hesser had died during the year. H. Bucks was elected Presiding Elder. C. Meyers and S. Neitz were ordained Elders; J. C. Farnsworth, T. Steck, and D. K. Miesse, Deacons. It was resolved that for sufficient reasons Wm. Schmidt shall be ordained Deacon in the interim of the sessions. The bishops and the presiding elders stationed the preachers. The following committees were appointed: On Finance, M. F. Maize, W. Mintz, and W. L. Reber; To Audit Accounts of Missionaries,—M. F. Maize, H. Bucks, and Jacob Saylor; To Examine Manuscripts for Publication,—J. P. Leib and J. M. Saylor.

F. Kreckler was appointed to make abstracts of the proceedings of former sessions of this Conference recorded in the old conference book and to transcribe them into a new one. H. Buck was appointed to report the proceedings of this session to the Christliche Botschafter. The Conference paid a bill of $8.00 for accidental damages to a team used by the brethren, H. Fisher, C. Hesser, M. F. Maize, and J. M. Saylor, on their way to the recent General Conference session. [From this accident C. Hesser had sustained injuries with fatal results.]

The brethren agreed that in the future, gifts received are not to be charged as salary.

1847.

The Eighth (40th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop Joseph Long.

Secretary, Francis Hoffman.

Assistant Secretaries, F. Kreckler and S. Neitz.

The eighth annual session of the East Pennsylvania Conference was opened in our Evangelical meeting-house in Fayette Twp., Seneca Co., N. Y., on Feb. 23d, 1847, and continued until Wednesday, Mar. 3d. The following committees were appointed: On Worship,—W. Mintz, J. Riegel, and H. Fisher; On Finance,—J. M. Saylor, F. Danner, and M. Lehn; On Conference Claimants,—H. Bucks, H. Fisher, and J. M. Saylor; On Books,—H. Fisher and H. Bucks.

A preacher on trial and a local preacher were deposed from the ministry and expelled from the Association for unchristian conduct. Philip Miller located on account of bodily infirmities. J. P. Leib took a superannuated relation. Wm. Mintz and M. Lehn were re-elected and Jacob Riegel, newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. Elders' orders were granted to E. Bast, F. Scharfe, T. Schneider, and W. L. Reber; Deacons' orders, to D. Wieand and Joseph Gross. The following were newly received as preachers on trial: Cornelius Loos, Jacob Adams, Levi Jacoby, and Jacob Wagner. The brethren, L. Jacoby, J. Wagner, C. Loos, J. Adams, S. Gaumer, and Jos. Gross were received into the itinerancy. The superannuated preachers were J. Schnerr and J. P. Leib; widow and orphans, Sister Hesser and children.

Bishop Long, H. Fisher, and F. Hoffman were appointed to prepare a resolution with reference to secret societies. They reported the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend to General Conference the enactment of a law forbidding any preacher or lay member to join a secret society. By secret societies we mean all sworn associations which bind themselves by an oath and have secret signs by which the members recognize each other. Furthermore, this Conference advises all our preachers and members not to unite with any society in which it becomes necessary to mingle with worldly associations and to take part in meaningless and senseless mummeries. Such associations are contrary to the Word of God, causing great offence and proving dangerous to a christian.

The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: W. Mintz, H. Bucks, Jacob Riegel, M. Lehn, H. Fisher, J. M. Saylor, F. Danner, F. Hoffman, J. Kehr, M. Eis, D. Fisher, and J. P. Leib. The alternates were: C. Hummel, J. Kramer, and F. Kreckler. The second Friday in September was appointed as a day of fasting and prayer throughout the bounds of the Conference.

BOUNDARIES.

Mohawk and Niagara districts were divided into three districts to be known respectively as Canada, Buffalo, and Albany districts. A part of Northampton Cir. was added to Lehigh and a part of Carbon Cir. to Northampton. Dauphin Cir. was annexed to Lebanon Cir. Reading Miss. was discontinued; Berne and vicinity were annexed and the entire field called Reading Cir. Orwigsburg and Schuylkill Haven were formed into two separate circuits. Pottsville was made a station, and Pinegrove Cir. was annexed to Mahantongo Cir., the whole to be known as Pinegrove Cir. A part of Waterloo Cir. was organized into Home Cir.

1847.

The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops J. Seybert and J. Long.

Secretary, W. W. Orwig.

Assistant Secretaries, F. Hoffman, J. G. Zinser, and A. B. Shaeffer.

The regular quadrennial session of the General Conference* was held in our Evangelical meeting-house at New Berlin, Union Co., Pa. The session began on Wednesday, the twenty-ninth day of September, 1847. Both bishops and forty-five delegates were present. These delegates represented the East Pa., the West Pa., the Ohio, and the Illinois conferences. Charges were preferred against two delegates for living at variance with each other, and for misconduct in office. After spending nearly five days in an investigation, the Conference reprovved them for their unpeaceful conduct, deprived them of their rights as delegates, and disqualified them for re-election to office at this session. The Conference also required of them that they become reconciled, amend their conduct and live peaceably hereafter. The vacant seats were then filled by the appointment of two other brethren as delegates. It was resolved that hereafter the vote be taken viva voce—aye and no—instead of by a rising vote as has been the general custom in our conferences in the past.

Inasmuch as the recommendation with reference to secret societies was not presented to the General Conference in accordance with the directions of the Church Discipline, it was not received. It was resolved that the bishops shall be chosen from among the delegates elected to the General Conference, and that they shall always be eligible for re-election. Upon the recommendation of the West Penna. Conference it was resolved that an English religious periodical be published as soon as possible. P. Wagner, J. Dreisbach, J. Seybert, J. Long, C. Hammer, and J. M. Saylor having been appointed a committee to designate the name and conditions of this periodical, they recommended among other things that it be called The Evangelical Messenger.

The committee on statistics reported the total number of preachers in the Evangelical Association as 319, the total membership, 14,871. All that part of the East Pa. Conference contained in the State of New York, with the exception of New York City, and in Canada was organized into a new conference district, to be called "The New York Conference." The Susquehanna River with its northern branch as far as the boundary line of the State of New York was adopted as the western and northern boundary of the East Pa. Conference. In accordance with this, Luzerne Mission of the West Pa. Conference, but lying east of the north branch, was transferred to the East Pa. Conference.

Joseph Long and John Seybert were re-elected bishops of the Evangelical Association. N. Gehr was elected editor of the book establishment and H. Fisher general book agent. W. Bersch was appointed assistant editor. J. P. Leib was appointed to serve as presiding elder in the place of H. Fisher until the next annual session of the East Pa. Conference. The Conference adopted a resolution urging every preacher in charge to make diligent efforts to establish Sunday-schools wherever practicable.

The Ninth (41st) Annual Session.

President, Bishop John Seybert.

Secretary, Frederick Danner.

Assistant Secretaries, F. Kreckler and S. Neitz.

The annual session of 1848 was held in the Evangelical meeting-house at Allentown, Pa., beginning Feb. 23d and closing March 1st. The following committees were appointed: Worship,—Bishop Seybert, J. M. Saylor, J. Kramer, J. P. Leib, and W. Mintz; Examiners,—W. Mintz, H. Fisher, H. Bucks, J. M. Saylor, and J. Riegel.

The action of the Quarterly Conference on a certain circuit in deposing a local preacher from the office of the ministry was approved. J. Kramer, Chr. Holl, Sam'l Miesse, G. Ramige, and J. C. Reisner located on account of temporal circumstances. Jacob Riegel located on account of bodily infirmities. Emanuel Dieder and Charles Bisse died. F. Hoffman and J. P. Leib were newly elected to the office of Presiding

Elder, after which the presiding elders were stationed. J. G. Bosch, J. Eckert, A. Shultz, J. G. Marquardt, and M. Lauer were ordained Elders; J. Koehl, S. Gaumer, Jacob Gross, and J. Adams, Deacons. John Schell, Isaac Hess, Noah McLehn, and Davis Hambricht were newly received on trial. The following were received into the itinerancy: N. McLehn, D. Hambricht, J. Schell, and I. Hess. The superannuated preachers were J. Schnerr and Jacob Riegel. The family of Charles Hesser also received support from the Conference.

S. Butz was appointed trustee of the Custer legacy. The New York Conference was released from the missionary debt, and it was ordered that the first meeting of that conference be held on the last Wednesday in April, 1849, in Buffalo, N. Y. Inasmuch as the members of the West Pa. Conference have indicated a desire to have Luzerne Mission remain within their conference bounds therefore resolved that it be left to that conference to supply the mission for the ensuing year.

On Monday forenoon the Conference celebrated the Lord's Supper.

D. Berger, J. C. Farnsworth, and C. Hummel were appointed a committee to prepare laws making the salaries paid by the various charges independent of each other. The committee made the following report, which was adopted :

1st, A committee shall be appointed annually to inquire into the circumstances of the superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers, and to determine the amounts which they are to receive. The support is to be derived from that portion of the interest accruing from the Custer legacy to which this Conference is entitled and from the interest of the Charitable Society funds. Should this not be sufficient, the balance is to be taken from the profits of the book establishment. 2d, In case two preachers serve on the same charge, they are to divide the salary according to their disciplinary claims. Should they receive more than such claims, they are to pay the surplus to the presiding elders. 3d, The presiding elders are entitled to the collections taken at the quarterly meetings and to one-half of the collections taken at the campmeetings and at the extra (revival) meetings, appointed by them. 4th, In case a presiding elder receives more than the average amount received by those preachers on his district who are entitled to the highest salaries, he shall pay the surplus into the conference fund. 5th, The bishop was authorized to lift collections at all his appointments, and in case he receives more than his allowance in this Conference to pay the surplus into the conference fund. In the event that he does not receive his allowance in this manner he shall receive the deficit in the same way as the presiding elders. 6th, The balance remaining in the treasury is to be distributed among those who are deficient in salary.

BOUNDARIES.

A part of Lykens Cir. and a part of Lebanon Cir. were formed into a new field, to be called Dauphin Circuit.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The presiding elder of Lebanon District and the preacher in charge of Lebanon Circuit were authorized to deal with the Stumpstown (Fredericksburg) Church according to their discretion, with this proviso, however, that they shall not be allowed to sell a part of the church to any other denomination.

The East Pa. Conference convened in annual session in the Emanuel Church, Philadelphia, Pa., February 27th, 1850. F. Kreckler was appointed to record the proceedings in the English language. The business rules of 1845 were adopted.

The following committees were appointed: On Worship,—J. P. Leib J. M. Saylor, F. Hoffman, and

*H. Fisher had resigned as general book agent and was appointed to Pinegrove Cir. Inasmuch, however, as the West Penna. Conference found it difficult to supply his place, at the request of the bishop and of that conference he consented to resume the position of book agent.

C. Hummel ; On Finance,—M. F. Maize, W. L. Reber, and E. Bast ; To Audit Accounts,—F. Hoffman and M. Sindlinger.

M. F. Maize and John Eckert received permission to rest for a period in order to regain their health. D. Berger and C. Loos located. Fred. L. Stoever died during the past year. Joseph Gross, S. Gaumer, Jacob Gross, J. Adams, and J. Kochl were ordained to the office of Elder. N. McLehn, D. Hambright, J. Schell, and Isaac Hess, to the office of Deacon. A. Ziegenfus received license. The following were received into the itinerancy: Henry Bisse, Andrew Ziegenfus, George Knerr, and Reuben Deisher. The Conference elected F. Danner Presiding Elder. F. Hoffman was appointed to preach the conference sermon at the opening of the next annual session. M. F. Maize, J. P. Leib, D. Saylor, Jacob Hammer, and John Hammer were appointed a committee to ascertain whether the public buildings at Orwigsburg, Pa., made vacant by the removal of the county seat to Pottsville, can be procured for our contemplated institution of learning. The committee was instructed to report at the next annual session.

The Conference passed a resolution recommending to the General Conference the adoption of a law requiring a six months' probation in the reception of persons into the church. Another recommendation to introduce a law permitting a preacher to locate on account of temporal circumstances was adopted. The Conference appointed J. M. Saylor, S. Neitz, and C. Hummel to examine junior preachers in their studies at the next annual session, the examination to take place on the

Tuesday afternoon previous to the opening of the Conference.

H. Bucks, C. Hummel, and F. Kreckler were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions with reference to the establishment of a mission in Germany. They made the following report, which was adopted: Dear Brethren.—Inasmuch as we have been permitted, through the gracious Providence of God, to see the middle of the first century of our existence as a Church, and inasmuch as many of our preachers, as well as members, consider themselves debtors to their brethren according to the flesh in the old Fatherland, and have therefore expressed the wish that a mission might be established in Germany, and have also declared a willingness to support such a mission; we believe that God has given us indications that the time has come for us to begin to labor there, especially in view of the fact that the day is probably not far distant when the followers of Rationalism and those holding Orthodox views will hold separate assemblies for worship, and because many of our friends and relatives living in Germany are still found in the path of error. We also have reason to believe that by the establishing of a mission in Germany, and by a more intimate acquaintance with those of Orthodox views, we as a church will become more active and useful in the kingdom of God; therefore be it

Resolved, That we recommend to Conference the following: 1st, That in case the necessary support be forthcoming, and suitable men be found, we as a Conference favor the establishing of a mission in Germany; 2d, That we request our sister conferences to co-operate with us in carrying out this undertaking, in the following manner: (a), That each of the Annual Conferences choose one man, and these men chosen by the different conferences, together with the bishops, shall constitute a board which shall make all necessary arrangements for the establishment of a mission in case it be found practicable; (b,) That as soon as the bishops consider the carrying out of the project feasible, subscriptions shall be opened in our church periodicals, and money received for said object; (c,) That each preacher in charge is hereby authorized to receive money for this purpose and forward the same to the Treasurer of our Parent Missionary Society. Upon the adoption of the above report J. P. Leib was elected to represent this Conference in the afore-mentioned board. The Conference ordered that the present year be observed as a year of jubilee in the churches, and appointed M. F. Maize, F. Kreckler, and W. L. Reber a committee to draft a plan. The committee reported the following which was adopted:

Beloved Brethren! Inasmuch as the present year closes the first half of the first century of the Evangelical Association, and inasmuch as the Lord has so richly blessed the church throughout and has, in spite of all opposition, enlarged her borders and multiplied her numbers, therefore, this Conference recommends to all the preachers and members within its jurisdiction, that the present year be celebrated as a Year of Jubilee and that we render unto the Highest a special praise and thank offering by the general observance of a day of thanksgiving and by voluntary contributions for religious and charitable purposes. We also entertain the hope that our sister conferences will arrange for a similar observance. For the accomplishment of this purpose the committee recommends the following resolutions: 1. That our bishops appoint a day near the middle of October for the contemplated Thanksgiving Day, more especially because JACOB ALBRIGHT, the founder of our Church, entered upon his work as an itinerant preacher in that month of the year 1796. 2. That public worship be held in all the congregations embraced within our conference territory, on the forenoon and evening of said day. To this end the Conference recommends that all itinerant and local preachers officiate at the usual hour in the forenoon, and that in such congregations and classes where there is no preaching, a prayer meeting be held; the same plan to be observed in the evening. 3. That a collection be lifted at each service for the support of our home missions. 4. That each preacher in charge shall on this day open a subscription list—which is to remain open until the end of the year—for the support of the following objects: (a) For the erection and support of three mission churches; one on Harrisburg Mission, one on Philadelphia Mission, and for the payment of the debt on the Lancaster church. (b) For the establishment of an academy or institution of learning for the young within the bounds of this Conference.

BOUNDARIES.

Tamaqua Mission was discontinued. A new mission was located in southern Philadelphia, to be known as Southwark Mission. Bethlehem was taken from Lehigh Cir. and annexed to Northampton Cir.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

It was resolved to erect a church at the grave of Jacob Albright, the sainted founder of the Evangelical Association, the building to be 40 ft. by 60 ft. in size and to consist of two stories. The Conference ordered that the church be known as The Albright Church, erected in the fiftieth year of the Evangelical Association in memory of the sainted Jacob Albright, founder of the Evangelical Association of North America. J. P. Leib, J. M. Saylor, and F. Danner were appointed to superintend the erection of the building.

The preacher in charge of Lancaster Mission was instructed to endeavor to carry out the plan adopted at the last annual session for the liquidation of the church debt there.

The presiding elders were re-appointed to their former districts. Brother Daniel Griebel having donated one hundred dollars to the Conference for the missionary cause a resolution of hearty appreciation was tendered him. The Conference agreed to give to the bishops a reasonable allowance for traveling expenses in addition to their salaries. J. M. Saylor and J. P. The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops J. Seybert and J. Long.

Secretary, Henry Bucks.

Assistant Secretaries, J. Boas, C. G. Koch, W. Mintz, and J. J. Esher.

The members of General Conference assembled in our Evangelical meeting-house near Flat Rock, Ohio, on Wednesday, Sept. 17th, 1851. Both bishops and fifty-five delegates were in attendance. The conduct of the delegates was investigated; no charges were preferred.

Permission was given to preachers and congregations to introduce a system of six months' probation in the reception of members wherever such a course is considered more beneficial. The removal of our book establishment from New Berlin to a more suitable place became a subject of considerable discussion at this session. It was finally decided that the removal shall take place, provided the cost of the new property does not exceed $12,000.00 and that three-fourths of this amount is secured by reliable subscriptions prior to the change. Cleveland, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, and New Berlin were nominated as suitable places. The result of the ballot was the selection of Cleveland, O., by a majority of five votes. The Conference ordered that subscription lists be opened in the church periodicals and that the presiding elders and preachers in charge throughout the church be authorized to solicit contributions in order to secure the stipulated amount.

The Association numbered 195 traveling preachers, 185 local preachers, and 21,179 members. The following officers were elected: Bishops, John Seybert and Joseph Long; editor of the Christliche Botschafter, and general book agent, W. W. Orwig; assistant editor, J. G. Zinser; editor of the Evangelical Messenger, H. Fisher. John Nicolai was appointed missionary to Germany. A new conference was formed and called The Pittsburg Conference.

The Thirteenth (45th) Annual Session.

The East Pa. Conference met in annual session at Pinegrove, Schuylkill Co., Pa., February 25th, 1852. On the forenoon of the first day S. Neitz preached the conference sermon from Matt. iv: 17. In the afternoon the Bishop opened the Conference in the usual manner. The following committees were appointed: On Worship,—The Bishop, the presiding elders, and the preacher in charge of the circuit; On Finance,—M. F. Maize, J. C. Farnsworth, and F. Danner; On Letters,—J. M. Saylor, C. Hummel, J. P. Leib, J. Gross, and F. Hoffman. On account of the serious illness of his wife, F. Danner resigned the office of Presiding Elder and took no appointment, the Conference granting him the necessary time to take care of his household. M. F. Maize was permitted to rest. Jesse Young received permission to attend school one year. N. McLean located in order to go West. John Rippley, a local preacher, died during the past year. F. Hoffman and J. P. Leib were re-elected, and G. T. Haines was newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. N. McLean, I. Hess and J. Schell were ordained Elders; A. Ziegenfus, L. Snyder, George Knerr, S. G. Rhoads, and C. Gingrich, Deacons. The following were newly received on trial: Jesse L. Fritz, Ephraim Ely, Wm. Rogers, Adam Hinkel, and Abraham Saylor. C. Loos, H. C. Major, and E. Ely were received into the itinerancy. F. Danner was made an advisory member of the stationing committee.

The preachers were ordered to give catechetical instructions wherever practicable. A committee of five was appointed to inquire whether those preachers who make application for support from the Conference have done their duty in gathering funds for this purpose, and in case any are found guilty of neglect to report them. W. L. Reber was appointed agent to collect for the liquidation of the debt resting upon the Albright church, and I. Hess, treasurer.

BOUNDARIES.

A committee, consisting of the three presiding elders, the treasurer, and the secretary of the Missionary Society, was appointed to locate an English mission in the city of Philadelphia, if practicable. Cecil Mission was discontinued and incorporated in Chester Cir. New Jersey Miss. was changed to a circuit, but not being able to support its preacher it received an allowance of $60.00 from the missionary treasury. Chester Circuit also received $125.00 out of the missionary funds. The congregation at Stumpstown (Fredericksburgh), Lebanon Co., Pa., was advised not to sell any part of their church property to another denomination, but to conduct affairs under the present management until our next annual session.

TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, We as a Conference believe the abuse of spirituous drinks to be a great evil in our nation; therefore Resolved, That J. C. Farnsworth, M. F. Maize, and W. L. Reber be a committee to prepare a suitable petition, to be signed by the members of this Conference, and addressed to the present session of the legislature, praying for a reconsideration of our present license system and for the introduction of the Maine law in its stead. The committee made the following report, which was adopted: Inasmuch as efforts are being made in our legislature to enact a law prohibiting throughout the entire State the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage; therefore Resolved, 1st, That we consider it to be the duty of all Christian ministers and citizens to testify against the great evil of intemperance and to combine for its utter extermination; 2d, That in the judgment of this Conference the only effectual method for its extermination is the adoption and execution in our

State of the Maine law, and that we will recommend it to our congregations and encourage them to petition our legislature for this purpose as soon as possible.

Long made an appropriate address on the usefulness of the American Tract Society and more especially of the colporteur system, expressing the wish that the Conference formulate a resolution upon the subject. S. Neitz and another brother were appointed to prepare suitable resolutions. They reported the following which was adopted :

Resolved, That we continue to regard the operations of the American Tract Society with pleasure, and consider it a chosen vessel in God's hand for the advancement of his kingdom and the dissemination of the simple yet mysterious, momentous, and imperishable gospel of his Son. Regarding this Society as the voice of a preacher in the wilderness preparing the way of the Lord, we sincerely wish it the blessing of God and the favor of all men, the united co-operation of christendom and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in order that the feet of his ambassadors of peace may speedily stand upon the mountains and hills of the earth, in all the kingdoms, republics, and dominions of the world and upon the shores of all the seas with the isles thereof, in the name of the Great Shepherd of the sheep. Amen!

It was resolved that between the time of this session and August next, collections shall be taken on all the fields of labor for the purpose of assisting such preachers whose income is inadequate. The late Father Frederick Miller, of Washington Twp., Lehigh Co., Pa., having bequeathed $14,000.00 to the Evangelical Association, the Conference advised the Charitable Society to inquire into the matter. The following was adopted: Inasmuch as the book establishment of our Association has been very prosperous; therefore, Resolved, That its officers deserve praise for their fidelity in the management of its affairs, and that we desire the continued patronage of our members and of the friends of religion in general. The Conference requested the book establishment to organize a branch department in the city of Reading. The examiners of junior preachers who served last year were re-appointed. On Sunday forenoon Bishop Seybert preached an instructive and impressive ordination sermon to a large and attentive gathering, from Luke xii: 42.

Eby's class was detached from Lebanon Sta. and annexed to Lebanon Cir. Conewaga class was taken from Lebanon Cir. and attached to Lancaster Cir. It was resolved

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The auditing committee reported that if all the subscriptions are paid, the debt on the Albright church will be reduced to $300.00. The Conference tendered a resolution of thanks to J. Eckert, the agent, for his labors and to the friends for their contributions. Brother Eckert was instructed to secure the outstanding subscriptions. Brother J. B. Dingeldein having made the congregation at New York the noble and very liberal offer to pay off the debt of $3,600.00 still resting upon our church there, provided the congregation agree to pay $100.00 annually into our missionaay treasury, it was resolved to accept the proposal, the Conference expressing its gratitude to the donor.

Suitable resolutions were adopted relative to the decease of two brethren in the ministry, H. Fisher, editor of the Evangelical Messenger, and H. A. Bisse, a member of this Conference. F. It was resolved that in case the publishing house continues a book department in the city of Reading the Conference will be satisfied with a discount of 25 per cent. on the books sold there. The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: F. Hoffman, J. P. Leib, S. Neitz, C. Meyers, F. Kreckler, W. L. Reber, H. Stoetzel, J. Yeakel, and J. Breidenstein; alternates,—G. T. On Sunday forenoon Bishop Long preached an appropriate and powerful sermon from the text 1 Pet. v: 2-4, after which the candidates for orders were ordained.

BOUNDARIES.

New Rochelle Mission was abandoned. Camden, Glassborough, and vicinity, N. J., were taken up as a mission. Harrisburg was constituted a mission upon condition that not more than one hundred and twenty dollars need be appropriated from the missionary treasury. Berne was taken from Kutztown Cir. and attached to Womelsdorf Cir. Muehlbach and Schaeferstown classes were taken from Womelsdorf Cir. and annexed to Lebanon Sta.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Inasmuch as a debt still encumbered the Albright church, a committee was appointed to prepare lists of the unpaid subscriptions and to forward them to the preachers in charge who were instructed to do all in their power to gather the money during the coming year. A subscription list was circulated in the Conference and the sum of $375.00 was secured. J. P. Leib, F. Hoffman, and Levi Miller were elected trustees of the seminary. The preachers were instructed to secure donations of books for the school. F. Hoffman, S. Neitz, J. Yeakel, and W. L. MEMORIAL.

WHEREAS, It pleased the Great Head of the Church on the fourth day of January, 1859, to call our highly esteemed and universally beloved first bishop, John Seybert, from the post of duty which he so faithfully guarded, and to conduct his spirit into the world of the blessed, therefore be it

Resolved, That in his decease our church has lost an energetic and devoted shepherd and teacher, plain and unassuming, but true. Though deeply sensible of our loss, we yet seek to be submissive to the will of God in the mysterious ways of his Providence, and rejoice that after having endured many labors and outstood many conflicts, our sainted bishop has entered into rest. We pray that a double portion of his spirit may abide upon our ministry now and at all times. Amen!

Schultz; On Education,—F. Hoffman, W. Yost, R. Deisher, S. P. Reinoehl, and J. Yeakel; On Missions,—G. T. Haines, F. Hoffman, and W. L. Reber.

A. H. Theobold resigned his license as local preacher. This Conference was informed that a local preacher had been deposed from the ministry and expelled from the church during the year. Jacob Schneider located on account of ill health. D. Berger took a superannuated relation. C. B. Fliehr desiring to enter a western conference received credentials. M. Guhl was ordained to the office of Elder. The following were ordained to the office of Deacon: J. Kutz, D. Yuengst, T. Bowman, J. A. Apgar, J. Steltzer, Abr. Saylor, and H. Kletzing. J. K. Knerr received license as preacher on trial. W. Heim and R. Deisher were again received, and J. Kurtz and I. E. Knerr were newly received into the itinerancy. S. Neitz was elected delegate to the board of missions. The conference claimants were Sister Schnerr and one child, Sister Bisse and two children, and Sister Hesser.

It was resolved that hereafter the presiding bishop shall appoint the various committees, unless the Conference orders otherwise in special cases. The action of the board of publication of our church in appointing S. Neitz to write the biography of Bishop Seybert was endorsed, and he was advised to begin the work at once. In accordance with this action S. Neitz resigned his presiding eldership and W. L. Reber was elected in his place. The secretary was instructed to procure a suitable record in which to enter the statistics of the Conference. It was agreed that if the presiding elders can not collect their house rent in the ordinary way that they be permitted to draw the deficiency out of the general salary fund. The Conference resolved not to recognize the probation system and therefore not to take it into account in the statistics; nevertheless it was left optional with the various congregations to proceed according to their judgment in the reception of members. Pursuant to this, the question, "How many newly received members?" was substituted for "How many members on probation?" in the statistical blank.

The committee appointed for the purpose reported a constitution for a Sunday-school and Tract Society of this Conference. The report was adopted and the society organized by the election of the following officers: President, S. G. Rhoads; Vice President, J. Yeakel; Secretary, J. Koehl; Treasurer, F. Kreckler. The members then paid in the sum of $26.45. A resolution strongly denouncing so-called gift-book enterprises and similar humbugs, and earnestly counselling preachers and people to use their influence against them was adopted. On Sunday forenoon Bishop Orwig preached the ordination sermon. The ordination services were held in the afternoon, after which preachers and people celebrated the Lord's Supper. Bishop Long preached in the evening.

BOUNDARIES.

Norristown and Phoenixville were constituted a mission. Annville, Steelston, Campelstown, Elmira, and Meyers class were called Annville Circuit. Jonestown, Mt. Nebo, Mountville, Fisher's class, Fredericksburgh, Union Church, and Boltz's class were called Jonestown Circuit. Tamaqua was made a station. Meyerstown, Eby's class, Schaeferstown, Albright church, Livingood class, Stricklerstown, and Richland were formed into Myerstown Circuit. Hasenberg, Brownstown, Fairville, Flickinger church, Reamstown, Adamstown, Mohn's church, Mohnsville, and Brendels were organized into Fairville Circuit. Bernville, Berne Twp., Klein's, Straustown, Dundore's, Forge, Womelsdorf, and Newnanstown were called Womelsdorf Circuit. Catawissa Valley and Shamokin were annexed to Ashland Circuit. Cressona and Friedensburg were called Cressona Circuit. Zion class was taken from Ashland Cir. and annexed to Lykens Cir. Port Carbon and St. Clair was called Port Carbon Cir. Millerstown class was taken from Milford Cir. and annexed to Lehigh Cir. Hanover church was taken from Dauphin Cir. and attached to Annville Cir. An English mission was located in the city of Reading. New York Miss. was connected with Union Hill. The trustees of Mt. Bethel congregation, Cecil Co., Md., received permission to sell their church, pay the debts and report at the next session of the Conference.

EDUCATION.

The trustees representing this Conference were instructed to adopt measures for the endowment of Union

Seminary as soon as the financial condition of the country will warrant it, and to gather in all outstanding subscriptions and the scholarships of such persons who are sufficiently interested in the welfare of the school to surrender them. L. Snyder resigned the trusteeship of the seminary and J. Yeakel was elected in his place. H. Stoetzel and H. Eberly were newly elected trustees. W. H. Bachman, W. Heim, and A. Boetzel were appointed a visiting committee to attend the closing exercises of Union Seminary.

Recognizing the weighty responsibility resting upon us, with reference to the coming generation, and convinced of the usefulness of catechetical instruction, be it herewith Resolved, That in the coming year we will faithfully and diligently observe the duties imposed upon us by our Church Discipline in this respect.

The Twenty-Third (55th) Annual Session

President, Bishop W. W. Orwig.

Secretary, John Koehl.

Assistant Secretary, C. S. Haman.

The twenty-third session of the East Pa. Conference was held in the city of Reading, Pa., beginning on Wednesday, February 26th, 1862. S. G. Rhoads was appointed to report the proceedings of the Conference for the Evangelical Messenger. The Bishop appointed the following standing committees: On Worship,—The presiding elders and the preachers in charge of the Reading churches; On Letters,—J. Yeakel and J. P. Leib; On Finance,—S. P. Reinhoehl, W. Yost, and F. Kreckler; On Statistics,—C. Meyers, A. Shultz, and R. Deisher; On Education,—H. Stoetzel, J. Yeakel, and W. Yost; On Publication of Manuscripts,—S. Neitz and F. Kreckler.

H. Kempfer, D. Hambright, and H. Koester located on account of family affairs, and T. Sebold on account of ill health. P. H. Lehr withdrew from the church. Credentials were granted to F. W. Walker who desired to unite with the Illinois Conference. S. Neitz was elected Presiding Elder. A. Boetzel, J. Specht, and E.

Butz were ordained to the office of Elder ; S. S. Chubb, L. Schmidt, G. B. Fisher, C. Wolf, and W. Rogers, to the office of Deacon. The following were received as preachers on trial : Wm. Alspach, Benjamin F. Bohner, Levi Miller, Augustus Scharf, Simon Frankenfield, Samuel Brown, Adam Goetschel, and David Lentz. R. M. Lichtenwalner, C. K. Fehr, C. H. Baker, and Seneca Breyfogel were received into the itinerancy. The Conference beneficiaries were Sister Schnerr and one child, Sister Bisse and one child, and Sister Hesser. S. Neitz was elected delegate to the board of missions, and G. T. Haines alternate.

The Charitable Society of the Evangelical Association having requested the appointment of J. P. Leib as its agent during the year, the Conference granted the request and retained him in the itinerancy. It was resolved that hereafter the roll of the Conference be called at the opening of each daily session, and the absentees held accountable. The stationing committee was instructed to have a meeting for consultation at each annual session of the Conference, prior to the investigation of the moral and official conduct of the preachers. The object of the meeting shall be to consider such brethren who, on account of incompetency or for other reasons, cause great difficulty in the stationing, and if there be such cases to report them to the Conference during the investigation. S. Neitz, W. L. Reber, and G. T. Haines were appointed a standing committee on missions for the ensuing year. The conference appointed J. P. Leib trustee of the Custer bequest, with instructions to gather in the money and to obtain good security for it.

On Sunday forenoon Bishop Orwig preached an unctionous and instructive ordination sermon on 2 Tim. 4:5. In the afternoon the candidates for orders were ordained, after which preachers and people celebrated the Lord's Supper. C. Meyers delivered the communion address. In the evening, on account of the great throng of people, sermons were preached in the upper and lower audience rooms of the church. On Monday morning Bishop Orwig left the Conference in order to preside at the session of the Central Pa. Conference. He appointed S. Neitz chairman in his place.

BOUNDARIES.

Millersburg, Weber's class, Pauls Valley, and Fisher's class were taken from Lykens Circuit and organized into a new field, called Millersburg Cir. Schuylkill Haven was made a station. The Flat, Cressona, and St. Clair were formed into Cressona Cir. Ashland Cir. was extended to include Hazleton and the territory between Hazleton and Mahanoy City. Albany was taken from Schuylkill Cir. and annexed to Kutztown. Port Carbon was annexed to Pottsville Station. Rising Sun was transferred from the North Philadelphia Mission to Germantown Station. Reading Mission was taken from Lebanon District and added to Philadelphia District. Chester Cir. was taken from Lebanon District and annexed to Lehigh District.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

It was resolved that in case application is made The Flat shall receive its rightful share of the parsonage at Schuylkill Haven. Inasmuch as the trustees of the English Mission in the city of Reading have sent in a petition in which they obligate themselves to purchase and pay for the Mount Zion church of the Protestant Methodist congregation in that city, in case we send them a missionary for three years and support him; therefore, be it Resolved, That we regard this offer on the part of the mission a noble one and suggest to them not to be concerned about the continuation of their missionary appropriation in case they keep the promise made by the trustees, in the purchase of said building. It was decided that Dauphin Circuit is entitled to the entire amount of money collected for a parsonage and now in the possession of J. Ely, upon the ground that since their separation from Lebanon Cir. they have received none of the interest from their portion of the contributions; that J. Ely be authorized to pay the money to W. H. Bachman, preacher in charge of Dauphin Cir.; that this Conference approves of the action of the quarterly conference of Dauphin Cir. of February 12, 1862, viz: That W. H. Bachman shall pay the half of this money to H. Stoetzel (missionary at Harrisburg) for the church building at Harrisburg and that the balance of the money be applied to the erection of a church on Dauphin Cir. S. Neitz, H. Stoetzel and C. H. Baker were appointed a committee to superintend the erection of a church building at Harrisburg. S. Neitz, W. L. Reber and E. Ely were appointed a committee to act with reference to the affairs of our English Mission in Reading.

EDUCATION.

The trustees representing this Conference were instructed to continue Union Seminary upon condition that the aggregate salary of the teachers does not exceed sixteen hundred dollars. S. Neitz and J. P. Leib were elected ministerial trustees, and Henry Saylor lay trustee of the seminary. The Conference agreed to assist the newly elected agent in securing one hundred persons who are willing to pay $50 each, and in gathering smaller sums for the benefit of the seminary. J. Yeakel, H. Stoetzel, and W. Heim were appointed a visiting committee to attend the commencement exercises. The committee appointed at the last session to examine junior preachers in their studies was continued, with instructions to make suitable reports to Conference.

The Twenty-Fourth (56th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop W. W. Orwig.

Secretary, John Koehl.

Assistant Secretary, C. S. Hainan.

The members of the East Pa. Conference assembled at Millersburg, Dauphin Co., Pa., on Wednesday, February 25th, 1863. In the absence of Bishop Long the Conference was opened by Bishop Orwig. F. Kreckler was appointed to report the proceedings for the Evangelical Messenger. The following committees were appointed: On Letters,—C. Meyers, F. Hoffman, and J. P. Leib; On Worship,—W. Heim and the presiding elders; On Boundaries,—S. Neitz, G. T. Haines, W. L. Reber, and L. Snyder; On Finance,—I. Hess, S. P. Reinoehl, and R. Deisher; On Statistics,—A. Schultz, T. Bowman, and J. Schell; On Education,—J. P. Leib, H. Stoetzel, and S. G. Rhoads.

J. Frey located on account of ill health. Joseph Gross was placed in a local relation. D. Hechler, a local preacher, withdrew from the church. W. L. Reber resigned his office as presiding elder and J. Yeakel was elected to fill his place. T. Bowman, J. Steltzer, and D. Yingst were ordained Elders; J. Kurtz, C. K. Fehr, R. M. Lichtenwalner, C. B. Fliehr, I. E. Knerr, Seneca Breyfogel, and J. C. Bliem Deacons. C. Loose was again received, and C. B. Fliehr and D. Lentz were newly received into the itinerancy. The conference beneficiaries were Sister Hesser, Sister Schnerr, and Sister Bisse and one child.

The Conference resolved that the preachers shall not exchange boarding places during the session. Those present were forbidden to divulge any of the transactions occurring during secret session on penalty of being excluded from the investigations at the next annual session. Because of Bishop Orwig's delicate health, J. P. Leib was appointed to preach the ordination sermon in the event that Bishop Long should not arrive in time. But the latter having arrived he took the chair and presided during the remainder of the session. On Sabbath morning he preached the ordination sermon in his usually clear and powerful style, taking for his text, 2 Tim. 4:5, and producing a profound impression upon the entire congregation. In the afternoon after the ordination services the Conference and the assembled congregation participated in the Lord's Supper, during which the Holy Spirit was poured into the hearts of all present. S. Smith, of the Central Pa. Conference, preached in the evening.

The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: S. Neitz, G. T. Haines, J. Yeakel, L. Snyder, J. P. Leib, F. Hoffman, S. G. Rhoads, F. Kreckler, C. Meyers, H. Stoetzel, and J. Koehl. The alternates were J. Schell, C. S. Haman, and I. Hess. It was ordered that collections to defray the traveling expenses of delegates to the General Conference be taken at all the appointments during the month of July, and that collections for the support of the superannuated preachers be taken at all the appointments during the month of October. The preachers were instructed to organize missionary auxiliaries wherever it is possible, and to gather contributions by other means. Neglect of this important duty on the part of any was to be rebuked by the presiding elder and reported to the annual Conference. The Conference instructed the presiding elders to see to it that a missionary sermon is preached and contributions solicited at every camp-meeting.

S. Neitz, S. G. Rhoads, and H. Stoetzel having been appointed to prepare resolutions upon the affairs of the country made the following report :

WHEREAS, We are in harmony with the Word of God, as well as with our nineteenth article of faith which declares the Union, the Constitution and the Government of the United States to have a rightful existence and to be a great blessing to the church and to mankind ; and whereas we consider the present fratricidal and satanic rebellion in the South as groundless and without righteous cause, and as high treason against our glorious Union, which is the best government to be found in the earth ; and whereas we consider African slavery a political, social and moral evil, the product of hell, "the sum of all baseness," a remnant of heathenism, and according to the testimony of southern statesmen and patriots, such as Johnson, Holt, Brownlow, and others, the only true original cause of the present ungodly and hellish rebellion ; therefore be it unanimously

Resolved, 1st, That we declare ourselves to be unconditionally in favor of the preservation of the Union and the suppressing of the rebellion. 2d, That we heartily approve of the honest and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States to extirpate the rebellion root and branch, and to place an undivided Union upon the broad foundation of civil and religious freedom as laid in the Constitution; that we welcome the "Emancipation Proclamation" as timely and as conformable to the spirit of the Constitution and the beck of divine Providence; that we unanimously unite in supporting with our influence and assistance our government in the stress of its conflict with high treason, tyranny, and slavery, in its heroic struggle for order, freedom, right, and the security of its citizens; and that above all we will remember the same in our prayers before God, for this is acceptable before the Lord our Saviour. 3d, That we observe with deep interest and with high regard the self-denying, sacrificing, and heroic spirit which our soldiers exhibit on every battlefield, and that we will remember them in our prayers and with our practical support. 4th, That we agree with the immortal Washington, the father of our precious freedom, in his farewell address, that party animosity—without regard to any party or section—is a menace to the preservation of the Union and of liberty, especially at the present time when the question is not one of party ascendancy, but of the maintenance and perpetuation of the Union and the life of the nation. We therefore earnestly and fraternally call upon all loyal and patriotic citizens, especially all members of the Evangelical Association, to keep themselves free from this destructive spirit and to refrain from supporting those political papers which cultivate such an influence. 5th, That we heartily approve of the attitude taken by our periodicals, the Christliche Botschafter and the Evangelical Messenger, with reference to the affairs of our country and upon the question of slavery, because we believe it to be the only truly loyal one in these times of high treason and secession, and that we therefore call to our editors, Assert your convictions fearlessly, you shall and must be sustained!

These resolutions were adopted amid great enthusiasm. T. G. Clewell, editor of the Messenger, was requested to send a copy of them to the President of the United States.

BOUNDARIES.

Norristown Mission was annexed to Montgomery Circuit. Camden class was added to South Philadelphia Station. "The Beach" was taken from Monroe Circuit and joined to a new mission called Wayne Mission. New York Mission was annexed to New York Station. Hazleton and vicinity was taken up as a mission. Port Carbon and St. Clair were taken from Pottsville Station and called Port Carbon Circuit.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The request of the members of the North Philadelphia Mission to sell their present church in order to build a new one was granted, Conference, however, not making itself in any way responsible for the new building. The congregation of our New York Station received permission to send out a collector to liquidate an oppressive debt. The preacher in charge of Annville Cir. was authorized to collect for a church (not named) on that circuit. R. Deisher was instructed to collect for our church at Harrisburg.

EDUCATION.

The Six Year Endowment Plan.

The financial condition of Union Seminary and the new plan of the trustees for the endowment of that institution were submitted by Bishop Orwig. The plan was adopted. It is as follows :

The endowment shall be $15,600; to be raised in six years, by subscriptions. These subscriptions shall be in sums of ten, five, and three dollars per annum for a period of six years. Subscribers of ten dollars per annum shall be entitled to six years' tuition for their contribution; those subscribing five dollars, to two and a half years' tuition; and those subscribing three dollars, to tuition for a half session each year of the six. As soon as the sum of $15,600.00 has been secured the endowment shall be valid. Each subscriber is requested to give a note for the amount of his subscription, to be paid in six annual installments without interest. In order to execute this plan effectively each of the two conferences interested is to appoint an agent whose duty it shall be to preach and solicit subscriptions. The financial statement of J. Yeakel, agent for the seminary during the past year, was as follows: Subscriptions secured, $6,059.00; cash receipts, $1,087.50; salary, house rent, and expenses, $509.82. H. Stoetzel was elected the agent for this Conference. Rev. R. Deisher and Messrs. J. Schwab and H. Wiest were elected trustees. W. Yost, C. S. Haman, and A. Schultz were appointed to visit the closing exercises of the seminary. The committee to examine junior preachers was re-appointed for next year.

The General Conference session of 1863 was held in Buffalo, N. Y., beginning October 1st and continuing until October 20th.* The delegates present represented nine annual conferences. The examination of the conduct of the delegates occurred with closed doors. The official conduct of the editors, the general book agent, and the corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society was investigated and no charges preferred. Tremont was taken from Pinegrove Cir. and called Tremont Cir. An English Mission was located in Philadelphia. Jonestown Cir. (with the exception of Zion class which was annexed to Meyerstown Cir.) was added to Annville Cir. Bridesburg and vicinity were taken up as a mission. Deibert class was taken from Schuylkill Haven and annexed to Cressona Cir.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The Conference urged the congregation at Hatfield to build a new church at Hatfield Way. C. Loos, H. Stoetzel, and J. Specht were appointed to inquire into the title of the ground held by the North Phila. Mission and to superintend the erection of a new church. Permission to collect was granted to all debt-burdened churches, with the proviso that only missionaries be allowed to go beyond their respective districts.

1865.

The Twenty-Sixth (58th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. Long.

Secretary, S. G. Rhoads.

Assistant Secretaries, Henry Stoetzel and C. B. Fliehr.

The Conference session of 1865 was opened on Wednesday, February 22d, 1865, in Salem Church, Allentown, Pa. The chairman appointed the following committees: On Worship,—The presiding elders and the preacher in charge; On Letters,—F. Hoffman, F. Kreeker, and J. Schell; On Statistics,—A. Schultz, W. Heim, and R. Deisher; On Finance,—F. Kreeker, R. M. Lichtenwalner, and C. Myers; On Boundaries,—The Bishop and the presiding elders; On Education,—J. Yeakel, F. Hoffman, L. Snyder, T. Bowman, and G. B. Fisher; On Church Affairs,—J. P. Leib, C. Loos, and C. S. Haman.

It was reported that a local preacher had been expelled from the church during the year. A. Boetzel, elder, withdrew from the church. Immanuel Schugar, local preacher, died during the past year. Geo. Focht, desiring to unite with a western conference, received his credentials. Elders' orders were granted to C. K. Fehr, R. M. Lichtenwalner, I. E. Knerr, C. B. Flichr, J. Kurtz, and Seneca Breyfogel. Deacons' orders were granted to D. Z. Kembel, W. H. Weidner, B. F. Bohner, A. Goetschel, G. Harm, and G. Focht. O. L. Saylor, L. N. Worman, W. W. Rhoads, J. C. Hornberger, J. N. Metzgar, J. Laros, L. Kolb, A. Leopold, and D. Yeakel received license as preachers on trial. W. H. Weidner, L. N. Worman, J. N. Metzgar, A. H. Overholt, J. C. Hornberger, A. Leopold, and B. Moyer were newly received into the itinerancy; J. Fry and D. Hambright were again received. A. Hinckel who had withdrawn in 1858 was again received into his former relation of deacon. The widows and orphans who receive support from the Conference are Sister Hesser, Sister Schnerr, and Sister Bisse and one child. Each of these widows received $100 for the year.

Permission was given to the Sons of Temperance of Allentown to hold their anniversary service in this church on Tuesday evening, February 28th. It was resolved that a committee be appointed to distribute the appropriations to the missionaries for the past year and to fix the appropriations for the coming year.

The committee appointed to prepare resolutions relative to the civil affairs of this country consisted of J. Yeakel, J. M. Saylor, and J. Koehl. They made the following report: WHEREAS We are still decidedly of the loyal opinion expressed upon former occasions, as becomes Christian citizens; and whereas, since the last session of this Conference, certain occurrences in the affairs of our country have taken place which deeply affect our national life and its future preservation; therefore be it Resolved, 1st, That we most heartily participate in the spirit of thanksgiving to God, which at present animates all true lovers of our glorious Union, because the Great Director of all things has of late given our armies such decided victories and consequently secured to the cause of right the ultimate triumph. 2d, That we herewith express our gratitude to God that the hour of freedom for all, by virtue of law, has finally come in this land, and that as a consequence we may entertain the hope that the glorious gospel will have free course throughout the entire land and find access to all. 3d, That the recommendation to Congress to change the constitution of the U. S. so as to acknowledge the Most High Being by name, meets with our approval, and that we heartily desire its accomplishment. 4th, That at the same time we give expression to our profound sympathy for the surviving families of our brave soldiers who gave their lives as an offering upon the field of battle, in captivity, and in the hospitals of the war; and that we implore the blessings of heaven upon all their sorrowing ones.

Notwithstanding the fact that the General Conference at its recent session ordered an English Sunday-school paper and fixed the price of that periodical, at the same time lowering the price of the Kinderfreund, the board of publication has at its last session very materially increased the price of both of these papers; therefore be it Resolved, That as a Conference we protest against the action of the board of publication as injurious to the spread of our Sunday-school periodicals, and earnestly request the board to recall their action upon this subject and to abide by the resolutions of the General Conference.

Bishop Long preached an appropriate and powerful ordination sermon on Sunday forenoon from Matt. xxiv: 45-51. After the sermon the ordination of deacons took place. A. Goetschel, who could not be present, was ordained deacon on the following Tuesday evening. In the afternoon, after the ordination of the elders, the Lord's Supper was celebrated. This service will never be forgotten by those who participated. To God be all the glory. In the evening E. Kohr, of the Central Pa. Conference, preached.

BOUNDARIES.

Mahanoy City and Westhaus were taken up as a mission. Deibert class was taken from Cressona Cir. and restored to Schuylkill Haven Sta.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

A committee was appointed to inquire into the advisability of purchasing Mr. M. Costner's church in New Jersey. J. Specht reported that the congregation of North Philadelphia Miss. was necessitated to purchase their church lot in order to secure a legal title. The cost of the lot was $1,333.34. Of this he collected and paid $333.34, leaving a debt of $1,000.00. R. Deisher of the Harrisburg church reported that the amount collected for that church was $1,632.50, a few dollars more than the amount required. It was decided that all collectors for churches be limited to their respective presiding elder districts.

EDUCATION.

It was resolved that the Central Pa., the Pittsburg, the New York, and the Canada conferences be invited to unite with this Conference in establishing a college in the eastern part of our church. That an endowment of $150,000.00 be raised, and that as soon as $100,000.00 of this has been secured the subscriptions shall be binding. Each conference taking part in this project shall be required to assume such a share of the endowment as is proportionate to its membership. The following shall receive tuition free of charge, provided they reside within the bounds of any of the participating conferences: 1st, The orphans of soldiers who have fallen or will yet fall in the present civil war; 2d, The children of such soldiers who in consequence of their services are entitled to draw pension from the U. S. Government, the number of such children in attendance not to exceed fifty at any one time; 3d, The children of our deceased preachers and also those of our poor superannuated preachers, until said children reach the age of twenty-one years. That as soon as possible a missionary department be connected with the college. That as soon as two of the aforementioned conferences join with us, the project shall proceed. That in case Union Seminary be not re-opened those who hold scholarships against that institution shall be entitled to an equal amount of instruction in the preparatory department of the college. J. Yeakel was unanimously elected a delegate to confer with delegates appointed by such other conferences as will take part in the college enterprise and to adopt such further measures as will forward the movement; and that Brother Yeakel shall also be collector to secure our share of the endowment by means of scholarships, upon condition that such a course is warranted by the action of the other conferences. J. Adams was elected trustee of Union Seminary. G. B. Fisher was appointed an examiner of junior preachers in the place of S. G. Rhoads for the next year, the other examiners remaining as in former years.

The Twenty-Seventh (59th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. Long.

Secretary, Frederick Kreckler.

Assistant Secretaries, C. B. Fliehr and Thomas Bowman.

This session of Conference was opened in St. Peter's Evangelical church at Schuylkill Haven, Pa., on Wednesday, Feb. 28th, 1866. The chairman appointed the following committees: On Worship,—The presiding elders and the preacher in charge; On Letters,—J. P.

Leib, F. Hoffman, and J. Schell; On Statistics,—H. Stoetzel, W. Heim, and R. Deisher; On Boundaries,—The Bishop and the presiding elders; On Finance,—S. G. Rhoads, J. M. Saylor, and C. Loos; On Education,—M. F. Maize, F. Hoffman, and S. P. Reinoehl; On State of Missions,—C. B. Fliehr, C. K. Fehr, and D. Yingst; On Sabbath,—S. Neitz, S. G. Rhoads, H. Stoetzel, T. Bowman, and J. Koehl.

G. W. Wagner, local preacher, withdrew from the church. B. Moyer located during the past year. E. B. Miller received his credentials. J. P. Leib was newly elected, and S. Neitz re-elected to the office of Presiding Elder. Deacons' orders were granted to S. B. Brown, A. H. Overholt, A. Leopold, and S. Ely. The following were licensed as preachers on trial: Henry Oehrle, Jesse Hunsberger, Fr. Leuther, Adam Yeakel, Chas. Burkhardt, Edward Schneider, Wm. Loose, Jacob L. Werner, Benjamin J. Smoyer, Geo. H. Landis, John R. Siegfried, Wm. K. Wieand, and J. S. Scheimer. The brethren J. Laros, S. Ely, J. S. Scheimer, W. K. Wieand, D. Mertz, J. K. Knerr, and B. J. Smoyer were received into the itinerancy; R. Litzenberger was again received. The widows supported by the Conference are Sisters Hesser and Schnerr.

Sister Spang, of Womelsdorf, offered to give to this Conference two hundred dollars to be applied to church building purposes, provided the Conference agrees to refund the two hundred dollars for a new church in Womelsdorf, in case such a church building be erected within the lifetime of Sister Spang. The offer was accepted and the money paid to the treasurer of the Church Building Society. The advisability of organizing a Church Building Society within the bounds of this Conference was referred to a committee consisting of H. Stoetzel, S. Neitz, and R. M. Lichtenwalner, with instructions to draft a constitution and report at the next annual session.

The subject of spiritualism having been pressed upon the attention of the Conference, the following resolutions were adopted :

Without wishing to decide upon the reality of the intercourse which some claim to hold with the world of spirits, we are, nevertheless, compelled, upon the best evidences presented, to consider such intercourse as unwarranted presumption and deception. Whether such intercourse be true or false, we at all events consider it to be contrary to the Scriptures and in the strongest sense objectionable and sinful; wherefore, we also hold that any one who reveres the name of Christ, and especially every minister of the gospel, should stand aloof from this species of unrighteousness. We, therefore, earnestly warn all those entrusted to us against the detestable evil, and urge them to secure for themselves a rich measure of that Spirit who, according to the promise of Christ, is able to lead us in to all truth, and also direct them to that Word which is a light upon our way and a lamp unto our feet.

Our missionary stationed in the New York (Hudson street) Mission was authorized to devote as much time as possible to the interests of immigrants. The Conference resolved that in the election of presiding elders, no one shall be considered elected who has not received a majority of all the votes cast. The examiners of last year were continued in office for another year.

The stationing committee was instructed to station the preachers, before the Conference assigns the districts to the presiding elders. The book committee was solicited to establish a branch department for our publications in Allentown, Pa., under the charge of Joseph Gross.

BOUNDARIES.

Camden was taken from the South Philadelphia Miss. and annexed to Glassborough Miss. West Philadelphia was taken up as a mission. It was ordered that Bridesburg Miss. be served by the preacher in charge of North Philadelphia Miss. A new mission was located on 54th street, New York, to be known as Central Park Mission. Union Hill was taken from the New York Hudson street Miss. and in connection with Greenville to constitute Union Hill and Greenville Miss. Lehigh Ward of Allentown was taken up as a mission and called Allentown Miss. Fairville was taken from Fairville Cir. and made a station, the name of the circuit being changed to Brownstown. An English mission was located in the city of Lancaster. Bethlehem was made a station and the remainder of Bethlehem Cir. called Pleasant Valley Cir. Norristown and Phoenixville were changed into a mission. Reading English Mission was changed into a station. Pinegrove and Manbeck class were constituted a station. Rausch Creek class was annexed to Tremont. Zion class in the city of Lebanon was taken from Myerstown Cir. and its members instructed to unite with the various classes in Lebanon Sta.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The money for the Harrisburg church was paid to the trustees of that congregation. The sixty dollars in the keeping of Moor Casner of New Jersey were given to him to be used for his church. The missionaries collecting for church buildings received permission to canvass the entire conference territory.

SABBATH.

The Conference resolved the following: 1st, That we will use all our influence to uphold the sanctity of the Sabbath among the people. 2d, That we enter our solemn protest against all efforts that are made to rescind the existing Sabbath laws. 3d, That we respectfully pray the honored senators and representatives of our legislative assemblies to reject all proposals tending to lessen the observance of the Lord's Day.

On Sunday forenoon Bishop Long preached the ordination sermon from 2 Tim. 4:5. In the afternoon the Bishop delivered an address to the candidates for ordination, after which the brethren elected to the office were ordained deacons. Preachers and people participated in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. In the evening T. Bowman preached a missionary sermon from 1 Cor. 6:20, after which the sum of $119.00 was secured for the missionary cause.

The Twenty-Eighth (60th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. J. Esher.

Secretary, John Koehl.

Assistant Secretary, Reuben Deisher.

The Conference convened in the St. John's Evangelical church, Bethlehem, Pa., on Wednesday, February 27th, 1867, to transact the business of its twenty-eighth annual session. The chairman appointed the following committees: On Worship,—Isaac Hess and the presiding elders; On Letters,—F. Hoffman, C. Meyers, and S. G. Rhoads; On Boundaries,—The Bishop and the presiding elders; On Finance,—C. Loos, R. M. Lichtenwalner, and C. K. Fehr; On Statistics,—A. Schultz, G. B. Fisher, and S. B. Brown; On Education,—F. Kreckler, C. S. Haman, H. Stoetzel, S. G. Rhoads, and C. H. Baker.

J. A. Apgar and R. Litzenberger located during the past year. J. Yeakel was re-elected to the office of Presiding Elder. Elders' orders were granted to D. Lentz, W. H. Weidner, A. Getschel, and D. Z. Kembel. Deacons' orders, to L. N. Worman, J. K. Knerr, J. C. Hornberger, J. N. Metzgar, G. Scharf, and Levi Miller.

The following received license as preachers on trial: B. D. Albright, J. P. Schmidt, W. A. Leopold, Franklin Siechrist, I. Zimmerman, H. A. Neitz, Anthony Kindt, J. Schirmeyer, and L. Ruhl. The brethren H. A. Neitz, J. C. Bliem, G. Scharf, W. A. Leopold, J. G. Sands, B. D. Albright, and E. A. Hoffman were received into the itinerancy. Sisters Schnerr and Hesser received support. The Conference organized itself into a Church Building Society. This society did not, however, go into active operation at once. Formerly such preachers who did not reside upon their fields of labor received no rent; this regulation was abolished.

WHEREAS, Our beloved Brother Marquardt, a highly esteemed member and a useful preacher of the East Pa. Conference, has been appointed missionary to the city of San Francisco, Cal., by the executive committee of the board of missions; therefore Resolved, That we are deeply sensible of his withdrawal from our midst, that we wish him the protection of the Most High during his perilous journey, and great efficiency in his new field of labor, and that we will remember him in our prayers.

The delegates elected to the General Conference were: S. Neitz, J. P. Leib, J. Yeakel, G. T. Haines, L. Snyder, F. Hoffman, T. Bowman, C. S. Haman, S. G. Rhoads, F. Kreckler, J. Koehl, and C. Meyers; alternates, J. Adams, I. Hess, J. M. Saylor, and S. P. Rein-oehl.

WHEREAS, It has become customary in our church for our people to engage in picnics, celebrations, exhibitions, and excursions, and because upon such occasions some indulge in frivolous and unbecoming games and amusements which bring reproach upon the cause of Christ; therefore be it Resolved, That we disapprove of such performances, and advise our members to conduct these events in strict accordance with the spirit of the teachings of Christ.

Inasmuch as our Hudson Street Mission in the city of New York is conducted chiefly in the interests of immigrants and therefore intimately connected with our general work in this and in foreign lands; therefore be it Resolved, That we request General Conference at its next session, to take charge of the said mission and to supply it with a missionary. C. S. Haman was appointed to take charge of the reception and distribution of the tracts of this Conference. It was resolved that hereafter the money collected for the support of the superannuated preachers, their widows and orphans shall be applied to no other purpose.

BOUNDARIES.

Easton Miss. was changed to a station. That part of Carbon Cir. lying east of the Blue Mountain was formed into a separate charge and called Berlinsville Cir. Manbeck class was taken from Cressona Cir. and annexed to Pinegrove Sta. Trevorton, Fresh Valley, Seven Points, and Hallin Run were taken from Mahantongo Cir. and formed into a mission called Trevorton Mission. The action of F. Hoffman in annexing Zion class to Lebanon Sta. was approved.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

It was ordered that a church building be erected in the North Philadelphia Miss. during the ensuing year, and that the presiding elder, C. H. Baker, and J. Specht shall constitute a building committee. The erection of a church building in Central Park Miss., New York, was referred to the presiding elder, R. Deisher, and C. Meyers, with permission to build, if advisable. C. B. Fliehr was elected agent to collect throughout the bounds of the Conference for these two mission churches, and to appropriate $4,000 of the money thus collected to the North Philadelphia Miss. and the balance to the Central Park Miss. Each preacher was obligated to do his utmost to assist the collector.

The committee appointed to audit the accounts of Seneca Breyfogel, collector for the Norristown Miss. church, reported the following:

SUNDAY SERVICES.

On Sunday forenoon Bishop J. J. Esher preached an appropriate, profound, and powerful ordination sermon from 1 Pet. 5:1-4. Streams of salvation poured in upon preachers and people until shouts of praise ascended. After the sermon the candidates for Deacons' orders were ordained. J. M. Saylor opened the afternoon services, during which the elders were ordained. J. P. Leib delivered the sacramental address, after which the Lord's Supper was administered. The glory of the Lord appeared. It was indeed a baptism of fire. In the evening S. Neitz preached the missionary sermon from Matt. 20:8. During the description of the distribution of the penny wages among the laborers there was another shout of hallelujahs in the congregation. Thus ended a day that will be held in remembrance forever.

Within the recollection of Bishop Esher and the older brethren of the Conference there never had been a day like this at a conference session.

The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops J. Long and J. J. Esher.

Secretary, Reuben Yeakel.

Assistant Secretaries, R. Dubs, W. F. Schneider, and S. G. Rhoads.

On Thursday, October 10th, 1867, the delegates representing twelve annual conferences assembled in Pittsburgh, Pa., to transact the business of the regular quadrennial session of the General Conference.* Both bishops and eighty-one delegates were in attendance.

The delegates of the East Pa. Conference were all present except G. T. Haines, whose place was filled by J. Adams, an alternate. I. Hess, an alternate, occupied the seat of J. Yeakel during a part of the session. The Conference spent one hour each morning, after the opening of the session, in earnest and importunate prayers for God's blessing upon the daily proceedings and upon the church at large. Charges were preferred against a delegate for persisting in the advocacy of doctrines which are antagonistic to those held by the Evangelical Association. After the complainant and defendant had each addressed the Conference, the question was referred to a committee.

The report of this committee disapproved of certain terms, phrases, and figures employed by the defendant in expounding his views, but unanimously acquitted him of any design to teach doctrines essentially different from those held by the church. The report of the committee was adopted. Another delegate was charged with having made disparaging remarks concerning others in our church periodicals. The matter was referred to a committee, whose report was finally laid on the table. Subsequently the Conference advised the defendant to come to an understanding with the plaintiffs, if possible.

After having declined to publish a monthly magazine, the Conference nevertheless resolved that in case a brother, or several brethren, will undertake to publish a monthly magazine agreeably with the sense and spirit of our church, we will give them our efficient help. A new conference was formed and called The Minnesota Conference.

By a vote of 66 yeas to 11 nays the General Conference adopted the following as a recommendation to the annual conference :

Resolved, That the book agent, the editor of the Christliche Botschafter, the editor of the Evangelical Messenger, the editor of the S. S. Literature; the corresponding secretary of the missionary society, and the bishops, at the time when they are not in the chair, be members of the General Conference ex-officio, provided they are elders, but that the annual conferences to which they may belong, shall not, in making up the number of delegates to be elected by them, count the above named officers of the book establishment. At the request of the East Pa. Conference the board of missions was authorized to take charge of the immigrant mission in the city of New York and to supply it if possible.

A motion to elect three bishops was defeated. The elections resulted as follows : Bishops, J. Long and J.

J. Esher ; general book agent, S. Neitz ; editor of the Christliche Botschafter, R. Dubs ; editor of the Evangelical Messenger, T. G. Clewell ; editor of the Sunday-School and Tract Literature, R. Yeakel ; corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society, W. Yost ; editor of the Evangelische Botschafter and book agent in Germany, J. G. Wollpert ; superintendent of the Ebenezer Orphan Institute, J. G. Zinser. S. Neitz resigned the office of general book agent ; W. W. Orwig was elected in his stead.

These are the statistics reported at this session: Itinerant preachers, 484 ; local preachers, 379 ; full members, 58,225 ; probationary members, 2,176 ; churches, 736 ; parsonages, 187 ; Sunday-schools, 808 ; officers and teachers, 8,304 ; scholars, 41,395 ; catechetical classes, 283 ; catechumens, 2,772.

The Twenty-Ninth (61st) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. Long.

Secretary, S. G. Rhoads.

Assistant Secretaries, C. K. Fehr and J. S. Scheimer.

Conference convened in its twenty-ninth annual session on Wednesday, February 26th, 1868, in the Salem Evangelical church at Reading, Pa.

The following committees were appointed: On Worship,—The presiding elders and the two preachers stationed in Reading, Pa. ; On Letters,—F. Hoffman, F. Kreckler, and G. Knerr ; On Boundaries,—The Bishop and the presiding elders ; On Finance,—J. M. Saylor,

C. Loos located on account of family concerns. A. Goetschel, desiring to unite with a western conference, received his credentials. W. Dewees, a local preacher, died during the past year. J. M. Saylor and F. Hoffman were elected to the office of Presiding Elder. B. F. Bohner, S. Ely, A. F. Leopold, S. B. Brown, A. H. Overholt, J. C. Bliem, and D. Mertz were ordained Elders; J. S. Scheimer, J. G. Sands, W. K. Wieand, J. Laros, E. A. Hoffman, B. J. Smoyer, H. A. Neitz, and S. Frankenfield, Deacons. Edw. Schultz, Jonas Schaeffer, Benj. Wimmer, Isaac Hoch, Simon Licht, W. A. Shoemaker, A. M. Stirk, J. K. Lutz, Reuben Dreibelbis, Samuel Engel, and B. H. Miller were licensed as preachers on trial. The supernumerary preachers are D. Berger, G. T. Haines, D. Wieand, and M. Sindlinger. The widows of deceased preachers having claims upon this Conference for support are Sisters Hesser and Schnerr.

WHEREAS, A work entitled "Der Alte Weg" written by S. G. Rhoads, has appeared in print, and WHEREAS, We are convinced that it is both a useful and timely book; therefore be it Resolved, That we hail with joy its appearance and that we will exert ourselves as much as possible to secure for it a wide circulation.

G. T. Haines and L. Snyder, ex-presiding elders, were made advisory members of the stationing committee. The presiding elders were constituted the committee on missionary appropriations. The Conference adopted the following: Inasmuch as it is clearly in conflict with the rules of our church for any one, without license, to make appointments for preaching or in any other manner offer or announce himself to conduct religious meetings; therefore be it Resolved, That we require all our preachers and congregations to act in strict accordance with our Church Discipline, and to extend the aforementioned privileges to such only as are regularly entitled thereto.

WHEREAS, It has already frequently occurred that church members and class leaders have instituted extra prayer meetings and religious gatherings whereby discord and dissension have been engendered in the churches, and occasions given for the neglect of our tried and regular religious meetings, finally resulting in the loss of members and leaders; therefore be it Resolved, That we discountenance all such gatherings and exercises with which the preacher in charge and the presiding elder are not in accord, or which they cannot recommend.

Sunday was a blessed day. The Lord was among his people, and jubilant shouts of praise and thanksgiving ascended from his courts. In the forenoon Bishop Long preached an appropriate and powerful ordination sermon to a great gathering of people in our German church. In the afternoon the ordination services took place.

BOUNDARIES.

A new English Mission was located in the city of Allentown. Port Clinton was taken from Schuylkill Circuit and in connection with Orwigsburg and Auburn called Orwigsburg Circuit. Mahanoy City Mission was changed to a station. Dunkelberger's class and Shamokin were taken from Ashland Circuit, the former annexed to Lykens Circuit and the latter, to Trevorton Mission.

The congregation at Slatedale received permission to sell their church in order to build a more commodious one. The trustees of our Norristown church were empowered to give a mortgage upon their church property as security for money borrowed. The preacher in charge of our congregation at Greenville, Hudson Co., N. Y., was authorized to collect money in Newark, Greenville, and New York City for their new church building. Furthermore, it was resolved that the Conference recognizes N. Saylor, C. Frundt, E. H. Menke, F. Bose, and J. J. Birmile as the trustees elected according to the rules of our church and considers all other parties as intruders upon our rights. C. Meyers was appointed collector for the Central Park Mission, with access to the entire conference territory. The presiding elder of Easton District, I. E. Knerr, and R. Deisher were appointed a committee of three to superintend the erection of a church building. 1869.

The Thirtieth (62d) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. J. Esher.

Secretary, Jesse Yeakel.

Assistant Secretaries, C. B. Fliehr and J. C. Bliem.

The members of the East Pa. Conference assembled in the Salem Evangelical church on Second Street, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, February 24th, 1869, Bishop J. J. Esher presiding. The Bishop appointed the following standing committees: •

On Worship,—The presiding elders; On Letters,—G. Knerr, F. Krecke, and W. Heim; On Finance,—S. G. Rhoads, L. N. Worman, and J. K. Knerr; On Statistics,—G. B. Fisher, —; On Boundaries,—The presiding elders; On Education,—J. Koehl, C. S. Haman, H. Stoetzel, A. Schultz, and J. Schell; On Quarterly Conference Records,—G. T. Haines, L. Snyder, C. Meyers, J. Adams, and J. Steltzer; To Audit Accounts of Collectors,—J. Kurtz, D. Z. Kembel, and J. N. Metzgar; On Temperance,—J. S. Scheimer, A. H. Overholt, and E. Butz.

The name of a traveling preacher was stricken from the records. It was announced that a local preacher had been expelled during the year. W. C. Detweiler, a local preacher, withdrew from the church. E. A. Hoffman received credentials. J. Frey located on account of ill health. A. Saylor, I. Deppen, and L. Ruehl died during the year. Elders' orders were granted to J. N. Metzgar, J. K. Knerr, L. N. Worman, J. C. Hornberger, G. Scharf, and L. H. Gehman; and Deacons' orders to J. K. Seyfrit, I. E. Zimmerman, B. D. Albright, H. E. Oehrle, W. A. Leopold, and F. Siechrist. The following were licensed as preachers on trial: M. Canzler, N. Heil, N. Kaufman, A. Weaver, A. Light, F. B. Lutman, W. W. Hambright, S. L. Wiest, and W. Wagner. E. Bast was again received as preacher on trial. L. Schmidt was again received as elder, the relation which he held at the time of his withdrawal. The supernumerary preachers were D. Berger, G. T. Haines, D. Wieand, M. Sindlinger, J. S. Scheimer, A. H. Overholt, and S. P. Reinoehl. The conference claimants were G. T. Haines, M. Sindlinger, D. Wieand, S. P. Reinoehl, and Sisters Schnerr and Hesser.

L. Scheuerman addressed the Conference in the interests of our Orphans' Home, after which he secured the sum of $130.22 in subscriptions, and $400 in endowment notes. The preachers were instructed to report their collections for the orphan cause in the annual statistics hereafter. The Conference endorsed the publication of an English translation of S. G. Rhoads' German work, "Der Alte Weg."

A committee was appointed to investigate and report such preachers who neglect to perform their duty in the missionary cause. The chairman having informed the Conference that Bishop J. Long has been greatly afflicted for some time, and that he sends to this Conference his cordial greetings and blessing, it was resolved that we herewith reciprocate the friendly greetings of our highly esteemed Bishop Long, and that we wish him a speedy recovery, long life, and peace. The presiding elders were instructed to select the most suitable persons from among the candidates for the itinerancy, in order that all vacancies may be properly supplied, the brethren thus selected to serve under the charge of the presiding elders.

BOUNDARIES.

Allentown German Mission was changed to a station. Freemansburg was taken from Pleasant Valley Circuit and constituted a station. An English mission was located in Easton. Jefferson and Sterling classes were taken from Wayne Mission and annexed to Monroe Circuit. A new mission was formed in Wayne Co. and called Kellytown Mission.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

With reference to the Central Park Mission in New York City it was resolved that a lot be secured in another location and that a frame chapel be erected at a cost of about $3,000; and inasmuch as there still remains a deficit of $2,500 to pay for the ground alone, for which deficit no provision has been made, and as this Conference finds it impossible to do more for that mission at present; and furthermore, in view of the fact that New York City is the chief landing place for immigrants to this country and our work there has been the means of strengthening the churches in other conferences, thus investing it with the importance of a general church interest, it was resolved that an appeal be made through our highly esteemed bishops to the various conferences to permit our collector to solicit contributions in such fields of labor as the respective conferences may see proper to open for this purpose. The following is a summary of the account of C. Meyers, collector for the mission during the past year:

Cash secured.....	$4,150.02
Expenses, salary, and rent.....	796.52
Total.....	$3,354.50
Unpaid subscriptions.....	544.80

In response to an appeal from the Immanuel congregation of Philadelphia, it was resolved that each preacher take a collection on his field of labor during the months of May and June of the current year, to be applied to the erection of a new church edifice for the use of the said congregation. It was resolved that $6,000 be collected, as soon as practicable, for the erection of a new church edifice for the English mission in Philadelphia, and that T. Bowman shall serve as collector for this purpose during the ensuing year. The trustees of the Phoenixville congregation received permission to borrow $1,000 for their new church edifice. The class in the vicinity of the "Albright Church" received permission to sell lots for the purpose of liquidating the debt still burdening the church. It was resolved that the stationing committee appoint an agent for a new church edifice in the English Mission in Lancaster City.

EDUCATION.

The training of the young should be considered one of the most important commissions given to the church of Christ; and this subject challenges our most earnest attention, the more because of the great injury to which our youth are exposed by the reading of novels and such other frivolous publications which have a tendency to destroy their taste for pure literature as well as to impair their moral and christian culture. The attention of our Association is also directed to the fact that many of the books which answer to the foregoing description appear in our Sunday-school libraries. So-called stories, which have no foundation in fact, are not adapted to produce the desired results. It is also our belief that all theatrical representations and such picnics which are not conducted according to strict christian principles are injurious, and we therefore recommend that, if possible, these degenerate practices be suppressed and uprooted.

TEMPERANCE.

The following was adopted: As a Conference we rejoice to hear of the organization of the Pennsylvania State Temperance Union, whose object is to secure co-operation on the part of all the churches and temperance societies of this State for the overthrow of the liquor traffic. We agree to open our churches at all suitable times to the preachers sent by the Union for the purpose of preaching or lecturing on the subject of temperance and will use our influence with all our members to become total abstainers from all intoxicating drinks.

The members of the East Pa. Conference assembled in annual session in the Emanuel Evangelical church at Catasauqua, Pa., February 23d, 1870. The following committees were appointed: On Worship,—The five presiding elders, J. O. Lehr, and C. H. Baker; On Letters,—A. Schultz, F. Kreckner, and M. Dissinger; On Quarterly Conference Proceedings,—L. Snyder, C. Meyers, C. S. Haman, H. Stoetzel, and J. Koehl; On Statistics,—I. E. Knerr, C. B. Fliehr, and J. K. Seyfrit; On Finances,—S. G. Rhoads, J. K. Knerr, and

W. K. Wieand; On Education,—T. Bowman, J. Kurtz, R. Deisher, S. S. Chubb, and J. Steltzer; To Audit Accounts,—D. Z. Kembel, Seneca Breyfogel, and R. M. Lichtenwalner.

It was reported that a preacher on trial had been expelled during the past year. J. S. Scheimer located on account of bodily infirmities. E. Ely was permitted to rest one year. The supernumerary preachers were D. Berger, G. T. Haines, D. Wieand, M. Sindlinger, S. P. Reinoehl, A. H. Overholt, and H. Stoetzel. The widows Hesser and Schnerr received support from the Conference.

S. Neitz was re-elected, and C. S. Haman was newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. H. A. Neitz, B. J. Smoyer, W. K. Wieand, J. Loras, and J. G. Sands were ordained to the office of Elder; A. M. Stirk, A. Kindt, J. L. Werner, J. Savitz, and G. Miller, to the office of Deacon. The following received license as preachers on trial: S. F. Dundor, J. M. Soliday, A. Straub, E. Ganmer, J. A. Fegar, I. W. Yeakel, D. S. Stauffer, M. Trumbore, and M. N. Bernhart. The Conference received H. K. Funk, formerly a local preacher in the M. E. Church, as preacher on trial. The brethren S. L. Wiest, J. Savitz, W. A. Shoemaker, J. L. Werner, and R. Dreibelbies were received into the itinerancy. The Church Building Society was located in the city of Reading. T. Bowman resigned the position of collector for the Philadelphia English Mission. S. L. Wiest was elected the traveling agent of the Church Building Society. Inasmuch as difficulties are constantly arising in the various congregations in which the people worship in both the German and English languages ; therefore be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that all questions arising out of this subject shall be decided by the presiding elder, the preacher in charge, and the majority of the respective congregations. The following were appointed to examine the junior preachers in their studies: F. Hoffman, J. M. Saylor, S. Neitz, J. Yeakel, and G. B. Fisher.

BOUNDARIES.

Rising Sun was taken from Germantown Station and attached to the North Philadelphia Mission. Trappe Circuit was formed by taking Schwenksville, Limerick, and Trappe from Montgomery Circuit. Sterling and Jefferson classes were taken from Monroe Circuit and called Wayne Circuit. Mauch Chunk, Mahanoy, etc., were organized into Mauch Chunk Circuit. Parryville Circuit was formed of Parryville, Millport, Big Creek, etc. Adamstown Circuit was made up of Mohnsville, Mohnshill, Adamstown, and Reamstown. Trevorton Mission was changed to a circuit. The name of Central Park Mission was changed to New York Mission, 53d Street. New Village and Roxburg were taken from Northampton Circuit and called Bangor Circuit. Little Mahanoy was taken from Mahantongo Circuit and annexed to Trevorton Circuit. Dunkelberger's class was transferred from Lykens Circuit to Mahantongo, and Mahantongo was divided into two fields, the upper to retain the old name and the lower to be called Uniontown Circuit. Tremont and Rausch Creek were annexed to Lykens Circuit. The following appointments were made stations: Norristown, Weissport and Lehighton, and Harrisburg Mission. New missions were located at Phoenixville and Pottstown, Reading, Harrisburg, and South Bethlehem; the last two to be English missions.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The committee appointed at the last annual session reported that a lot had been purchased on 53d St., New York (Central Park Mission), and a substantial one-story brick church erected, and that the entire property is worth $16,000.00, encumbered by a debt of $7,100.00. R. Deisher, the collector for this church, made a report which was audited and approved. T. Bowman, collector for the Philadelphia English Mission, reported that he had collected $2,976.24 in cash and subscriptions. The congregations at Cressona and Berne received permission to sell their church properties in order to erect new churches. J. M. Saylor, J. Koehl, S. Neitz, F. Hoffman, and S. P. Reinoehl were appointed a committee to locate the new mission in Reading, Pa.

EDUCATION.

Prof. D. Denlinger addressed the Conference in the interests of Union Seminary, whereupon it was resolved to recommend that institution to our people. Inasmuch as a number of preachers manifested a certain indifference to the Sunday-school cause, it was resolved that a Sunday-school Convention be held within the bounds of the Conference this year.* T. Bowman, S. G. Rhoads, J. Koehl, J. M. Miller, of Philadelphia, and F. G. Boas, of Reading, were appointed a committee to carry out this purpose.

*This was the origin of those famous annual Sunday-school Conventions which exerted such an immeasurable influence for good upon the Sunday-schools of the East Pa. Conference.—S. C. B.

MEMORIALS.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, the Archbishop and Shepherd of our souls, who has the command over life and death, to take from our midst during the past year our esteemed and useful bishop, J. Long, and to translate him from the church militant to the church triumphant; therefore be it Resolved, That we erect to him the following memorial: As a superintendent over us he was an upright, candid man, fully consecrated to the work of God, a useful laborer in the vineyard of the Lord, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and mighty in the Scriptures. His preaching consisted not of words only, but was accompanied by the demonstration of the Spirit and of power. We extend to his bereaved family our sincere sympathy, and humbly acknowledge and bow to the divine will in this occurrence.

The Thirty-Second (64th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. J. Esher.

Secretary, John Koehl.

Assistant Secretaries, R. Deisher and I. E. Knerr.

The East Pa. Conference convened in its thirty-second annual session in the Immanuel Evangelical church, Lebanon, Pa., Wednesday, Feb. 22d, 1871. The standing committees were appointed as follows: On Worship,—The presiding elders and J. C. Bliem; On Letters,—L. Snyder, C. H. Baker, and C. Meyers; On Quarterly Conference Proceedings,—G. T. Haines, A. Schultz, H. Stoetzel, F. Kreckler, and M. Dissinger; On Statistics,—C. K. Fehr, R. M. Lichtenwalner, and S. B. Brown; On Church Affairs,—J. Kurtz, Seneca Breyfogel, and H. A. Neitz; On Education,—A. Schultz, S. G. Rhoads, W. Heim, J. Adams, and G. Knerr; On Finance,—T. Bowman, S. S. Chubb, and J. K. Knerr. The committees of investigation reported that two traveling elders had been deposed from the ministry and expelled from the church during the year for immoral conduct. The reports were adopted. E. Gaumer, a local preacher, resigned his license. S. Dun-dore, a local preacher, died during the year. B. F. Bohner was retained in the intinerancy one year without an appointment. D. Mertz was placed in a local relation.

J. Yeakel was re-elected, and T. Bowman, newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. W. A. Leopold, J. K. Seyfrit, I. E. Zimmerman, F. Sechrist, and

B. D. Albright were elected to the office of Elder; W. A. Shoemaker, S. L. Wiest, J. Kurtz, O. L. Saylor, R. Dreibelbis, J. Moyer, D. Lehman, and J. Painter, to the office of Deacon. The following brethren received license as preachers on trial: Enos J. Miller, William Minsker, M. Steckley, A. A. Delong, Adam Hofsoner, Jordan F. Wohlfarth, Uriah H. Hershey, Jeremiah K. Fehr, S. S. Young, W. W. Weaver, and S. H. Dunkelberger. A. Markley, a local preacher of the M. E. church, was received. The supernumerary preachers were D. Berger, G. T. Haines, D. Wieand, S. P. Reinohl, E. Ely, and H. Stoetzel. The widows Hesser and Schnerr received support. The following were received into the itinerancy: D. S. Stauffer, A. A. Delong, E. J. Miller, J. K. Fehr, I. W. Yeakel, B. H. Miller, M. Guhl, and U. H. Hershey. R. Mott, of the Pittsburg Conference, was received into the itinerancy on condition that he bring credentials.

The Conference passed a resolution endorsing a work on Christian Baptism written by J. Koehl and recommending it to preachers and people. Information having come to the Conference that at least one annual conference had established a special fund for the support of its claimants, it was resolved, that we ask of the next General Conference that if it is lawful for a conference to establish a separate fund, that the Charitable Society be disbanded and our share of the funds restored to us. J. P. Leib was elected treasurer of the Conference.

The majority and minority reports of the committee on the proceedings of the board of publication with reference to the ex-editor of the Evangelical Messenger.

The majority report: WHEREAS, We learn from the published proceedings of the board of publication that that body had an extra session on Jan. 11th of this year, in Cleveland, O., for the purpose of investigating the editor of the Evangelical Messenger; AND WHEREAS, The editor, who had been repeatedly elected by the General Conference, and who had fulfilled the duties of his office with acknowledged ability and to almost universal satisfaction, was induced by this action, to resign his office, we cannot let the opportunity pass without expressing our opinion on this affair. But while thus giving expression to our opinion we do not wish to charge the board of publication with impure motives, nor to dispute its jurisdiction over the official management of the book establishment in general. But inasmuch as this affair of the editor is in many respects a peculiar one, and our Church Discipline prescribes no specific direction how to proceed against an official of the book establishment in such a case; therefore be it Resolved, That we herewith instruct our delegates to the General Conference to represent our view before that body and to present these reasons why we consider the action of the board premature: 1st, Because the principal points contained in the charge, so far as doctrines are in question, should have been urged against him by his complainants, who were present, in the investigation at the last General Conference, which, however, was not done. 2d, Because, notwithstanding the fact that his views upon a most important doctrine had become familiarly known through a controversy held in the Evangelical Messenger, the General Conference re-elected him editor of the Evangelical Messenger.

3d, Because a diversity of opinion has existed among us from the beginning on the doctrines involved, which also appears from the proceedings of the last General Conference, where an effort was made to reconcile these differences by the adoption of a series of resolutions, although the delegates differed in less important particulars. 4th, Because, although we deem it of the highest importance that there should exist unanimity in the essentials of this doctrine, we, however, also consider it of equal importance that forbearance and love should prevail with reference to the less important details of the doctrine so long as redemption from all sin in this life is believed and taught. 5th, Although not desiring to approve of his language and the judiciousness of his proposals, in his editorial entitled "Our Articles of Faith," yet we do not discover anything therein to convict him of revolutionary intentions against the Association. 6th, Because it is our opinion, after mature and impartial deliberation, based upon the official report of the investigation, that the board should have presented its charges—as far as they relate to doctrine and the aforementioned editorial—to the Pittsburg Conference, or else deferred action until the next General Conference.

The minority report is as follows: Resolved, 1st, That we express our inmost regret concerning the recent occurrences in our book establishment, with reference to the editorship of the Evangelical Messenger. 2d, That in view of the moral character, and the ripe official experience of the members of the board of publication, we repose in them the confidence that they gave the subject mature reflection and acted according to their best judgment, and all the more because of the fact that they are responsible to the General Conference and through that body to the entire church for their conduct.

The majority report was adopted with the following addition: Inasmuch as the majority of this Conference, in its instructions to the delegates to the next General Conference, has freely expressed its opinion on the Cleveland affair, and inasmuch as the Conference cannot justify the conduct of the editor of the Evangelical Messenger in every particular; therefore be it Resolved, 1st, That we heartily deplore and decidedly disapprove of the conduct of the editor in appealing to the civil courts, however justifiable (and we will not impugn his motives) he may have regarded his course under the peculiar circumstances, because it has deeply grieved the brethren and has given the enemies of the church occasion for rejoicing. 2d, That by this action we do not desire to cast any reflection upon those who have been appointed by the board to edit the Evangelical Messenger in the meantime, nor to discourage them in the least, inasmuch as we have the confidence that they will endeavor to do their best under the circumstances, and hope, therefore, that none of our members or well-wishers will withdraw their support from that periodical.

The following is the protest of Bishop Esher against the majority report: Against the foregoing report I record my decided protest: 1st, Because I hold to the conviction that the contents of the report could not come before this Conference or be acted upon legally. 2d, Because the report criticises the regular disciplinary action of one of the official boards of the church in dealing with a transgressing official, and thereby, in an indirect manner, takes the transgressor under protection before the affair has been properly and regularly investigated by the Conference. 3d, Because this report treats the violation of our Church Discipline and the casting of suspicion upon our Articles of Faith as an indifferent matter, since it expresses censure upon a regular action which called to account an official who had made himself guilty of the aforementioned transgression. 4th, Because the delegates of this Conference, who, with the delegates of other annual conferences, are to sit as judges in lawful decision over the said investigation, are instructed beforehand by this report how they are to pronounce judgment in the case and what decision they are to render.

The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: S. Neitz, J. M. Saylor, J. P. Leib, C. S. Haman, T. Bowman, J. Yeakel, S. G. Rhoads, L. Snyder, F. Hoffman, and G. Knerr. The alternates were: C. H. Baker, J. Koehl, and J. O. Lehr.

BOUNDARIES.

North Philadelphia Mission was changed to a station. Bath and Nazareth were called Bath Circuit. Bangor Station was discontinued. Bushkill, Plainfield, Windgap, Ackermantown, Bangor, Miller's class, and Roxburg constituted Northampton Circuit. South Bethlehem Mission was discontinued. White Haven was transferred from Hazleton to Mauch Chunk Circuit. Rush Valley and Locust Valley were taken from Tamaqua and annexed to Schuylkill Circuit. Berrysburg

Circuit was formed of the following appointments: Ber-rysburg, Gratztown, Oakdale, Dunkelberger's class, and Webers class. Millersburg was made a station. Halifax, Fishersville, and Matimoras and vicinity were constituted a mission. Harrisburg Station was discontinued, and the English Mission connected with the German church. Mahantongo, Uniontown, and a part of Trevorton Circuit were formed into Mahantongo Circuit. New missions were located at the following places: Wilkesbarre and Scranton, Newmanstown, Shamokin, Williams Valley, Tremont, Hellertown, and Hamburg. The conference territory was divided into six presiding elder districts.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The South Philadelphia congregation received permission to send a collector throughout the bounds of the Conference. The agent of the Church Building Society reported that he had collected $3,813.85, from which were deducted $925.93 for his salary, rent, and traveling expenses. The trustees of Salem church, Williams Valley Mission, were authorized to sell their church property and to apply the proceeds for the erection of a new church. It was resolved that hereafter the Sunday services in the Germantown and Norristown churches shall be German in the forenoon and English in the evening. The affairs of the Hatfield church were referred to the presiding elder and preacher in charge of the congregation.

EDUCATION.

Resolved, That we are highly gratified with the decided success of the Annual Sunday-school Convention held in the city of Reading, Pa., in October, 1870, and that we rejoice over the announcement that another convention is to be held at Allentown during the current year. S. G. Rhoads, T. Bowman, C. K. Fehr, C. S. Haman, and H. Stoetzel were appointed examiners for the next year.

The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops J. J. Esher and R. Yeakel.

Secretary, Jesse Yeakel.

Assistant Secretaries, C. A. Thomas and S. Smith.

The delegates of the various annual conferences assembled in the Zion Evangelical church, Naperville, Ill., on Thursday, October 12th, 1871.* Fourteen conferences and the publishing house were represented by seventy-eight delegates. The delegates of the East Pa. Conference were all present. The following was adopted:

WHEREAS, The ex-editor of the Evangelical Messenger has submitted to this body a document containing an appeal in reference to the disciplinary proceedings of the board of publication in regard to his official conduct as editor of the Evangelical Messenger; therefore be it Resolved, That he has no disciplinary right to an appeal in the above named document, because he has resigned his office and has called to his aid the civil courts, whereby he has forfeited his right to appeal to the higher ecclesiastical courts of our church; and that the documents in question be returned again to the author.

The committee on the proceedings of the board of the publication reported the following, which was adopted: That, notwithstanding the fact that the board in regard to the particulars in its action against the ex-

editor of the Evangelical Messenger, as in the representation of the charges, may have varied from the usual custom of conducting church trials, we cannot see, considering the incomplete directions given in the book of discipline concerning the trial of officers of the establishment, and as no precedent existed, how they could have acted otherwise in order to guard the interests of the establishment.

A recommendation, permitting a preacher to serve three years instead of two on the same field of labor, was adopted by 66 votes. The Conference decided that the yearly allowance of itinerant preachers shall be left to the various annual conferences for their own regulation, to decide upon the allowance at their annual sessions, or, if they see proper, to refer the matter to the several quarterly conferences.

The proceedings of the East Pa. Conference of 1871, in regard to the action of the board of publication in the Evangelical Messenger affair, were declared illegal. The subject of a union between the Evangelical Association and the Methodist Episcopal Church having been presented anew by three delegates from the M. E. General Conference, a series of resolutions was adopted declaring it unadvisable to recommend such a union, however desirable, because it could not be accomplished with the general consent of our ministry and membership at present. The subject of changing the name of the Evangelical Association was indefinitely postponed.

The elections resulted as follows: Bishops, J. J. Esher and R. Yeakel; general book agent, W. F. Schneider; editor of the Christliche Botschafter, R.

Dubs; editor of the Evangelical Messenger, J. Hartzler; editor of the Magazin and Kinderfreund, W. Horn; editor of the Living Epistle and the S. S. Messenger, J. Young; corresponding secretary of the Miss. Society, W. Yost; treasurer of the Miss. Society, W. W. Orwig; superintendent of the Ebenezer Orphan Institute, C. Hammer; editor of the Evangelische Botschafter, J. Kaechele; editor of the Evangelische Kinderfreund, J. Fuessele; delegate to the board of publication from the East Pa. Conference, T. Bowman; trustees of the Charitable Society, J. Freehoefer and Dr. O. L. Saylor.

The following statistics of the general church were reported: Itinerant preachers, 655; local preachers, 479; full members, 76,191; churches, 977; parsonages, 281; Sunday-schools, 1,165; officers and teachers, 13,080; scholars, 68,648; catechetical classes, 497; catechumens, 5,186.

The Thirty-Third (65th) Annual Session.

President, Bishop J. J. Esher.

Secretary, Thomas Bowman.

Assistant Secretaries, W. K. Wieand and I. E. Knerr.

The members of the East Pa. Conference assembled in the St. Paul's Evangelical church at Pine Grove, Pa., on Wednesday, February 28th, 1872. The president appointed the following committees: On Worship,—The presiding elders and J. C. Hornberger; On Letters,—J. P. Leib, G. T. Haines, and C. Meyers; On Boundaries,—The president and the presiding elders;

On Finance,—S. G. Rhoads, J. C. Bliem, S. S. Chubb, G. Knerr, and R. M. Lichtenwalner; On Statistics,—C. K. Fehr, J. Kurtz, and B. J. Smoyer; On Education,—J. Koehl, F. Kreckler, J. C. Hornberger, S. B. Brown, and J. K. Knerr; On Quarterly Conference Proceedings,—J. P. Leib, G. T. Haines, C. Meyers, and C. B. Fliehr; On Church Affairs,—L. Snyder, C. B. Fliehr, and Seneca Breyfogel.

H. R. Funk, local preacher, withdrew from the Association. W. Heim, D. Hambright, and I. W. Yeakel were retained in the itinerancy without an appointment. Samuel Brown, local preacher, died during the past year. The supernumeraries were: J. Schell, C. Gingrich, D. Wieand, E. Ely, S. Ely, S. P. Reinoehl, D. Berger, H. Stoetzel, and M. Sindlinger. Sisters Hesser and Schnerr received support. J. M. Saylor was re-elected, and G. T. Haines, newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. The following were ordained to the office of Elder: J. L. Werner, J. Savitz, A. M. Stirk, and A. Kindt; and these to the office of Deacon: I. W. Yeakel, J. A. Fegar, B. H. Miller, D. S. Stauffer, A. A. Delong, E. J. Miller, and J. K. Fehr. The brethren, Daniel A. Medlar, Calvin Bliem, James M. Oplinger, Joshua Wilson, H. Rndolph Yost, Christian Pfeifle, Titus A. Hess, Christian S. Brown, Jacob S. The support of the preachers was referred to the stewards and quarterly conferences of the various charges, with the condition that the salary of a traveling preacher during his first and second years shall not be less than $250.00 a year, and thereafter not less than $500.00 a year.* The following was adopted: WHEREAS, A request has been presented for permission to conduct a "holiness" campmeeting; and WHEREAS, In our judgment the Discipline distinctly indicates under whose authority campmeetings are to be held; therefore be it Resolved, That we respectfully refer the request back to the petitioners.

BOUNDARIES.

Southwark Mission was formed of Bridesburg and Philadelphia 5th St. Station. Norristown was changed into a mission. Hellertown Mission was discontinued. Nazareth was transferred from Bath Circuit to Northampton, and Bath was made a mission. Port Jervis Mission was formed of Port Jervis, Sparrow Bush, and Shoholo Valley. Wesnersville, Kistler's Valley, and Bolich's class were taken from Kutztown Circuit and annexed to Hamburg Mission. Ringtown and Fetherolf's class were taken from Ashland Circuit and called Ringtown Station. Mt. Carmel was taken up as a mission. Ashland Mission was formed of Ashland, Gordon, and Mahanoy Plane. Newmanstown Mission was annexed to Myerstown Circuit. Shamokin Mission was changed to a station. *This was amended the following year so as to fix the minimum salary for the third and fourth years at $375.00.

gether with Birdsboro called Birdsboro Mission. Allentown Mission was changed to a station. Kutztown Circuit was called Fleetwood.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The church affairs at Halifax were referred to a committee. The preacher in charge of Richmond was instructed to secure articles of incorporation for the congregation there and to secure the deed by legal process if necessary. The English congregation at Lancaster and the congregation at Berlinsville received permission to sell their churches and to erect new ones. The quarterly conference of Pleasant Valley Circuit was authorized to sell the church property called Grover's Church and to apply the proceeds for the erection of a new church at Flint Hill. In answer to a petition from the congregation, the preacher in charge at Schuylkill Haven was advised to conduct the Sunday forenoon services in the German language and the evening services in the English language, the remaining services to be conducted according to his best judgment.

EDUCATION.

The committee on education reported that the Sunday-schools throughout the entire conference district were in a flourishing condition, as a result of the annual Sunday-school conventions. It was also the opinion of the committee that the Sunday-schools, as conducted in many congregations, had taken the place and partially, if not fully, superseded the necessity of catechetical instructions. The erection of a college with a biblical institute was declared to be both necessary and timely, but because such an undertaking is connected with great expense and requires the establishment of a fund, it was resolved that Thomas Bowman be authorized to confer with our well to do members during the year and to ascertain how much they are willing to contribute to such an object. The following examiners were appointed: For the fourth year class, S. G. Rhoads, T. Bowman, and C. S. Haman; for the third year class, C. Myers, R. Mott, and C. K. Fehr; for the second year class, S. B. Brown, I. E. Knerr, and J. C. Hornberger; for the first year class, W. K. Wieand, S. P. Reinoehl, and H. A. Neitz. The examiners were instructed to present a written report at each annual session.

Schneider, General Book Agent, addressed the Conference. It was resolved that hereafter certificates given by the East Pa. Conference to preachers, or by preachers to members, shall in no case be valid longer than three months, except where it was impossible for the holders to deposit them sooner. The Conference expressed its joy over the large increase in the circulation of our church periodicals and gave words of good cheer to the editors. C. Hammer delivered an address in the interests of the Orphans' Home.

The members of the East Pa. Conference met in the Salem Evangelical church of Allentown, Pa., on Wednesday, February 25th, 1874. J. C. Hornberger was appointed to record the minutes in the English language. The presiding Bishop appointed the following committees: On Worship,—C. B. Fliehr, J. O. Lehr, and R. M. Lichtenwalner; On Boundaries,—The Bishop and the presiding elders; On Letters,—The presiding elders; On Finance,—J. Steltzer, J. Koehl, and C. H. Baker; On Statistics,—G. Scharf, H. A. Neitz, and W. K. Wieand; On Education,—S. S. Chubb, C. K. Fehr, I. E. Knerr, B. J. Smoyer, and Seneca Breyfogel; On Quarterly Conference Proceedings,—S. G. Rhoads, J. C. Hornberger, J. C. Bliem, A. Schultz, and D. Z. Kembel; On Church Affairs,—R. Deisher, J. K. Seyfrit, and A. M. Stirk; On Memorials,—S. G. Rhoads, J. K. Knerr, and M. Guhl; On Temperance,—L. Snyder, J. N. Metzgar, and J. C. Hornberger.

I. E. Zimmerman was placed in a local relation. J. L. Lutman, a local preacher, withdrew from the church. Ephraim Ely, itinerant, and David Thomas, David Light, and Edward Snyder, local preachers, died during the year. G. T. Haines resigned his presiding eldership. C. S. Haman was re-elected, and S. G. Rhoads and C. K. Fehr were newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. The following named brethren were elected and ordained to the office of Elder: B. H. Miller, D. S. Stauffer, A. A. Delong, I. W. Yeakel, J. K. Fehr, E. J. Miller, O. L. Saylor, and J. A. Feger; and these to the office of Deacon,—J. S. Newhart, Jas. Bowman, D. A. Medlar, H. R. Yost, A. Markley, and E. Glaeser. The following were licensed as preachers on trial: Joshua Hollenbach, Isaac J. Reitz, Henry

D. Shultz, and Augustus Dilabar. The brethren, L. E. Leslie, S. C. Breyfogel, G. H. Laury, J. M. Rinker, A. W. Warfel, H. D. Shultz, A. Dilabar, A. Markley, and J. J. High, were received into the itinerancy. John Dooley, local deacon of the Ohio Conference, was received into this Conference in the same relation. Geo. D. Sweigert, local preacher on trial in the M. E. church, was received into our church in the same relation. The supernumeraries were N. Goebel, D. Wieand, M. Sindlinger, S. P. Reinoehl, D. Berger, H. Stoetzel, J. Shell and Jos. Gross. The conference claimants were D. Wieand, M. Sindlinger, S. P. Reinoehl, H. Stoetzel, J. P. Leib, and the widows Schnerr, Hesser, and Myers.

It was resolved that hereafter local preachers, who make application for ordination, shall be required to pass the examinations of junior preachers two years previous. The Conference decided that no congregation has the right to appropriate missionary money for any other purpose than that for which it was collected. All the congregations were requested to make the necessary preparations to pay their preachers monthly.

BOUNDARIES.

Camden and Southwark missions were discontinued and the two congregations united into one charge. Boyertown and Berlin were taken from Milford Circuit and annexed to Pottstown Mission. Orwigsburg was taken from Schuylkill Circuit and made a station. Bolich's class, Wesnersville, and Kistler's class were taken from Schuylkill Circuit and with Lynnville and the surrounding country constituted Wesnersville Mission. Port Clinton was taken from Schuylkill Circuit and annexed to Hamburg Mission. Roaring Creek Valley and Brandonville were annexed to Ringtown Station, and called Ringtown Circuit. Tremont and Mauch Chunk missions were changed into circuits. Slatington and Slatedale were taken from Berlinsville Circuit and constituted a station. Northampton Circuit was divided as follows: Nazareth, Plainfield, Windgap, and Bushkill were formed into Nazareth Circuit; Ackermantown, Miller's, Roxburg, and McCracken, into Mt. Bethel Circuit. Monroe Circuit was divided as follows: Altimose's, Snydersville, St. John's, Mechanicsville, Middlecreek, and Pine Swamp were continued as Monroe Circuit; Paradise, Sterling, Puddytown, and Middle Valley were formed into Sterling Circuit. Crum's class was taken from Dauphin Circuit and annexed to the Harrisburg German Mission. Ashland and Hazleton missions were changed into stations. Annville was taken from Annville Circuit and made a mission, and the remainder of the circuit called Mt. Nebo Circuit. New missions were established at the following places: Reading (southeastern part), Harrisburg (English), Frackville and Mahanoy Plane, Scranton, Lehigh, Allentown (northern part), Bangor, and Mauch Chunk (English).

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The congregations at Pottsville, Eighth St. Reading, Bethlehem, and Bangor were authorized to sell their old church properties upon the condition that the deeds of the new churches be made in accordance with the directions of our Church Discipline. The affairs of the church at Halifax, Pa., were referred to a committee. The legal official members of our church at Mechanicsville, Monroe Co., Pa., were advised to institute legal proceedings against the persons who unlawfully hold the deed of that church. It was decided that the persons making claims against the church at Hatfield shall institute legal proceedings to recover the same, whenever they see proper. The Central Pa. Conference was kindly requested to grant permission to our missionary on the Harrisburg English Mission to collect money within the bounds of that conference. The trustees of the various churches which are not properly deeded, were requested to take the necessary steps to have the deeds made according to the directions of our Church Discipline. It was resolved that the Sabbath services at Wilkesbarre, Pa., be held in German in the forenoon and in English in the evening.

Permission to collect throughout the Conference was granted to the following congregations: Scranton Mission, New York 53d St. Mission, Bernville, and Harrisburg English Mission.

EDUCATION.

The Conference appointed a committee of seven to take active steps this year in the location of an institution of learning, and an agent to secure funds toward the erection and endowment of such an institution. Thomas Bowman was elected agent, and T. Bowman, J. Yeakel, C. S. Haman, C. K. Fehr, Moses Schadt, F. G. Boas, and D. R. Miller were appointed as the committee. All the preachers were instructed to preach at least once during the year at every appointment on the importance of education, and to take up a collection for the education of indigent young men studying for the ministry.

In case junior preachers absent themselves from the annual examination without a satisfactory excuse, or are not able to pass the prescribed studies, their ordination shall be deferred according to the judgment of the Conference. B. J. Smoyer, A. M. Stirk, and J. K. Knerr were appointed examiners.

MEMORIALS.

Suitable memorials were erected to the following brethren: Ephraim Ely, an itinerant, a diligent and faithful laborer in the church, departed this life, giving a clear testimony of the hope of eternal life. He was beloved wherever he labored, and was instrumental in leading many to the Shepherd of souls. His preaching was spiritual and full of unction. David Thomas, once in active service, but for fifty years a blameless and useful local preacher, finished his course in a triumphant death. The departed brethren, David Light and Edward Snyder, were both active laborers for God. We appreciate their services and believe that they reap with joy what they sowed with tears.

TEMPERANCE.

The following was resolved: 1st, That we would consider the repeal of the Local Option Law as highly unjust, inasmuch as the practical operation of the law has not been sufficiently tested. 2d, That we see the hand of God in the so-called Woman's Crusade against intemperance, and that we heartily wish them God-speed, and would call upon the women in the entire land to arise and to call into action all the power and influence with which God has endowed them, to drive the demon of intemperance from the land.

Nathan Kaufman, B. Wimmer, and G. H. Landis, local preachers, withdrew from the church. An elder and a local preacher were deposed from the ministry and the former expelled from the church. Levi Miller and G. F. Weidner resigned their licenses as local preachers. The announcement was made that R. Dreibelbis, itinerant, and Isaac Overholser, Christopher Yeakel, and G. Reich, local preachers, had died. T. Bowman was re-elected, and S. Neitz, newly elected to the office of Presiding Elder. U. H. Hershey, J. F. Wohlfarth, and J. M. Oplinger were ordained Elders; T. A. Hess, W. L. Black, L. E. Leslie, S. C. Breyfogel, J. J. High, G. H. Laury, J. M. Rinker, A. Straub, A. W. Warfel, and C. S. Brown, Deacons. The following received license as preachers on trial: J. C. E. Waehlte, J. D. Campbell, M. L. Custer, J. A. Transue, Henry J. Glick, Franklin E. Erdman, George W. Gross, Augustus Kreckler and Sylvester T. Leopold. The following were received into the itinerancy: I. J. Reitz, A. Kreckler, G. W. Gross, S. T. Leopold, H. J. Glick, M. L. Custer, W. C. Kantner, J. R. Workman, C. S. Brown, and A. Straub.

The supernumeraries were N. Goebel, D. Wieand, M. Sindlinger, D. Berger, H. Stoetzel, J. Schell, J. Gross, S. P. Reinoehl, C. Gingrich, and J. P. Leib. The conference claimants were S. P. Reinoehl, H. Stoetzel, M. Sindlinger, D. Wieand, N. Goebel, and Sisters Hesser, Schnerr, and Meyers. The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: T. Bowman, C. S. Haman, S. G. Rhoads, C. K. Fehr, S. Neitz, J. M. Saylor, J. Yeakel, J. P. Leib, L. Snyder, J. Koehl, J. O. Lehr, F. Hoffman, and J. C. Hornberger; alternates, G. T. Haines, F. Kreckler, I. E. Knerr, and S. B. Brown.

The committee on quarterly conference records reported the following, which was adopted: "We find in a number of records that substitutes, sent by presiding elders to hold quarterly meetings, presided at the quarterly conferences, which we consider illegal." The following was adopted: WHEREAS, We understand that some of our congregations prohibit their pastors from lifting such collections as are authorized by Conference; therefore be it Resolved, 1st, That we most emphatically disapprove of such action and declare it to be a violation of our church rules and contrary to the spirit of true Christianity. 2d, That no congregation supplied by this Conference has any right to prohibit such collections nor to appropriate them, or any part of them, for their own use and purpose. It was made the imperative duty of every presiding elder and preacher in charge to see to it that the churches built on their fields of labor are deeded in accordance with the provision of our Discipline.

BOUNDARIES.

Bath Mission was made a station. Mahoning Valley was annexed to Lehigh Mission. Sterling Circuit was discontinued; Paradise and Union Church were annexed to Monroe Circuit; and Sterling and Middle Valley, to Wayne Circuit. A German mission was located in the vicinity of New York City, the presiding elder of the district and the missionary to select the specific locality. Camden was taken from Southwark Station, Camden and Glassborough to form a circuit. Richmond was annexed to Bridesburg. Link's class on Birdsboro Mission was annexed to the Reading 8th Str.

congregation. Leesport was taken from Womelsdorf Circuit and annexed to Hamburg Mission. Crum's church was taken from Harrisburg Mission and annexed to Dauphin Circuit. Mountville, Jonestown, and Fredericksburg were taken from Mt. Nebo Circuit and annexed to Myerstown Circuit; Mt. Nebo, Steelstown, Hanover, and Conewago to constitute Mt. Nebo Circuit. Palmyra and Campbellstown were annexed to Annville Mission. Coaldale and Ashton (Lansford) were taken from Barnesville Circuit, and Summit Hill from Mauch Chunk Circuit, these three appointments to constitute Coaldale Circuit. New missions were located at Mauch Chunk and White Haven, Sparrow Bush, N. Y., Southwark (Philadelphia), Phoenixville, Lititz and Manheim, and Fleetwood.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

A committee of five was appointed to consider the necessity of changing the location of Newark Mission, with authority to sell the old church property and to erect a new church edifice in another part of the city. The Mt. Carmel congregation received permission to sell a lot from their church property. The congregation at Fredericksburg, Pa., received permission to sell a part of their church lot and to purchase an adjoining piece of ground. The members of the Conference made an effort to liquidate the indebtedness of $954.25 on the church at Halifax by personal contributions; $668 were immediately secured. The trustees of our church at Pine Grove were authorized to sell their old church property. Permission was given to the proper persons to sell the parsonage of the old Northampton

Circuit, providing the proceeds of such sale be applied for the purpose for which the money was first given. Permission was given to Lehighon Mission to apply a certain sum of money in their possession toward building a church at Lehighon, and to Flint class on Pleasant Valley Circuit, to remove the Gruber Church to Flint Hill.

EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, The standing committee on education have not yet determined on a location for the founding of a higher institution of learning, nor received any endowments therefor, but are convinced that the Conference should press the project to a successful issue as soon as the depressed state of business and the finances of our country and other circumstances make it practicable; therefore be it Resolved, That the same committee be continued. Cedar Hill Seminary, of Mt. Joy, Pa., under the supervision of Prof. D. Denlinger, was commended for its excellencies. The Conference created the office of Treasurer of the Educational Fund, whose duty it shall be to report to Conference annually. He shall have power to purchase any books prescribed in our course of study for the use of indigent young preachers traveling in our Conference, upon the presentation of an order from their presiding elders. The money thus expended shall be refunded into the treasury as soon as the recipient of the books is able. J. C. Bliem was elected educational treasurer. District ministerial conventions were commended as a valuable means for the development of our ministerial efficiency. I. E. Knerr, S. B. Brown, and J. C. Hornberger were appointed to examine junior preachers. W. K. Wieand and J. K. Seyfrit were appointed to examine applicants for the itinerancy.

MEMORIALS.

The ranks of the ministry were diminished during the past year by the decease of four brethren. Reuben Dreibelbis, an itinerant, was a diligent laborer in the church of his choice and was instrumental in leading many souls to the Great Shepherd of the flock. His sermons were sound, evangelical, and full of divine unction. His life was devoted and his walk consistent. Isaac Overholser, once in the active ministry, but of recent years a local preacher, lived a useful life and died a triumphant death. His sermons were spiritual and his life blameless. Father Christopher Yeakel was perhaps the oldest veteran of the cross among the local preachers of our Conference. He walked with God. In his day he suffered much from persecution, but his confidence in God remained unshaken. Father George Reich, a local deacon, passed away during the past year in the hope of a blissful immortality.

TEMPERANCE.

We thank God and take courage from the fact that in spite of the violent efforts of the liquor dealers, the Local Option Law remains unrepealed, and from the fact that through the prayers and labors of self-denying Christian women the church and the friends of order have been aroused against the foe, as has never before been witnessed in our country.

1875.

The General Conference.

Presidents, Bishops J. J. Esher, R. Yeakel, R. Dubs, and T. Bowman.

Secretary, H. Huelster.

Assistant Secretaries, R. Mott, E. J. Schultz, J. C. Hornberger, H. B. Hartzler, and S. Smith.

The members of the General Conference met in the Emanuel Church, Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday, October 14th, 1875, and continued in session nineteen days. Besides the eight ex-officio delegates, there were ninety delegates, representing fourteen annual conferences, in attendance. All the representatives of the East Pa. Conference were present except the late Father J. P. Leib, whose seat was occupied by F. Kreckler, alternate. In the examination of the officials appointed by the General Conference, and of the delegates, no charges were preferred. After two days of discussion the following was adopted by a vote of 76 to 14: Resolved, That a German conference shall be constituted, embracing the following fields of labor: New York Station, New York Mission, Newark Mission, Union Hill Mission, Greenville Mission, Easton Station, Fifth Street Station (Philadelphia), Bridesburg and Richmond, Camden Mission, and Harrisburg Mission, of the East Pa. Conference; Green Street Station and East Baltimore Station in Baltimore, York Station, and the German Station in Williamsport, of the Central Pa. Conference; and Washington Mission. This conference shall be called the Atlantic Conference, and shall be organized at the next session of the East Pa. Conference.

The Conference adopted suitable resolutions relative to the death of J. P. Leib, a delegate of the East Pa. Conference. A memorial service was held in which W. W. Orwig, E. Kohr, and S. Neitz made appropriate addresses.

On Tuesday, the 19th day of Oct., in the year of our Lord 1875, the first heathen mission of the Evangelical Association was established by the adoption of the following: WHEREAS, We as a church are undoubtedly called to preach the Gospel to the heathen; and many contributions for such a mission have been received, and a considerable fund has already been secured; and the board of missions has for several years had this subject under earnest and favorable consideration; and of late the desire of the church for the establishment of such a mission seems to have grown in strength; and men, whom we believe have the necessary qualifications, have offered their services in this direction; and we believe that the establishment of such a mission will not, as some fear, interfere with contributions for other missionary purposes, but, on the contrary, will develop the spirit of missions and increase the contributions for other benevolent purposes; therefore, Resolved, 1st, That a mission among the heathen be established forthwith. 2d, That we consider Japan as the most favorable country for such a mission, and that it be established in said country. 3d, That the board of missions be instructed to take the necessary steps that this mission be supplied with at least two suitable men as soon as possible. These resolutions were unanimously adopted amid profound feeling and great enthusiasm.

The elections resulted as follows: Bishops, J. J. Esher, R. Yeakel, R. Dubs, and T. Bowman; general book agent, W. F. Schneider; editor of the Christliche Botschafter, M. Lauer; editor of the Evangelical Messenger, J. Hartzler; editor of the Evangelische Magazin and German S. S. Literature, W. Horn; editor of the Living Epistle and English S. S. Literature, H. J. Bowman; corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society, J. Young; treasurer of the Missionary Society, W. Yost; superintendent of the Orphans' Home, Jacob Dreisbach; editor of the Evangelische Botschafter, J. Kaechele; editor of the Kinderfreund, G. Fuessele; book agent in Germany, J. Walz.

The following statistics were reported: Itinerant preachers, 836; local preachers, 503; members, 95,253; churches, 1,233; parsonages, 324; Sunday-schools, 1,509; officers and teachers, 16,875; scholars, 90,090; catechetical classes, 509; catechumens, 6,186.

Conference, were received into this Conference in the same relation which they sustained in the respective conferences from which they brought credentials. The former was also received into the itinerancy. Rev. L. N. At his request the Conference granted to M. Guhl a letter of dismissal and a recommendation to the Erie Conference. J. A. Transue, local preacher, also received a letter of dismissal.

The following was adopted: WHEREAS, General Conference has taken from our midst our beloved brother, Thomas Bowman, by choosing him one of the bishops of our church; therefore be it Resolved, That, although we keenly feel his absence, we will humbly submit to this decision of the General Conference and always pray that the Lord may fully qualify him for his honorable position, and that we will always welcome Bishop Bowman in our midst and regard him as one of our number.

The following members of this Conference connected themselves with the ATLANTIC CONFERENCE: Jesse Yeakel, Geo. Knerr, R. Deisher, J. Steltzer, J. Koehl, G. Scharf, T. Plattenberger, A. F. Leopold, E. CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The following congregations received permission to collect on their respective presiding elder districts: Bernville, Frackville, Leesport, Port Clinton, Myerstown, and Shenandoah City. The affairs of the Port Clinton church were submitted to a committee. The request of the Myerstown church to sell their old property and to apply the proceeds toward the erection of a new church in a more suitable part of the town, was referred to a committee. The congregation at Wescoesville received permission to sell or move their church and to apply the proceeds to build at a more suitable place, upon condition that they retain their present burial ground. The trustees of the Millers-town church received permission to exchange part of a lot of ground for other ground which will make the church lot more valuable and suitable. Hamburg church being burdened with a debt of $876.24, demanding prompt payment, it was resolved to raise the claim at this session, if possible. Our friends of the Germantown congregation were requested to build a new church edifice in order better to promote the work of Christ and the honor of the Evangelical Association. The trustees of the Bolich church were requested to borrow a sufficient amount of money in order to secure the deed of their property. The Lebanon English Mission was authorized to collect funds within the bounds of the Conference during the coming year to aid in the erection of a house of worship. The trustees of Christ Church also received permission to grant to D. Focht a mortgage of $3,250 for five years upon their church. The Church Building Society was instructed to grant a loan of $300 to the Phoenixville congregation.

EDUCATION.

The Central Pa. Conference having sent delegates to this Conference with instructions to suggest the propriety of the Pennsylvania conferences uniting in one grand effort to secure an endowment and found a college in one of the said conferences, we recognize the great importance and necessity of prompt action in this matter. Be it therefore Resolved, That we will join with our brethren of the Central Pa. and the Pittsburg conferences in taking immediate steps towards the establishment of a college, and that we will secure an endowment fund of at least one hundred thousand dollars, towards which no subscription shall be considered binding until seventy-five thousand dollars of the amount are secured. That the subscriptions to this fund shall be payable as follows: One-tenth at the time when the seventy-five thousand dollars have been secured, and the balance in four equal payments; the first within two years, the second within four years, the third within six years, and the fourth within eight years, with notes bearing lawful interest from the time the subscriptions become binding until paid. Rev. H. A. Neitz was appointed agent to secure funds within the bounds of this Conference. Revs. S. S. Chubb, C. K. Fehr, C. S. Haman, and Messrs. D. R. Miller and M. B. Shadt were appointed a committee to consult with, and secure the co-operation of similar committees from the Central Pa. and the Pittsburg conferences. The following were appointed examiners: Of Applicants,—S. S. Chubb, W. A. Leopold, and U. H. Hershey; of the First Year's Class,—W. K. Wieand, J. K. Seyfrit and S. L. Wiest.

MEMORIALS.

To the memory of J. P. Leib, J. Shell, and S. G. Rhoads the Conference erected the following tribute: They were men of fine intellectual and social qualities, of varied and useful attainments, exemplary piety, and rich spiritual experience. In their walk and conversation they were characterized by punctuality, fidelity, and entire devotion to the Master's cause; serving the church in important positions of trust with untiring energy and the most cheerful self-sacrificing zeal. Because of their thoroughly evangelical principles, their usefulness, and their powerful and eloquent preaching they won many souls to Christ, and endeared themselves to the ministry and laity. In this bereavement we humbly submit to the divine will. John Eckert, a local preacher, but formerly in the itinerancy, was a successful worker. His last will and testament gave ample proof of his love for the church of his choice.

He was a man of deep piety, of gentle demeanor, and of winning qualities of character, sweetly singing, preaching, and confessing a full salvation from all sin through the blood of the Lamb. We rejoice that the gospel he preached, abundantly supported him in his dying hour.

THE SABBATH.

TEMPERANCE.

It is the sense of this Conference that the Church

Discipline forbids any of our church members to rent or to permit the use of any of their property for the purpose of manufacturing or selling spirituous or malt liquors, and that wherever and whenever any of our members are guilty of the above named offence they shall be dealt with as if they were actually engaged in selling intoxicating drinks; and in case they refuse to withdraw their property from such unrighteous purposes, they shall be excluded from the church.

It was decided that it is within the power of the quarterly conference to confirm or reject the amount of salary agreed upon by the stewards, provided such action is in harmony with a resolution of annual Conference adopted at Tamaqua in 1873.

The following was adopted: WHEREAS, According to our Church Discipline the gain of our book establishment, not needed for carrying on the business, shall be devoted to the support of indigent preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers ; and, WHEREAS, Ten thousand dollars of this money has been loaned to the Germany Conference for the purpose of erecting a publishing house in Germany ; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we regard the action of the board of publication in giving this loan as illegal, and that we, as a Conference, demand our share of the said ten thousand dollars for the use of our supernumeraries, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers.

BOUNDARIES.

The Conference was divided into five presiding elder districts. Landsdale was taken from Plymouth Mission and annexed to Montgomery Circuit. Tower City, Reiner City, and Salem were transferred from Williams Valley Circuit to Tremont Circuit, and Williamstown, Dayton, Wiconisco, and Lykens retained the of name Williamstown Circuit. The Conference appointed C. K. Fehr, J. O. Lehr, A. Kindt, J. K. Seyfrit, and B. D. Albright, a committee to investigate the affairs of the Scranton Mission. The Church Building Society was requested to loan to the congregation at Shenandoah the amount in the hands of the treasurer. The quarterly conference of Creswell Circuit received permission to sell the Washington church and to apply the proceeds to pay the debt on the Pittsburg church. The quarterly conference of Womelsdorf Circuit received permission to dispose of the Strausstown church and to apply the proceeds wherever most needed on the circuit. The church at Ackermanville being a union church without a deed or legal agreement, it was recommended that this church be sold by the sheriff so that whoever desires to purchase it can procure a sheriff's deed. There being a debt on the church at Summit Hill of $115.00, which must be paid by April 1st, 1878, the church was recommended to the favor of the members of Mahoning Circuit with the expectation that they pay the debt. Conference sanctioned the sale of the Leesport church to ten brethren, who promised to hold the property for five years, to be redeemed at no advance in price. The financial troubles of the Hamburg Mission church were referred to a committee of three, consisting of I. E. Knerr, Bishop Bowman, and the preacher in charge. The treasurer of the Missionary Society was instructed to pay the interest on the debt of the church at East Allentown, upon condition that the money be paid back out of the funds collected throughout the bounds of the Conference for the liquidation of the debt. The preacher in charge and the presiding elder are to be held responsible for the management of the finances of this church in the future. Plymouth church, Montgomery Circuit, received permission to collect money on Philadelphia district. It was decided that the parsonage at Millersville, Lancaster Co., Pa., is the property of Lancaster Circuit as it was constituted in April, 1864. The following named churches received permission to borrow money toward the payment of church debts: Albany, Schuylkill Circuit, $350.00; Tower City, $150.00; Blandon, $350.00; Dreherstown, $250.00; and Shamrock, $691.00.

It having come to the knowledge of the Conference that there is a property, suitable for a higher institution of learning, situated in Mt. Carmel, and that the same might be obtained gratis by our church for such purpose, a committee of five was appointed to inquire whether the above mentioned property can be procured for such purpose, and so as not to place the Conference under any monetary obligations; committee, C. S. Haman, I. E. Knerr, S. S. Chubb, J. C. Hornberger, and A. M. Stirk. This committee was empowered to organize and conduct a school, provided that it will not cost more than $1,000; that this amount be pledged by the members of Conference; and that one or more neighboring conferences will co-operate in word and deed so that a faculty of three efficient teachers can be employed. This committee, or a representative of the same, was instructed to lay the matter before the Central, Atlantic, and Pittsburg conferences. B. J. Smoyer, A. M. Stirk, and J. K. On motion of H. A. Neitz, the preachers in charge were instructed to report their annual conference statistics to the first quarterly conference of the year, and in case there is no regular church record on the charge, to record the statistics in the quarterly conference minutes. S. B. Brown having asked for a letter of dismissal, in order to join the Kansas Conference, and A. The pastors of stations and missions were instructed to devote at least one Sabbath to the missionary cause. To merely lift a basket collection was declared insufficient. The preachers on circuits were urged to organize a missionary auxiliary at each appointment. It was made the duty of the presiding officer of the Conference to inquire of each member, during the investigation, whether he has done his duty in reference to the benevolent collections.* The delegates were instructed to ask General Conference to so change our Church Discipline as to secure a more equitable distribution of the proceeds of the book establishment and of the Charitable Society. District ministerial and Sunday-school conventions were urgently recommended in the place of the annual Sunday-school convention, which was discontinued. The International Series of Lessons was commended to all the Sunday-schools of the Conference as a most efficient method of Bible study. The teachers and workers of our schools were requested to procure the Sunday-school literature of our church.

MEMORIALS.

The following memorial was erected to the memory of our departed brethren:

Father John Breidenstein was one of our oldest pioneer preachers. He was very eloquent, and possessed the happy gift of fascinating large congregations for hours during his discourses, so that it was a common occurrence that hundreds of souls were melted to tears, many of whom fell prostrate before the Lord, and cried for mercy and pardon.

Wm. Heim, an old veteran of the cross, was one of the pioneer preachers of the East Pennsylvania Conference. He bore hardships like a faithful soldier of our Lord, and preached the everlasting gospel in and out of season to the salvation of many precious souls.

S. P. Reinoehl passed through many severe bodily afflictions, and very reluctantly retired from active service. He was a man of brilliant intellectual qualities, of rich and useful attainments, a deep thinker, original in his discourses, and whose preaching was universally appreciated.

H. Kempfer was a devoted man of God, an effectual preacher, and a faithful worker. He served the church as a local and itinerant preacher for the space of twenty-six years, leading many souls to Christ.

J. Bertolet, a local preacher, labored with success and acceptability for many years. His godly life exerted a salutary influence on all with whom he came in contact.

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

The Conference took the usual high moral ground upon the questions of the Sabbath and temperance. It was resolved that no person addicted to the use of tobacco shall hereafter be received into the itinerancy.

The members of the Conference obligated themselves to solicit contributions for the orphan cause, and to report them in the annual statistics. Prof. A. E. Gobble, Principal of Union Seminary, addressed the Conference in the interests of that institution. On motion of A. M. Stirk the following was adopted: Resolved, That the Conference protests against the introduction into our churches or societies of all questionable measures, such as fairs, festivals, cake walks, bazaars, oyster suppers, etc. It was resolved that no member shall be reported expelled unless such expulsion has occurred in accordance with the Church Discipline; that no member shall be reported withdrawn unless he sever his connection with the church; and that those who move away, either with or without certificate, shall be reported as moved away.

Brother S. L. Wiest having been elected to the office of corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society, the Conference adopted resolutions congratulating the church upon this choice, wishing him the help of the Lord in his arduous work, and bidding him always welcome in our midst. W. Yost, Junior Book Agent, addressed the Conference. The presiding elders were instructed to see to it that each charge is supplied with a good church record. C. S. Haman, conference librarian, reported 65 volumes in the library.

Among the General Conference recommendations acted upon were the following: With reference to stewards reporting pastors' salary to Quarterly Conference: Affirmative, 83. To expunge the clause to license exhorters: Affirmative, 83. With reference to locating inefficient ministers: Affirmative, 83. To expunge the clause relating to probationary members: Affirmative, 82; negative, 1. Ex-officio members of General Conference: Affirmative, 81; negative, 2. To change the church name: Affirmative, 9; negative, 74. It was resolved that hereafter all ministers who claim support from the Conference shall be placed upon the list of superannuated preachers.

Quakertown was taken from Montgomery Circuit, Williams Township from Easton Mission, and Miller's class from Freemansburg, and annexed to Pleasant Valley Circuit. Vera Cruz was taken from Emaus and annexed to Milford Circuit. West Penn, Hunsicker's, and Centreville were taken from Mauch Chunk Circuit and annexed to Schuylkill Circuit. Lansford and Coaldale were taken from Mauch Chunk Circuit, and Barnesville and Locust Valley from Tamaqua Station, and formed into a new field called Barnesville Circuit. Mahoning Valley was taken from Mauch Chunk Circuit and annexed to Lehighon Mission. Reamstown was transferred from Adamstown to Brownstown Circuit. Lykens, Wiconisco, and Dayton were detached from Williamstown Circuit and called Lykens Circuit; Williamstown, Tower City, and Reiner City to remain as Williamstown Circuit. Herndon was transferred from Uniontown Circuit to Trevorton Circuit. Norristown Mission was made a station. Mauch Chunk, Mt. Carmel, Lansdale and Hatfield, and Emaus and Salisbury were taken up as missions.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The following congregations received permission to collect: Germantown, within the bounds of the Conference; Lykens, on Berrysburg and Tremont Circuits, for a debt of $290; Bethlehem, in Philadelphia District and in Allentown District south of the Blue Mountain, for a new church; Frackville, in Pottsville District, for a debt of $1,070; Reading Ebenezer, in Reading District, for a debt; Quakertown, on Pleasant Valley and Montgomery Circuits, for a new church. Permission to give mortgages on their churches was granted to the congregations at the following places: Germantown, Fredericksburg for $625, and Palmyra for $85.10. The financial affairs of the churches at Dauphin, Bernville, and Port Clinton were referred to their respective presiding elders and preachers in charge. The trustees of Seven Points church received permission to sell a part of their church lot, the proceeds to be applied toward liquidating their church debt. The trustees of Bethlehem church received permission to sell eight feet of their church lot on one side and to purchase additional ground on the other side. The former committee to manage the financial affairs of the church at Shenandoah City was continued. Salem church, in Porter Township, Schuylkill County, Pa., was ordered to be sold, the proceeds to be applied to the church at Tower City. WHEREAS, There is danger of losing our church property at Bath, Pa., because of a pressing debt; therefore be it Resolved, That if the members of Bath will obligate themselves to raise $1,250 on Bath Circuit, we, the East Pennsylvania Conference, will obligate ourselves to raise $1,250, this amount to be equally apportioned to the five presiding elder districts, the presiding elders of the districts to collect their apportionments during the conference year. The congregation of the Chestnut Street church at Reading received permission to sell their church property and to apply the proceeds to the erection of a new church. It was resolved that the deed of our church at Pine Grove be placed in the hands of the presiding elder of the district.

EDUCATION.

All moneys, books, etc., in the possession of Conference or placed into the hands of others as a loan, were transferred to the East Pennsylvania Conference Educational Society. Union Seminary, at New Berlin, Pa., and Northwestern College, at Naperville, Illinois, were recommended to the favorable consideration of all contemplating a scientific, classical, or theological course. On motion it was resolved that the committee to examine applicants for the itinerancy be made a permanent one, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the call to the ministry and moral character of such candidates; the other committees to examine into the literary qualifications of their respective classes. J. K. Seyfrit, W. K. Wieand, and G. W. Gross were elected examiners for five years.

MEMORIALS.

Resolved, That we erect to the memory of our departed brethren the following memorial: Rev. Samuel Ganmer served the church for 13 years as an itinerant, after which he sustained a local relation unto the end of his life. His gentlemanly and Christian demeanor towards all those with whom he came in contact is worthy of imitation.

Father G. T. Haines, a veteran of the cross, was born October 12, 1809. After his conversion, which occurred at the age of twenty, he felt and finally obeyed an inward call to the ministry. His active service covers a period of more than 42 years. During his late illness he left a clear testimony of his entrance into heaven. In his last hours he said several times: "When I die, I shall go from labor to reward."

THE SABBATH.

Should the sanctity of the Sabbath be displaced by a simple holiday of the European pattern, our surest stronghold against the assaults of socialistic and communistic influences will fall into the hands of those who are the enemies of the Christian family and Christian marriage. As Christian ministers and friends of the laborer, we appeal to those industrial classes, especially who are in the employ of powerful corporations, to use their utmost endeavor to counteract the despotism of consolidated capital, which, by offering extra compensation for Sabbath work, would bribe the workingmen into a surrender of this boon—a day of rest on the Christian Sabbath.

TEMPERANCE.

We commend the proposed Temperance Law to the members of our Church and others, and ask them to secure, by petition and all other honorable means, its enactment by the Legislature of our State.

The trustees of the Lancaster English Mission received permission to sell the Eden church, the proceeds to be applied to the liquidation of the debt on the mission church. Of the claim of Brother Alspach against the Scranton church, $400 were assumed by the Conference upon condition that if after a thorough investigation by a committee, consisting of C. K. Fehr and J. MEMORIALS.

Jacob Snyder served the church of his choice acceptably as a local preacher till the end of his pilgrimage.

He was a friend of the missionary cause, and a man of exemplary Christian character.

D. Berger was one of our pioneer preachers. God blessed him with a strong constitution, a fine intellect, a genial disposition, and varied and useful attainments, which, with a strict morality, practical judgment, and sound theological views qualified him to fill the most important fields of labor. He served long and faithfully as a traveling preacher and died in the triumphs of faith.

W. L. Reber was one of the early preachers of our Conference, having served important charges for twenty-two years. He was considered a good preacher, sound in his theological views, and an efficient disciplinarian.

Jonathan Kurtz was indeed a diligent and faithful laborer in the church, beloved by all who knew him, and a great help to the itinerant preachers. He died triumphantly.

TEMPERANCE.

The president and secretary of the Conference were instructed to petition the Legislature of Pennsylvania in behalf of this body to pass the "temperance law" and take the preliminary steps to submit to the people a constitutional amendment prohibiting the sale and manufacture of spirituous and malt liquors for other than medicinal, mechanical, and scientific purposes.

ings of the Conference for the Christliche Botschafter, and D. A. Medlar for the Evangelical Messenger. A. V. Hirst and A. Weaver, local preachers, withdrew from the church. The latter withdrew in 1880. Jacob Adams and Abraham Shultz died during the year. C. S. Haman and C. K. Fehr were re-elected to the office of Presiding Elder. J. R. Hensyl and N. A. Barr were ordained to the office of Elder; W. F. Heil, J. L. Guinther, J. C. Krause, H. M. Capp, and W. H. Rinek, to the office of Deacon. The following received license as preachers on trial: Charles D. Dreher, Thomas L. Wentz, J. R. Hashinger, H. M. Harris, Hirakawa Toyotsura, and Mikuma Uyeno. I. E. Zimmerman, elder, was received with credentials. W. L. Black took a local relation. J. Bowman, D. Yingst, and J. K. Knerr, took a supernumerary relation. S. B. Brown, of the Kansas Conference, was again received into this Conference upon condition that he present the proper credentials. The brethren D. W. Bieksler, W. H. Stauffer, F. G. Stauffer, and Hirakawa Toyotsura of Tokio, Japan, were received into the itinerancy. The conference claimants were: N. Gooble and wife, D. Wieand and wife, C. Gingrich and wife, H. Stoetzel, J. Gross and wife, J. M. Oplinger and wife, J. Savitz and wife, Sisters Schnerr, Hesser, Myers, Schell, Heim, Haines, Sister Rhoads and one child, Sister Kempfer and one child, and three children of J. J. High. The conference claimants were instructed to present their financial circumstances in figures to their respective presiding elders and preachers in charge, who shall submit these reports to the committee on finance and recommend what in their estimation such claimants ought to have. W. Yost, Book Agent, and Treasurer of the Orphans' Home, Prof. W. E. Walz, Principal of Schuylkill Valley Seminary, and Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, organizer of the State Prohibition movement, addressed the Conference. J. G. Sands was re-elected statistical secretary, and S. S. Chubb, conference treasurer.

S. C. Breyfogel, A. M. Stirk, J. Bowman, G. W. Gross, and A. Kindt were appointed to prepare resolutions on Speculative Life Insurance Companies and the Mormon question. The following is an abstract of their report: Resolved, That we consider all speculative (commonly known as death-bed and graveyard) insurance business, a species of gambling which has already carried great harm into the communities, and to the individuals engaged in it; that we consider it a traffic of chance in the lives of those insured, which has a strong tendency to obliterate all feelings of love and respect, thus rending the strongest and tenderest ties of humanity; and that we as a Church, and especially as ministers, will do all in our power to suppress it, considering it a moral offence to be dealt with according to our Discipline.

WHEREAS, The Latter Day Saints are fostering the degrading doctrine and practice of polygamy in order to gain civil strength and power; therefore be it Resolved, That we consider it an offence against humanity, the purity of our civil institutions, the welfare of the church and State, and that we hail with delight the growing sentiment of the people, and the advanced action taken by the Senate and House of Representatives of these United States, and would herewith, as a Conference, urge the speedy enactment of such laws as may be necessary to extirpate this corrupt doctrine and practice.

Father J. M. Saylor, the oldest traveling preacher in our church, having asked for a superannuated relation, his request was granted and the following adopted: Resolved, That we duly appreciate the past services which he has rendered to the church in the days when the itinerancy was connected with many sacrifices and privations, as well as during the later years of his ministry, and trust that the evening of a well spent life may be pleasant and full of joy in waiting for the coming of his Master.

H. Stoetzel, S. L. Wiest, W. Yost, F. Kreckler, and S. Neitz were appointed to prepare greetings to our brethren in Japan. They made a report of which the following is an abstract: This Conference having received a communication from Rev. Jacob Hartzler, the esteemed Superintendent of our Japan Mission, with papers from the class and quarterly conference of Tokio, recommending Hirakawa Toyotsura and Uyenno Mikuma as proper persons to preach the gospel, we gratefully acknowledge the hand of the infinitely loving God in according to us as a Conference the honor and privilege of licensing these brethren to proclaim the message of life to a people sunken in idolatry and heathenism. It seems to us but fitting that the oldest Conference, honored with the oldest missionary society in the church, and the first to send out missionaries to proclaim the everlasting gospel to the neglected of other states and countries, should also open her ministerial ranks to receive the first fruits of our first heathen mission. In the name of our common Master we greet these newly licensed brethren, and all our missionaries, with the whole church of Japan. We also highly appreciate the successful labors of our beloved Dr. F. Kreckler and family, and of sister Rachel Hudson, who has labored much for the Lord, and bid these Christian workers from our own ranks a hearty God speed.

On motion of S. C. Breyfogel the following question was inserted in the statistical blank of the Conference: "What is the entire amount of indebtedness on this field of labor?" It was resolved that itinerant preachers and their families shall be permitted to hold their membership where they see fit. On motion of D. A. Medlar it was resolved that we hold a Conference Pentecostal meeting sometime during the fall of the year, and that Bishop R. Dubs be requested to preside. The Bishop and the presiding elders were instructed to appoint the time and place.

BOUNDARIES.

Coplay, Stemton, Whitehall, Laury's, and vicinity were formed into Lehigh Valley Mission. Wesnersville Mission was transferred to Pottsville District, to be supplied by the preachers on Kutztown Circuit. Barnesville and Schuylkill circuits were united into one field.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

These congregations received permission to collect for church debts within certain prescribed limits as follows: Frackville, in Pottsville and Allentown districts; Mt. Carmel, in Pottsville District; Harrisburg, in Harrisburg District; White Haven, in Allentown District;

Eighth Str., Philadelphia, in such charges which the collector has not yet visited; Hellertown, in Allentown District and within the bounds of Pleasant Valley Circuit, for a new church. Bishop Bowman was authorized to collect within the bounds of the Conference for the Hamburg church. The preachers in charge of the congregations at Port Carbon and Cressona were urged to collect within their respective fields and to pay off the debts on those churches. The affairs of the churches at Port Clinton and Leesport were referred to their respective presiding elders and preachers in charge. The affairs at Bolich's church were referred to the presiding elders of the Conference, and the finances of the church at Coaldale, to the presiding elder, the preacher in charge, and the trustees of the congregation. The committee to audit the accounts of J. M. Rinker reported that the church debt at Shenandoah City had been reduced $363.80 during the past year, and that the remaining indebtedness was $2,405.54. The financial management of the past year was continued. The committee appointed to assess the traveling preachers, in order to reimburse John Alspach for the loss he sustained in the church at Scranton, reported that $400 had been paid to him. It was resolved that the resolutions of 1878, making the presiding elder of the district and the preacher in charge of East Allentown Mission responsible for the financial management of that congregation, be considered no longer in force. The Conference treasurer was instructed to refund $20.00 to B. D. Albright, the amount which he advanced to save the church at Summit Hill from the hands of the sheriff. I. E. Knerr, S. B. Brown, S. S. Chubb, J. N. Metzgar, J.

G. Mohn, Geo. Hendel, and Wm. Laubenstine were appointed a committee to take charge of the finances of the Southeast Mission at Reading. The five presiding elders were instructed to locate the South-East Reading Mission. J. O. Lehr, C. J. Warmkessel, and D. Z. Kembel were appointed to dispose of the old church property at Trevorton and to erect a new church in a more suitable locality. The Hepler church affair on Mahantongo Circuit was referred to the Bishop, the presiding elder, and the preacher in charge. C. K. Fehr, C. S. Haman, and I. E. Knerr were instructed to visit the members at Bernville, and if said members obligate themselves to raise the amount which, in the judgment of the committee they ought to raise, the preacher in charge shall have the privilege of collecting the balance in the Reading and Philadelphia districts. It was resolved that a certain amount of missionary money be appropriated to pay the interest on the church debt at Harrisburg. The congregation at Kulpville received permission to give a mortgage for $500.00 on their church property.

EDUCATION.

The long cherished desire for an educational institution in our Conference having at last been realized by the establishment of Schuylkill Valley Seminary at Reading, Pa., the Conference gratefully acknowledged the goodness of God in making us to abound in this grace. The Conference also commended the work of the Educational Committee in securing a gifted and efficient faculty for the seminary, and their economic and highly satisfactory administration of the finances of the school. It was agreed that an earnest effort be made to raise at least five cents per member for educational purposes this year. Conference authorized the trustees of the seminary to elect their treasurer. The name of the institution was changed to Schuylkill Seminary and the charter presented by the trustees was adopted by a rising vote. It was resolved that if the trustees of Schuylkill Seminary should find that verbal changes may become necessary in the charter adopted by this Conference, or that changes may be necessary by legal enactments of the State, these changes shall be considered as binding as if adopted by the Conference.

The following were appointed trustees: Revs. Thos. Bowman, I. E. Knerr, J. C. Hornberger, S. S. Chubb, A. M. Stirk, W. K. Wieand, S. C. Breyfogel, and Bros. J. G. Mohn, F. G. Boas, D. Gensemer, and J. A. Medlar.

The last Sunday of June in each year was set apart as our Annual Sunday-school Day. C. S. Haman, C. K. Fehr, and D. A. Medlar were appointed examiners for five years.

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

The Conference reasserted the principles of temperance maintained and observed by our church from the beginning, and recognized in suitable words the loyalty of our ministers and laymen to the principles of total abstinence. "The Temperance Lesson Book," by Dr. Richardson, was recommended to the faculty of Schuylkill Seminary to be used as a text book in the school. Former resolutions on the Sabbath were reaffirmed.

MEMORIALS.

Jacob Adams was born at Adamstown, Lancaster

Co., Pa., July 9th, 1815. He was a fine theologian, a faithful worker, and an earnest advocate of the abolition of slavery, rum, and tobacco. He was fearless and outspoken on all public questions, yet kind-hearted and sympathetic. His sun set in peace and splendor.

Abraham Shultz was born on the 5th day of January, 1810, in Milford, Bucks Co., Pa. Brother Shultz was a profound theologian and at times preached with great power and unction. His last work on earth was to pray with a family. When but a few rods from the house the summons suddenly came and the spirit took its flight to fairer climes.

Hartman withdrew from the church. Galen W. Hoover resigned his office as local preacher and returned his license. F. G. Stauffer received credentials to unite with the Ohio Conference. D. W. The presiding elders were instructed to report all investigations of preachers held in their respective districts. The Conference resolved that hereafter all applicants for the itinerancy shall be received by ballot only, and in private session. W. Yost, Junior Publishing Agent, and Treasurer of the Orphans' Home, addressed the Conference. Prof. W. E. Walz, Principal of Schuylkill Seminary, delivered an address after which the Conference expressed its appreciation of the abilities which he had consecrated to that institution and congratulated the board of missions upon having secured his services as a missionary of the church to Japan. The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: C. K. Fehr, C. S. Haman, J. C. Hornberger, J. O. Lehr, I. E. Knerr, S. Neitz, B. J. Smoyer, and S. S. Chubb; alternates, A. M. It was resolved that hereafter basket collections only shall be lifted at our annual Conference missionary meetings. Two additional questions were inserted into the annual statistical blank: "What is the amount contributed on this field of labor toward the support of its preacher or preachers?" and "What is the amount contributed on this field of labor toward the support of the presiding elder?"

BOUNDARIES.

Norristown was changed to a mission. Quakertown was detached from Pleasant Valley Circuit and with the surrounding country constituted a mission. Williams Township was taken from Pleasant Valley Circuit, South Easton Class from Easton, and the two formed into a mission. Miller's class was transferred from Pleasant Valley Circuit to Fremansburg Station. White Haven was detached from Wilkesbarre and with the surrounding country called White Haven Mission. Howertown was taken from Berlinsville Circuit and an-nexed to Lehigh Valley Mission. Trevorton was changed to a mission. Hamburg and Shoemakersville were taken from Kutztown Circuit and annexed to Westersville Mission. Barnesville was attached to Tamaqua, and Locust Valley to Mahanoy City. Orwigsburg was constituted a mission. Tower City and Reiner City were detached from Tremont and annexed to Lykens Circuit. Coaldale and Lansford were transferred from Schuylkill Circuit to Port Carbon.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The trustees of the Miller's and Roxburg churches, Bath Circuit, received permission to appropriate the money realized from the sale of the parsonage of Northampton Circuit to erect a new church at Miller's, and to repair the church at Roxburg. W. C. Weiss having saved our church at Coaldale from financial disaster, the Conference gratefully acknowledged his services and accepted his kind offer to secure, if possible, the remaining debt of $210. These congregations received permission to collect, as follows: Port Clinton, on Schuylkill and Kutztown circuits; Frackville, in the uncanvassed portions of Pottsville and Allentown districts; Myerstown, in Harrisburg District, for a church debt of $1,000.00; Manheim, in Reading District, for a new church; and Leesport, in Philadelphia District, for a debt of $985.25, provided the presiding elder and the preacher in charge find that the members at Leesport, Berne, and Centreport will obligate themselves to raise a just portion of the amount. The congregation at Wilkesbarre received permission to give a mortgage of $1,000 on a house and lot about to be purchased for a parsonage. The Conference recommended a continuation of last year's committee and of the same financial arrangement at Shenandoah City. Inasmuch as the congregation at Manheim proposed to build a Seybert Memorial Church, the Conference, on motion of I. E. Knerr, resolved to encourage this praiseworthy project by word and deed, and granted them permission to sell their old church property and to apply the proceeds towards the new church. The Conference extended an invitation to all the friends of the sainted Bishop Seybert, throughout the church, to participate in the erection of this memorial. In view of the fact that the church at Shamokin was burdened with a debt of $650, and in need of repairs, the congregation was exempted from outside collectors. The urgent financial needs of the new church at Trevorton were recommended to the favorable consideration of the Church Building Society, and the trustees were instructed to give a first mortgage to D. Z. Kembel, Jos. Kline, Wm. Knapp, and C. J. Warmkessel as security for money advanced by these brethren. It was resolved that hereafter such committees to whom the erection of church edifices is entrusted, shall be duly instructed as to the manner of building and the amount of money to be invested. The auditing committee reported that they had found the accounts of S. C. Breyfogel, collector for the Philadelphia Eighth Street church, correct, and that the entire debt of ten thousand dollars was paid.

EDUCATION.

The presiding elders were instructed to preach a sermon on the subject of education at each appointment, and to collect an amount equal to at least $10 for every charge on their respective districts for educational purposes. The Conference expressed its approbation of the prudent and economical administration of the finances of Schuylkill Seminary, the success of the trustees, and the efficiency of the faculty. It was mutually agreed that at least five cents per member be raised on the various charges for the support of the seminary.

WHEREAS, The citizens of Millersburg, Pa., and Fredericksburg, Pa., have submitted liberal financial offers and urgent invitations for the location of the seminary in their midst; therefore be it

Resolved, That we highly appreciate these generous offers, and that the trustees of Schuylkill Seminary are hereby directed to visit the several proposed localities and such others as may be brought to their notice, during the year, to determine the advantages and disadvantages thereof, and report to the Conference at its next session. The following were elected trustees of the seminary: Revs. I. E. Knerr, T. Bowman, and C. S. Haman, and Messrs. J. G. Mohu and H. G. Moyer for three years; Revs. J. C. Hornberger and S. S. Chubb, and Mr. J. R. Carl for two years; Revs. A. M. Stirk and S. C. Breyfogel, and Mr. P. Kellmer for one year. C. S. Haman, J. O. Lehr, and W. K. Wieand were appointed a visiting committee to attend the commencement exercises of Schuylkill Seminary. B. J. Smoyer, A. M. Stirk, and J. K. Kuerr were elected examiners of junior preachers for five years. The necessary average grade in the examination of applicants for license was reduced from 60 to 50.

MEMORIALS.

Moses Dissinger, late of the Kansas Conference, was an itinerant preacher of this Conference for many years. He was an extraordinary man, possessing more than ordinary physical energy and a peculiar intellectual originality which made him a powerful preacher. His memory is held dear.

J. M. Oplinger was converted to God and united with the Evangelical Association at an early age. He was an earnest worker in God's vineyard, a man of holy boldness, and of unshaken firmness.

Jeremiah Rhoads, a local preacher, was a faithful son of the gospel, and an old and valiant champion of the cross.

W. W. Hambright, a son of Father Davis Hambright, was a useful local preacher of the Conference. He was taken away in the prime of his life and usefulness.

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That we give our united and unqualified support to the civil authorities in their laudable efforts to suppress all violations of the Sabbath laws, and that we unanimously disapprove of all trafficking at campmeetings on Sunday.

Resolved, That we will continue to sow the seeds of total abstinence in our Sunday-schools and families by the circulation of healthful temperance literature.

The delegates of the General Conference assembled in the Linden Street Evangelical church, Allentown, Pa., Oct. 4th, 1883.* Eighty-seven delegates, representing twenty-two annual conferences, and nine ex-officio delegates were in attendance. A. M. Stirk, alternate, took the seat of S. Neitz, a delegate of the East Pa. Conference, who was absent on account of sickness. S. C. Breyfogel and B. F. Bohner, alternate delegates of the East Pa. Conference, served temporarily and at different times as alternates for S. S. Chubb. The chairman announced the recent decease of J. G. Zinser, and Bishop Bowman read a telegram announcing the death of J. M. Sindlinger.

Father H. Stoetzel was invited to deliver an address on the origin of the Evangelical Association, inasmuch as the General Conference was holding its daily sessions near the birthplace and in the very cradle of the church. This address was of the highest interest. The women of our church having presented a petition, asking permission to organize a Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical Association, the General Conference granted the petition upon certain prescribed conditions. The Conference recommended the publication of a monthly missionary paper in pamphlet form. Harrisburg, Pa., was transferred from the Atlantic Conference to the East Pa. Conference. The presiding bishop and the presiding elder of Harrisburg District were instructed to supply North Mission, Harrisburg,

W. Yost, Junior Publisher, and J. F. Crowell, Principal of Schuylkill Seminary, addressed the Conference. The brethren pledged their continued prayers and support to the publishing interests of the church. On motion of G. W. Gross the members of Conference, and our people in general, were cautioned to be careful in their recognition of strangers as evangelists. The Conference expressed profound sympathy with brother S. Neitz, who had been severely stricken in health during the past year.

BOUNDARIES.

Miller's class was taken from Freemansburg and annexed to Pleasant Valley Circuit. Schnecksville was transferred from Lehigh Circuit to Lehigh Valley Mission. Millersville, New Danville, and vicinity were organized into Millersville Mission. Mt. Joy, Reich's class, and Milton Grove were taken from Millersville Circuit and called Mt. Joy Mission. The name of Fairville Station was changed to Terre Hill. Coaldale and Lansford were detached from Port Carbon and constituted a mission. Ringtown was taken from Shenandoah Station and called Ringtown Station. The church affairs at Harrisburg were referred to a committee, consisting of the presiding elder of the district, the preacher in charge of Harrisburg Mission, C. K. Fehr, and one member of each of the congregations at Harrisburg. The trustees of both churches were authorized, if so decided by this committee, to sell either or both church properties and to apply the proceeds of such sale to the erection of a new church. Annville and Dauphin circuits were constituted missions.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The trustees of the church at Shenandoah received permission to give a mortgage of $350.00 in place of two old mortgages of $500.00. During the past year the debt upon this church was reduced $821.00, leaving an indebtedness of $1,768.00. The church at Leesport being burdened with a debt of between five and six hundred dollars, the Church Building Society was advised to grant a loan of $300.00 at the end of the year, provided the congregation raise the balance of the entire claim.

These congregations received permission to collect money within certain prescribed limits, as follows: Pen Argyl, in Philadelphia and Allentown districts for a new church; South Easton, in Philadelphia District for a new church; Manheim, Seybert Memorial, in Reading District; Lancaster English Mission, $600 in Reading District toward liquidating a debt of $1,600; Myers-town, in Harrisburg District; Hamburg, throughout the bounds of the Conference. The trustees of Easton Mission were authorized to give an additional mortgage for $300, thus increasing their debt to $2,300. The church at Irish Valley, Trevorton Circuit, being in a very dilapidated condition and without trustees or members, the preacher in charge of the circuit was instructed to have trustees elected from the Trevorton class, who shall be empowered to dispose of the church building and to apply the proceeds to the improvement of the cemetery connected with the same. The trustees at Ashland were authorized to sell their church property and to apply the proceeds to the erection of a new church in a more suitable locality. The General Conference having ordered that a collection be taken in all our churches for the erection and completion of a Seybert Memorial Church at Manheim, Pa., the brethren were urgently requested to act at once and to forward their collections.

On motion of J. C. Hornberger, the following was adopted: WHEREAS, The Church Building Society of this Conference has loaned the Philadelphia 8th St. Mission $3,000; AND WHEREAS, Said loan was accepted by the trustees of the congregation in lieu of the same amount which had been promised them by the East Pennsylvania Conference; AND WHEREAS, It would in our opinion be prejudicial to our interests as a Conference and injurious to the above charge to insist upon the payment of said amount; therefore, be it Resolved, That the East Pennsylvania Conference assume said debt, and that the debt to the Church Building Fund be paid by such annual appropriations from the Missionary Treasury as the Conference may feel able to make until the whole is cancelled.

The quarterly conference of Germantown Station unanimously petitioned the annual conference to order English preaching one Sunday morning of each month; the appeal was granted.

EDUCATION.

Col. J. H. Lick, of Fredericksburg, Lebanon Co., having made a liberal offer to the trustees of Schuylkill Seminary upon the conditions that the institution be transferred to Fredericksburg and that the seminary be developed into a college as soon as possible, the board of trustees presented the following which was adopted: WHEREAS, It is necessary to raise $7,000 in order to meet the offer of Col. J. H. Lick for the erection of suitable college buildings and the appropriate furnishing of the same, and an additional $1,500 in order to defray the current school expenses of the year; therefore, be it Resolved, 1st, That we expect the citizens of Fredericksburg to furnish $2,000 of this amount. 2d, That we most cordially urge the ministers of the East Pa. Conference to raise the sum of $2,000 as their personal contributions. 3d, That the balance be secured by an apportionment made upon the different fields of labor, the presiding elders and the preachers in charge to be held jointly responsible for the amount; the apportionments and subscriptions to be paid in one year in four installments. The preachers subscribed $2,225.00. The board of trustees were instructed to secure the services of a good architect and to appoint a building committee. The Conference gave expression in suitable words to its appreciation of Col. J. H. Lick's generous proposal. The last Sunday in September was appointed as Seminary Day. S. C. Breyfogel and S. B. Brown were appointed to visit the Atlantic Conference and enlist their co-operation in the interests of Schuylkill Seminary. A. M. Stirk, S. C. Breyfogel, and P. Kellmer were re-elected trustees of the seminary for three years. C. K. Fehr, J. O. Lehr, and W. K. Wieand were re-appointed a visiting committee to attend the closing exercises.

It was resolved that the examinations of junior preachers of the first and third years may be held orally at the option of the examiners. S. C. Breyfogel, I. E. Knerr, and J. C. Hornberger were re-appointed examiners. J. G. Mohn, Treasurer of Schuylkill Seminary, reported that the receipts of that institution during the year were $2,817.82, and the expenditures, $1,938.30.

MEMORIALS.

Dr. Frederick Kreckler, Jr., was converted to God at the early age of eight years. Thirteen years of his life were devoted to the practice of medicine, during which time he was an active and successful worker in the church and Sunday-school. In 1876 he was licensed to preach the gospel and was appointed by the board of missions as a missionary to Japan, arriving in that country in the month of October of the same year. He and his companion devoted themselves to their calling with true heroism and labored in the Spirit of the Lord with good success. Joseph Gross was converted in the year 1837 and united with our church as soon as it had gained a foothold in the city of Allentown. He was licensed to preach in 1841. Brother Gross was the author of several books.

James B. Cole, a faithful local preacher, an earnest Sunday-school worker, and a strong advocate of temperance, died in peace at Allentown. Samuel Miesse was converted in early life and labored as an itinerant preacher for a number of years. His last words were "Jesus, bless my soul."

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

The Conference resolved to make more determined efforts to maintain the sanctity of the Sabbath and to give united and unqualified support to all civil authorities in their laudable efforts to suppress every violation of the Sabbath laws.

Temperance campmeetings and the distribution of temperance literature were commended as efficient means to educate the people on this subject. Constitutional prohibition for the state and nation were re-affirmed.

Shultz it was resolved that the brethren appointed by the Conference to collect for churches shall be required to present to the auditing committee all books and papers used in the canvass. The following was adopted: It is our opinion that no meetings of any kind, except the usual regular divine services, shall be held in any of our churches, except by consent of the presiding elder, the preacher in charge, and the trustees.

Some of our unordained preachers having of late taken upon themselves the right to perform marriage ceremonies and administer the sacrament of holy baptism, the Conference declared such actions a violation of the spirit of our church Discipline.

A letter addressed to the Conference from Bishop J. J. Esher and dated Tokio, Japan, January 24th, 1885, was read. In this communication the Bishop refers to the ordination of Hirakawa Toyotsura, missionary at Hinoyeki, Japan, and a member of this Conference, to the office of deacon. This was the first ordination by our church in heathen lands and of a convert from heathendom.

BOUNDARIES.

A mission was located in the State of Florida. Freemansburg, Reddington, and vicinity, were taken up as a mission. Hellertown Mission was connected with Pleasant Valley Circuit. Turkey Hill and Mt. Zion were taken from Terre Hill and with Bowmansville, Red Run, and Denver, were constituted a mission. Reiner City and Tower City were taken from Lykens Circuit and constituted a mission. Lykens, Wiconisco, and Dayton were called Wiconisco Mission. Fredericksburg, Union, and Lickdale were taken from Mount Nebo Circuit and called Fredericksburg Mission. Port Carbon was changed into a mission. It was resolved that Ashland Mission and Ringtown Station be served together. The East Reading Chapel was placed under the charge of the Reading Eighth Str. Station. Lancaster Water Str. Station and Port Carbon were changed into missions.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Lancaster English Mission received permission to collect in Reading District, with the exception of the city of Reading, for a church debt; Coplay class, in Allentown District, for a new church; the Kutztown congregation, in Pottsville District south of the Blue Mountain, in the city of Reading, and on Fleetwood Circuit, for the erection of a new church edifice; the South Easton congregation, in Allentown District, for a debt of $1,931.50; Kulpsville class, in Philadelphia District, for a debt of $868.45; the congregation at Pen Argyl, in Philadelphia District, for a new church. The last named congregation was instructed not to finish the second story of the church until they are able to pay for it. The congregation at Ringtown was instructed to accept the offer of Enoch Manbeck to cancel his claim of $569.60 against that church in exchange for 1½ acres of ground for which the congregation paid $85 per acre. The practicability of erecting a church at Harrisburg was referred to the presiding elder, the preacher in charge, J. N. Metzgar, and two lay members of the society, to be selected by the presiding elder, who shall constitute a building committee. This committee was instructed to proceed to build, provided the present indebtedness of two thousand dollars shall not be increased more than one thousand dollars additional. Permission was granted to the trustees of the Shamrock church to give a mortgage of $525 on their church property. The financial difficulties of our church at Leesport were referred to the presiding elder and preacher in charge. The requests of the churches at Hellertown and Frackville were referred to the Church Building Society for favorable consideration. E. J. Miller, collector, reported that during the past year $960.46 had been secured and paid on the church debt at Myerstown, leaving a deficit of $257.80. H. D. Shultz, financial agent at Shenandoah, reported that $825.13 had been expended for repairs and $364.43 towards the liquidation of the debt, leaving an indebtedness of $1,403.57. The following is a summary of the accounts of the Seybert Memorial Church: The cost of lot and building was $10,079.34; cash received at home and throughout the Conference, $5,526.89; from collections ordered by the General Conference, $862.06; for old church property, $942.80; material sold, $84.43; total cash receipts, $7,416.18; present indebtedness, $2,663.16; amount unsecured, $203.79.

EDUCATION.

The report of Thos. S. Stein, Acting Principal of Schuylkill Seminary, was characterised as able, practical, and encouraging in its tone. Fifteen hundred dollars were apportioned among the presiding elder districts to defray the current expenses for the ensuing year, the presiding elders and preachers in charge to be held jointly responsible for the amount. The Conference instructed the trustees to secure the amount necessary for the contingent expenses of the college building. B. J. Smoyer, J. D. Woodring, and D. A. Medlar were appointed a visiting committee to attend the closing exercises of the seminary.

S. C. Breyfogel, one of the delegates appointed by this Conference to visit the Atlantic Conference in the interests of Schuylkill Seminary, reported (owing to sickness, his colleague, S. B. Brown, was not able to go,) that the conference thus visited indicated, both by resolution and by public individual expression, a deep interest in the projected college; that they appointed a committee to attend the commencement exercises of the school; and that in the opinion of the delegates, a further continuance of such fraternal relations upon the subject, would be of vital importance to our educational interests.

I. E. Knerr was appointed to represent the interests of the seminary at the next session of the Atlantic Conference. J. C. Hornberger, S. S. Chubb, and J. R. Carl were elected trustees of the seminary for three years. The committee on education was instructed hereafter to nominate the examiners for applicants for license, and that the examiners for the itinerancy are to serve three years, one to be appointed each year by the same committee. J. K. Seyfrit, B. F. Bohner, and J. G. Sands were appointed examiners of applicants for the itinerancy; and W. K. Wicand, G. W. Gross, and J. D. Woodring to examine junior preachers for five years.

The preachers were again urged to organize catechetical classes wherever practicable. To expedite the carrying out of this resolution, it was suggested that where the people are not friendly to such a course, a decided position on the part of the pastor, tempered with prudence, patience, and perseverance, will soon overbear all such objections.

J. G. Mohn, treasurer of Schuylkill Seminary, reported that the receipts of that institution during the past Conference year were $3,224.59, including the Conference apportionment; the expenditures, $2,240.70. The trustees of the seminary through their secretary reported the following, which was referred to the presiding elders: "Resolved, That it is the opinion of the trustees of the seminary, that the East Pennsylvania Conference should at this session locate a mission at Fredericksburg, with the understanding that the missionary appointed there, shall be a member of the building committee."

MEMORIALS.

Davis Hambright was born in Lancaster County, Pa., January 3, 1810. He was converted early in life, when the work of the Lord was despised, and God's people treated with contempt in the place of his nativity. Soon after his conversion he experienced a call to the ministry, to which he faithfully responded. His spirit of self-denial was great, being willing to go wherever sent, and work for the salvation of souls. By his great zeal and fiery pulpit efforts, he laid the ground work of religion in the hearts of many who call him their spiritual father.

Seneca Breyfogel was born in Berks County, Pa., February 18, 1823. As a preacher Brother Breyfogel was original, clear, and eminently Scriptural, his sermons manifesting a deep and constant study of God's Word. He was an earnest defender of the doctrine of Christian Perfection, as taught by the Evangelical Association, and his life was in beautiful accord with the doctrine he so fearlessly preached, and so humbly professed. He was especially successful as a revivalist, the last year of his ministry, having been conspicuously blessed with a gracious revival of religion. His influence as a preacher and pastor is felt to-day on every charge where he labored. Many pious men and women thank God for his life, and for his private and public ministrations. Under his superintendence, four new churches were built and debts liquidated on a number of others.

Aaron H. Overholt was born in Berks County, Pa., September 25, 1834. He was converted in 1860. He was licensed to preach in 1864, and served as an itinerant for a number of years. From the time of his location up to the time of his death, he held creditably his relation to his Conference as local elder. Brother Overholt was a man of good judgment and wise counsel, and an earnest and faithful worker in the church and Sabbath-school. He died in great peace. A memorial service was held in which addresses were delivered by F. Kreckler, Bishop T. Bowman, and C. K. Fehr.

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

In addition to a reassertion of former declarations on Sabbath observance, it was resolved that we are most unqualifiedly opposed to Sunday newspapers and that we will use our influence against them by word and deed.

It was resolved that we are in favor of Constitutional Prohibition and that we consider it a violation of our discipline for any of our members either to sign applications for liquor license or to rent their properties for the sale of liquors.

Hoffman, who for the past sixty years has uninterruptedly served in the active itinerant work of this Conference, serving during this long term of years as circuit, station, and mission preacher, as well as for quite a number of years in the office of presiding elder, to the edification of the church and the glory of Christ; AND WHEREAS, On account of his age he has signified his willingness to accept a superannuated relation if the Conference sees fit; therefore Resolved, That Brother Hoffman be placed in a superannuated relation, and that he be allowed to travel and preach within the bounds of this Conference as he may see fit.

On motion of A. M. Stirk it was resolved that recommendations for license shall be valid only until the next annual session of the Conference. H. R. Yost having been severely afflicted during the year, and

On motion of B. F. Bohner the Conference advised that class leaders and exhorters be elected by ballot.

On motion of D. Z. Kembel, it was resolved that it is the sense of this Conference, that a general effort should be made throughout our entire church to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a suitable monument to the memory of our sainted founder, Jacob Albright, whose remains lie at rest within the bounds of this Conference, and that we kindly request our worthy bishops to lay this matter before our conferences, both at home and in foreign lands, for their earnest consideration and action.

heartily welcome and highly appreciate her faithfulness and devotion to the cause of God and the church, and thank God for the success that has attended her labors as well as the labors of all our missionaries in Japan, and that we continue to pray that He may bless her and her children, and prepare and sanctify them for still greater usefulness in the missionary work of our beloved church.

F. E. Erdman was elected statistical secretary and S. S. Chubb was re-elected treasurer of the Conference. S. Heininger, Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society, and W. Yost, Junior Publisher, addressed the Conference, after which the customary resolutions of devotion to the publishing interests and missionary cause of the church were adopted. Thomas S. It was resolved that hereafter no donations be made to any preacher in active work unless he assume a superannuated relation.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Permission was given to the members of Birdsboro Circuit to remove the Hay Creek chapel to the California appointment, the latter class agreeing to pay $225 for the property. The church at Lititz having been injured by a storm, the request of the congregation to collect in Reading District was referred to the presiding elder and the preacher in charge. The Conference appointed a committee to superintend the erection of a church at Denver, and the Church Building

Society was requested to grant a loan of $500.00 to the congregation at Bowmansville. The site of the North street property was recommended for the location of our new church at Harrisburg, the Conference instructing the building committee to borrow the money required to complete the building. The advisability of building a church at Coplay was referred to a committee. During the past year the sum of $691.38 was paid on the church debt at Sheuandoah City, reducing the entire indebtedness to $766.15. The advisability of erecting a church at Elizabethville, Berrysburg Circuit, was referred to the presiding elder and the preacher in charge. The congregation at Ashland was urged to secure a suitable lot and to build a new church as soon as practicable. An appeal from Lansford asking aid toward the erection of a church was referred to the presiding elder and preacher in charge. These congregations received permission to collect within certain prescribed limits as follows: Denver and Bowmansville, in Reading District; Harrisburg, in Lebanon and Millersburg Districts; Coplay, in Philadelphia District, and at Bath and Bangor, in Allentown District; Kulpsville, at Norristown, Germantown, Plymouth, Lansdale, and on Pleasant Valley and Bath circuits; Pen Argyl, in Pottsville District. The auditing committee reported the following accounts for the past year: 1st, The cash receipts for the South Easton church debt, W. H. Stauffer collector, amounted to $1,006.85, leaving an indebtedness of $1,040.72. 2d, The amount of cash received by D. Lentz, collector for a new church at Coplay, aggregated to $357.61, of which $219.56 was expended. 3d, J. S. Newhart, collector for Kulpsville, received $224.30, leaving an indebtedness of $704.00. 4th, L. N. Worman, collector for Lancaster English Mission, received $1,780.67 in cash, a sufficient amount to liquidate the entire indebtedness. 5th, The entire amount expended for the Pen Argyl church, R. Deisher collector, was $4,723.95; cash received $1,555.75, leaving an entire indebtedness of $3,168.20.

EDUCATION.

WHEREAS, Our Schuylkill Seminary is in a flourishing condition and the new buildings at Fredericksburg, Pa., are rapidly nearing completion, AND WHEREAS, The entire expenditures necessary to the satisfactory completion and equipment of these buildings are $40,000, and $7,000 of this amount is unprovided for, and it is desirable to adopt a plan promising the gradual removal of this deficiency; therefore be it Resolved, That the last Sunday of June, recognized as Children's Day by order of General Conference, be devoted to the raising of funds for the liquidation of the indebtedness incurred in the completion of the seminary buildings. S. S. Chubb, C. S. Haman, S. C. Breyfogel, W. K. Wieand, and J. H. Shirey were appointed to arrange a programme and to cultivate a seminary sentiment in our Sunday-schools. The Conference resolved to raise $1,500 for the current expenses of the seminary, the presiding elders and preachers in charge to be held jointly responsible for the amount. Revs. Bishop T. Bowman, I. E. Knerr, and C. S. Haman, and Messrs. J. G. Mohn and H. G. Moyer were elected trustees of the seminary for three years. U. H. Hershey, J. H. Shirey, and A. M. Sampsel were appointed a visiting committee to attend the closing exercises of the school.

The trustees of the institution were authorized to meet the deficiency incurred in completing the seminary buildings. J. G. Mohn, the treasurer, reported a cash balance in treasury of $1,121.35. S. B. Brown, J. K. Seyfrit, and B. F. Bohner were appointed to examine applicants for the itinerancy, and G. C. Knobel, W. C. Kantner, and W. A. Leopold to examine junior preachers for five years.

MEMORIALS.

Solomon Neitz, a veteran of the cross, was born in 1821, and born again at the age of fourteen. In 1840 he was licensed to preach the gospel. For a number of years he served as presiding elder in the Conference. In 1860 the board of publication selected him to the honorable task of writing the biography of Bishop John Seybert, which he accomplished in the year 1861.

Brother Neitz was a wise counselor and a good organizer, exerting a great influence in his Conference. For a number of years he was the Conference delegate to the board of missions, by which board he was sent to Germany in 1863. He was a member of the first board of publication and of a number since. He was also a member of the General Conference since 1856. Brother Neitz was a great theologian. By eminent divines he was pronounced to be one of the greatest German pulpit orators in this country. Frequently he preached the Word with great power, and in such demonstration of the Holy Ghost that the whole audience was moved to tears and shouts of praise to God. He swayed his congregations to and fro like forest trees under the force of a mighty tempest. His work is done, but we all miss him greatly. He died in perfect peace May 11th, 1885.

Henry C. Major was born in 1810. As far as is known, he was converted when a young man, and labored as an itinerant in our church for several years and then located, and held a local relation to the end of his life. He was a good and effectual preacher.

George Miller was born in 1802, in Germany. He was converted to God when a young man and joined our church. He was a good, practical preacher. Brother Miller bequeathed $200 to the missionary work of the Evangelical Association.

At a memorial service addresses were delivered by C. K. Fehr, F. Krecker, C. S. Haman, and Bishop Thomas Bowman.

TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That we, the ministers of the East Pennsylvania Conference, do hereby pledge our honor to each other to manfully withstand the efforts of the Liquor Dealers' Protective Association, and that we will do all in our power to sustain existing temperance legislation and aim at nothing short of entire and total prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, until we have total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the state and nation.

The last Thursday in February, 1888, was appointed for the opening of the next annual session, the examinations of applicants and junior preachers to begin on the Tuesday evening previous. The following were elected delegates to the General Conference: A. M. Stirk, B. J. Smoyer, C. S. Haman, S. S. Chubb, S. C. Breyfogel, D. A. Medlar, J. C. Hornberger, R. M. Lichtenwalner, and J. K. Seyfrit; alternates, C. K. Fehr, J. D. Woodring, and W. F. Heil. It was decided that the delegates to the General Conference pay their own traveling expenses. Permission was granted to J. L. Guinther, our missionary in Florida, to pay his traveling expenses out of collections taken for the liquidation of church debts, during his proposed trip through the Conference in the months of July and August of the current year. W. Yost, Junior Publisher, addressed the Conference.

On motion of A. M. Stirk the following resolution having reference to this volume, "LANDMARKS OF THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION," was adopted: WHEREAS, S. C. Breyfogel has prepared a manuscript containing the transactions of this Conference from its origin to the present session, and asks Conference to grant him permission to publish it. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we grant the required permission, and encourage the publication of the contemplated work in consideration of its value to preachers and people as a book of reference.

▲ On motion of A. M. Sampsel it was Resolved, 1st, That the presiding elders of this Conference shall constitute a committee on church building, and that all projects for building new churches or parsonages, or remodeling old ones, where any indebtedness will be incurred, shall be submitted to this committee for its approval. 2d, That any congregation, which by building or otherwise, incurs debts without the approval of this committee, shall not be privileged to collect outside of the bounds of the charge to which it belongs.

The following was adopted: WHEREAS, W. A. Leopold, a member of our Conference, contemplates and is now engaged in writing a work to be entitled, "Our Crowned Defenders," containing a series of biographical sketches of the deceased members of our Conference from the origin of the same, with a brief sketch and pen portraits of the personnel of the present East Pennsylvania Conference; therefore, Resolved, That we as a Conference will do all in our power to aid and assist Brother Leopold in his work of preparation, and barring all intrusion in this line from other quarters, we will lend our influence and encouragement to circulate the same whenever published. R. M. Lichtenwalner, treasurer of the Missionary Society, was authorized to borrow the money necessary to meet the claims of the missionaries during the year. In behalf of the stationing committee C. K. Fehr presented the following resolution; which was unanimously adopted: In view of the long, self-sacrificing, as well as acceptable services Father F. Kreckler has rendered in the active ministry—this being his year of jubilee—in the East Penna. Conference of the Evangelical Association, and in view of his advanced age, your committee is of the opinion, with which Father Kreckler is in cordial agreement, that he take no particular field of labor this year, but be retained in the itinerancy without an appointment, and be allowed to labor and preach wherever he desires.

BOUNDARIES.

Lansdale and Montgomery Circuit was formed of Lansdale, Hatfield, Hilltown, Kulpville, Worcester, and Perkiomen. Bridgetown, Perkasio, and Quakertown were organized into Quakertown Mission. Coplay, Howertown, and vicinity were formed into Coplay Mission. Reading Ninth Street Mission was changed into a station. A new mission was established in Reading. Rothville and Millway were transferred from Brownstown Circuit to Lititz Mission. It was resolved that Florida Mission be served by two men. Turkey Hill was taken from Bowmansville Mission and annexed to Conestoga Circuit. Adamstown, Mohn's Hill, Reamstown, Mount Zion, and Bowmansville were called Adamstown Circuit. Annville, Steeltown, Palmyra, and Hanover were constituted Annville and Hanover Mission. Conewago was annexed to Mount Joy Mission. Mount Nebo, Mountville, and Fredericksburg were called Fredericksburg and Mount Nebo Mission. Sunbury and Pike appointment were taken up as a mission.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

These churches received permission to collect within certain prescribed limits, as follows: Wind Gap, in Allentown District, for a debt of $1,200; Lansford, in Pottsville District, for a new church; Topton, in Reading District, for a church debt of $800; Pen Argyl, in Millersburg District, for a church debt of $2,500; Harrisburg, throughout the bounds of the Conference, for a debt of $4,470.96; South Bethlehem, in Philadelphia District, for a new church; Lansdale, in Allentown District, for a debt of $800, provided the members at Lansdale pledge themselves to raise one-half of the amount; West Penn, in Reading District, for a new church. Sister Lydia Yeakel's claim of $525 against our church at Shanrock was referred to the presiding elder and the preacher in charge for adjustment, the latter to have permission, if necessary, to collect in Lebanon District. Trinity Mission, Harrisburg, Pa., received permission to effect a loan sufficient to meet the necessary demands and to give a mortgage on the church property for the same. The congregation at Lansford was advised not to build a new church unless they have a guarantee of $800. Frackville Mission received permission to build a parsonage, to effect a loan sufficient for its erection, and to give a mortgage on the building for the amount. Inasmuch as the congregation at Pen Argyl is still making a heroic struggle under a debt of $2,500, the Church Building Society was requested to grant a loan of $600. The members of Birdsboro Circuit received permission to sell Hay Creek chapel and to apply the proceeds toward liquidating the debt of and repairing the old church, instead of removing the chapel to California appointment. The Quarterly Conference of Wayne Circuit was authorized to sell the parsonage at Sterling and to build another in a more suitable part of the circuit. The members at Temple were advised to postpone the erection of a chapel for at least one year. The trustees of the Brownstown church having sold a piece of land opposite their church in order to secure a tract of similar dimensions adjoining their burying ground, their action was approved. The Conference resolved to raise 20 cents per Conference member for the Albany church debt and referred the remaining $200 of the debt to the presiding elder and preacher in charge.

The auditing committee reported the following as the financial condition of the churches for which funds had been collected during the year:—1st, Topton, W. H. Weidner, collector: entire cost of church and lot, $1,714; cash received, $730.65; present indebtedness, $983.35; unpaid subscriptions, $110. 2d, Kntztown, W. H. Weidner, collector: entire cost of church, $5,947.13; total cash receipts, $5,396.30; present indebtedness, $550.83; unpaid subscriptions, $231. 3d, Bowmansville, A. J. Brunner, collector: paid on the debt during the year, $229.98; present indebtedness, $790. 4th, Pen Argyl, C. D. Dreher, collector: paid on debt and cash in hand, $628; actual indebtedness, $2,280.13. 5th, Shenandoah, D. S. Stanffer, financial agent: paid on debt, interest, &c., during the year, $458.14; present indebtedness, $377.46. 6th, Coplay, H. J. Glick, collector: entire cost of church, $1,549.65; cash received, $966.96; present indebtedness, $582.69; unpaid subscriptions, $592.91. 7th, Harrisburg, S. S.

Chubb, collector: total cost of church, $9,708.31; cash paid on debt, $4,779.16; indebtedness, $4,929.15, old debt, $800; loan from the Church Building Society, $358; unpaid subscriptions, $1,616.19.

EDUCATION.

Schuykill Seminary was strongly recommended as affording excellent advantages for mental culture, safely guarded by a thoroughly Christian environment.

The Conference resolved to raise $1,500 for the current expenses of the seminary during the ensuing year, and apportioned the amount among the presiding elder districts. The treasurer was authorized to borrow money sufficient to cover the present indebtedness of the institution. It was resolved that the money raised on Children's Day be appropriated to the building fund of the seminary. A. M. Stirk, S. C. Breyfogel, and P. Kellmer were elected trustees of the seminary for three years; W. F. Heil was elected to fill the unexpired term of I. E. Knerr, deceased. S. B. Brown, O. L. Saylor, and F. E. Erdman were appointed a visiting committee to attend the closing exercises of the school.

J. G. Mohn, treasurer of Schuykill Seminary, presented the annual financial report of the trustees, which shows the receipts of the institution from Feb. 26th to July 1st, 1886, to have been $1,615.62; the expenditures, $1,377.15; leaving a balance in the treasury of $238.47. The receipts of the building committee for the erection of the college building were $31,103.89; the expenditures for the building, furniture, etc., $35,767.46; thus leaving an indebtedness of $4,663.57.

J. A. Feger, S. B. Brown, and J. K. Seyfrit were appointed to examine applicants for the itinerancy, and C. K. Fehr, D. A. Medlar, and W. F. Heil to examine junior preachers for five years. J. H. Shirey was appointed to fill the vacancy in the examining committee occasioned by the death of I. E. Knerr.

MEMORIALS.

Isaiah E. Knerr was born November 28th, 1838. He was an earnest and faithful preacher of the gospel of Christ. His sermons, always well prepared, were clear and logical in their construction and sound in doctrine. In imitation of his great Master he largely employed illustrations, and delighted to unfold the parables and figurative portions of the Word of God. Endowed with a noble and majestic frame, robust and vigorous constitution, and a good voice, he possessed the natural elements of an orator, which, under the anointing of the Holy Ghost, enabled him at times to preach with great eloquence and power. His ministrations were crowned and blessed of God to the conversion of many souls. His career as a presiding elder showed that he was possessed of rare executive abilities in enforcing the Discipline and administering the financial affairs of his districts. He was converted when young, and associated with his father, brother and son in the same church, ministry, and Conference. He was intensely loyal to the church, and guarded the integrity of her institutions with a jealous eye. In 1881 when the East Penna. Conference contemplated establishing an institution of learning within her bounds, he was chosen as one of a committee of organization, and helped to organize Schuylkill Seminary. From its organization he has been the vice-president of the board of trustees, and also the chairman of the executive committee, as well as the chairman of the building committee.

Daniel Clouser was born December 24th, 1813, in Berks County, Pa. In the year 1833 he was converted to God and united with the Evangelical Association. He was a pious, devoted follower of Christ, and a very acceptable local preacher, never standing in opposition to the regular pastor. His end was peace. To the question of the future his invariable answer was, "all right." His last words were "Jesus! now, now!"

A memorial service was held in which addresses were delivered by A. M. Stirk, C. S. Haman, and C. K. Fehr. Bishop Esher presided.

TEMPERANCE.

Resolved, That we utterly condemn the present high license movement as being in the interest of the saloon and intended to divide the temperance hosts; and that we demand constitutional prohibition for the state and nation, and for the securing of this we solemnly pledge our influence as gospel ministers, our prayers as Christians and our ballots as American freemen. Resolved, That the radical and widespread difference of opinion as to the best method to be employed for the speedy securing of prohibition is but natural and must always be expected as the legitimate result of free thought and free speech on every great question; and therefore we condemn as un-American and un-Christian the spirit of intolerance so extensively manifested in this contest. Resolved, That we rejoice in the fact that the Legislature of Pennsylvania has taken initiative steps towards securing constitutional prohibition by submitting this question to the votes of the people.

“Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.”—I SAMUEL VII: 12.

Alphabetical Roll of Preachers.

I.—SUCH WHO HAVE TRAVELED AND WHOSE NAMES APPEAR ON THE LISTS OF APPOINTMENTS.

"Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Acts xv:26.

In the earlier years the quarterly conferences frequently granted licenses to local preachers, but inasmuch as these transactions are not always recorded in the annual conference books, it is impossible in many instances to determine the exact year in which brethren received license. Where the exact date of licensing is missing, the year in which the name first appears on the annual conference records is substituted. The year 1887 has been counted in computing the number of "years in active service." This item includes the number of years traveled in the East Pa. Conference only. The names marked with a * are still upon the roll of the Conference as Itinerants ; those marked with a † are also still upon the records but not in the Traveling Connection.

STATISTICAL TABLES.

Prior to the year 1861 no regular statistical tables appear upon the records of the Conference. The following tables up to that time are, therefore, a compilation rather than a transcript, a compilation made from reliable data occurring incidentally upon the minutes. Much time and the most exacting pains were taken to make these statistics minutely accurate and thoroughly reliable. It was impossible to compile trustworthy figures of local preachers before the year 1848, because of the fragmentary and indefinite sources of information.

* From 1827 to 1840 double statistics will be given. The upper row of figures opposite each year indicate the total statistics for both the Eastern and Western Conferences; the lower row, the statistics of the Eastern Conference only.

† The General Conference of 1835 transferred three circuits to the Western Conference. This accounts for the decrease in the ministry and membership of the Eastern.

* From this time forth the number of preachers in active service is taken from the list of appointments of the year previous, that is, the number on the list of appointments in 1839, is placed on record as reported in 1840, thus bringing this part into harmony with the rest of the statistics of the East Pa. Conference.
† The amount of salary here given is that of an unmarried preacher. An equal amount additional was allowed for the wife of a married preacher, and one-fourth additional for each child under a certain age. ‡ The decrease in the statistics of this year is accounted for by the fact that the New York Conference had been separately organized.

AN UNUSUALLY VALUABLE BOOK, ENTITLED

"BOOK OF THE LAW."

It has been prepared by a Lawyer of 20 years' Experience, including 12 years service on the Bench.

Albert College of Western Reserve University,

CLEVELAND, O., June 9, 1886.

MESSERS. LAUER & YOST:—I have read a considerable portion of Judge Barber's "Book of the Law," which you kindly sent. I find it clear, plain and brief in its statements of what the law is.

It seems to me a most happy idea to set forth the subject in such a manner that the great body of the people can be enabled to understand the nature of our government, State and National, and also their privileges, rights and duties as citizens.

I hope the book will have a wide circulation. It must be a great educator of the people, and I consider you benefactors of the country if you spread such works.

Very truly yours,

CARROLL CUTLER.

TABLE TALK, edited by Mrs. S. T. RORER, Principal Philadelphia Cooking School, and by JOSEPH WHITTON, former editor, Caterer, is now admitted to be the leading household magazine in relation to all subjects pertaining to Cooking and to the Table. How to improve the table and, at the same time, to lessen its cost, is its main object. MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE

AS PRESENTED BY THE

BENEFIT

Association.

Home Office :

ALLENTOWN, PA.

Incorporated February 7th, 1878.

DR. W. H. HARTZELL, President; JOHN E. LENTZ, Vice-President; DR. A. R. HORNE, Secretary; A. D. DRESHER, Treasurer; J. L. MOYER, General Superintendent; DR. WM. A. HASSLER, Medical Adviser.
REV. BISHOP THOS. BOWMAN, B. D. KECK, Esq., T. J. SCHMEYER, Esq., and DR. H. S. CAMPBELL, Directors.

THE KEYSTONE MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION

is, as is shown by the Annual Reports of Insurance Commissioner of Pennsylvania, one of the most successful of the Assessment Companies, and ranks as first-class among its competitors. Among a healthy class of people the death-rate is, as a matter of course, much lower than in a class surrounded by or given to conditions unfavorable to health. Consequently, an association of such healthy persons has a rate of mortality considerably lower than among a body of men selected without due regard to soundness of health or safety of habits.

Why the Keystone is Preferred.

1. Because it is cheap. 2. Because its affairs are economically managed. 3. Because it pays its losses promptly. 4. Because it pays all legitimate claims in full. 5. Because it is careful in taking risks. 6. Because its directors are well known, careful, conscientious men. 7. Because it has never allowed any speculation. 8. Because its officers are gentlemanly and polite. 9. Because it is straightforward and reliable in all its transactions.

A large number of the ministers of the Evangelical denomination are insured in this Association, among others Revs. W. A. Leopold, R. M. Lichtenwalner, C. H. Baker, J. C. Bleim, D. Yingst, J. S. Newhardt, D. Lentz, D. A. Medlar, I. U. Royer, J. W. Hoover, S. B. Brown, C. H. Egge, etc.

Special reductions made to ministers. A new $5,000 policy is now issued on very low terms. Write for particulars.

"OUR CROWNED DEFENDERS."

The NEW BOOK in preparation, containing full and accurate sketches of the biography of all the deceased Ministers of the East Pennsylvania Conference, Evangelical Association, and some of the deceased General Officers of the Church, with interesting anecdotes, incidents and events during their itinerant lifetime. Personal recollections and reminiscences by many leading members of the Conference. To this will be added

AN APPENDIX, "Our Uncrowned Defenders."

Sketches of the life and Pen Portraits of the Personnel of the present East Pennsylvania Conference.

A book like this should be in every Evangelical family library. It will probably contain upwards of 400 pages, and will be sold by agents only, as low as possible. Persons can apply for agency, &c., to the Author and Publisher,

IT PAYS its policy holders larger dividends than any of its rival companies.

IT ISSUES all forms of Life, Semi-Tontine and Endowment Policies, which are very liberal in their terms.

IT INVESTS its funds upon first mortgage upon improved real estate security, at Western rates of interest; and no such loan can be made for more than half the appraised value of the property. Its location enables it to select the choicest securities, and to command the highest rates of interest.
